By Williams Improvements At Dixie College Made

Various improvements at the Dixie College, in Saint George, Utah, have been announced recently, including addition of two new music studios, repairing of gymnasium, addition of new curtain, buffet and decoration for the Homemaking department, and completion of equipment for its new Science building.

The Dixie College faculty rates well with any junior college faculty in the intermountain country, it is said. The following teachers were added this year:

Miss Mary Lee, in dramatic art, and Miss Alice Bevy in homemaking.

Stovewood Landed on Him, So He Secured Divorce; 3 Granted

Complaining that his wife, mother of seven children, struck him with a stick of stovewood, and that she threw a meat platter at him so hard it hit the wall and broke, Henry W. Abercrombie was granted decree of divorce by Judge J. Emmett Walsh Tuesday from Nannie O. Abercrombie, to whom he was married in 1912 in Colleton, Georgia.

The children, three girls and four boys, range from 7 to 16. I. S. Thompson was attorney for Abercrombie.

Jessie C. Camden's suit for divorce from Bert L. Camden also was granted, on grounds of cruelty. I. S. Thompson was attorney also for Mrs. Camden. The pair were married in Kansas City, Mo., in 1919.

Albert W. Roth also was granted divorce from Edythe Lorena Roth, for cruelty. They were married in Santa Ana, Calif., in 1919. T. A. Wells was Roth's attorney.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED

Florence Ryan filed Tuesday for divorce from Joseph M. Ryan, for failure to provide. She seeks restoration of her maiden name, Florence Peck, and custody of one of their minor children, Teresa Marie, who is fourteen months old.

The son, Robert, who is four years three months of age, she is willing to allow to go with the father, provided she be permitted to visit him at all reasonable times.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan were married in 1923 in Sioux City, Iowa.

Charles Lee Hoxley is attorney for Mrs. Ryan.

Margaret Hensler to Assist Miss Hanson

Margaret Hensler, grammar school student, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hensler, is the new office assistant for Miss Amy Hanson, deputy state school superintendent. She will help occasionally with the work in Miss Hanson's office in the county house during the coming school term.
