U. P. Turns Over 31 1/2 Acre Plat to Las Vegas, 'For Park Use Only' Reserves All Water Rights.

With the stipulation that it be used for city park, the old 'fair ground on the north end of town was recently deeded to the city of Las Vegas by the Union Pacific.

EMORY McKEEN, NOTICE

Emory McKeen is wanted because of severe illness of his father, according to a wire received from his mother, living at San Antonio, Tex., yesterday by Chief of Police Percy Nash, in which Nash was asked to get in touch with McKeen.

McKeen is believed to be employed by the Boulder Dam Construction Company, said the wire.

possession of the city clerk. All water and water rights appurtenant to this land is reserved by the railway company, the subsidiary of which, the Las Vegas Land and Water Company, deeded the land over to the city for consideration of one dollar. The tract comprises thirty-one and a half acres.

Skirts Now Both Long and Short

Many of the new evening gowns seem to be a combination of long and short skirts. The long skirt effect is achieved through the use of long panels which almost touch the floor, as shown in these two new creations.

Perils of "Jazzland," New Marriage Scheme, Treated in El Patio Picture

Gay drunken youth — reeling, laughing insanely, dancing like fools and lunatics on the smooth inviting floor of this modern Babylonian vice-den—amid colored lights, popping of corks, shouts of animal pleasure—then a shot! Who was it? What happened? A man killed! How quickly their artificial spirits turned to water as they faced grim reality, these babes of the jazz age!

"Jazzland," feature picture showing tomorrow night at El Patio theater is a stupendous indictment of present-day pleasures, a daring treatment of the brand-new principle of marriage by agreement, all woven into a story that fascinates and holds the spectator breathless.

Vera Reynolds gives a bold, beautiful characterization of the modern girl—supported by a cast of stars, including Carroll Nye, Bryant Washburn, Virginia Lee Corbin, Florence Turner and others.

An expose of the methods used by charlatans, who produce astral effect by mechanical means and deceive the credulous in order to fill their coffers with gold and silver furnishes the background for Columbia's "The Faker" which will be shown tonight.

A poignant love story has been woven around the girl assistant of a pseudo spiritual delin and the stepson of the man, the seer would prey upon. The method of interesting the wealthy widower in communication with the departed, the planting of an agent in the man's house to gather information, the rationalization of his dead wife and the mechanical means of making spirit voices, rappings, astral-lights, table moving and chairs float through space are revealed in "The Faker."

Tricks that have astounded millions upon the stage are exposed in "The Faker" Every member of the cast including Jacqueline Logan, Charles E. Delaney, Warner Oland, Gaston Glass, Flora Finch, David Mir, Fred Kelsey and Lon Poff was trained in the mechanics of mysticism. They learned to produce ectoplasm at will, manipulate speaking trumpets by means of telescope tubes, speak with several voices and do slate writing.

Against Perfect Bridge Hand Man Wins Grand Slam

HAMMOND, Ind., July 8, (U.P.)—Several persons have been listed at various times among the few out of a half million who draw perfect bridge hands, but Mrs. Cecil Mathews here has the distinction of holding such a hand and, not only not getting to play it, but seeing her opponents score a grand slam on a double.

Mrs. Mathews was so excited when she drew thirteen clubs she shouted "seven clubs" at the top of her voice. Two passes followed and Herman Schroeder, playing with Mrs. Mathews' husband, bid seven diamonds. Mrs. Mathews promptly doubled. Schroeder held eleven diamonds, including all honors, and his partner the ace of spades and ace of hearts. Schroeder's slam netted him a total of 473 points, receiving 125 for game in one hand.

New Airport Set For Reno-Vegas Plane Landing

Boggs Can Land First of Scheduled Planes Here Wednesday, Says Simon; High Test Gas Here for Re-Fueling.

"Yes, the new airport is ready for planes to land there any time now," said P. A. Simon yesterday evening. "Boggs hasn't said anything to me by wire or otherwise as yet about starting his airplane service between here and Reno Wednesday, but if he intends to do so all is O. K. with us."

A whole carload of light gasoline for airplane use arrived yesterday, and Simon announced he is ready to take care of all demand for airplane gasoline at all times. "The gas we shipped in is one pound lighter to the gallon," he said.

G. Ray Boggs president of Nevada Airlines, Inc., announced a short time ago that he would open his airline between Reno and Las Vegas as soon as the airport was ready. It is reported he has announced the first trip will be made Wednesday.

"We will have the field, which is now being graded, oiled soon," said Simon yesterday.

'In Old Arizona' First All Talkie

Not since the early days of the industry has a single film set as many standards as does "In Old Arizona," the first full-length all-talking drama to be made by Fox Movietone, which will be the feature next week at this theater.

Critics and expert showmen have been astounded everywhere, and have showered the most lavish praise possible upon it. It has action, it has thrills, it has suspense, it has a strong love theme, it has gorgeous settings and scenery, it has dramatic fire, it has humor—it has everything a picture can have to be entertaining.

of the leading lights of the motion picture world. All speak all of their lines. If you miss "In Old Arizona" you will miss the film sensation of the decade. It will be at El Portal tonight and tomorrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8, (U.P.)—Seventeen persons lost their lives in a variety of fatalities over the Pacific coast during the week end, according to reports to the United Press today.
