AUDITORIUM BUILDING

222-224 FREMONT

Hearing Set for Man Who Stabbed Wife

Preliminary hearing for Jesus Berman, who tried early this week to kill his common law wife with a knife at Byron, will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday, according to Justice Roger Foley, before whom the hearing will be held.

Antonla Lara, who was the victim of the assault of the Mexican section hand as she tried to protect her baby, is out of danger, according to Dr. Bulette, and the wound in her back is healing. Although her temperature was a little high yesterday, she seemed cheerful.

Airlines Service Will Resume Soon, Belief

The Nevada Airlines will not be suspended for long, according to the belief of P. A. Simon, of the Las Vegas Nevada airport, but will probably resume service between Las Vegas and Reno before many weeks.

The last trip was made Tuesday morning from Las Vegas to Reno.

New Drug Store's Fixtures Installed

Fixtures for the new drug store in Carl Ray's new Professional building are now being installed, including a beautiful outlay of Brunswick fountain equipment and cabinets.

The fixtures were made to order in Los Angeles, and are completely up-to-date in every respect. Opening date for the store has not been set.

Stevens, Henderson, Noland Moving Office

Law offices of Stevens, Henderson and Noland are being moved to the second story of the Beckley building, where they will occupy the three room suite at the extreme front of the building, facing the Fremont street, beginning the first of September.

Part of the library has been moved.

The firm, of which Frank Stevens, Senator A. S. Henderson and Dan V. Noland are members, has occupied a suite in the Clark building heretofore.

Interior completion of the building has been finished with the exception of a few touches.

Three Las Vegans Get Permits to Wed

Three Las Vegans were included among those securing marriage licenses in the past two days.

John H. Ward and Glad M. Mercier were issued a license yesterday, as were also Kirk W. Gregory of Ocean Park, California and Mrs. Marjorie Cooper of Los Angeles.

Wallace Carpenter of Las Vegas is the other resident of this city who secured a license. The permit was issued to Carpenter and Nora L. Bowling of Chino, California on Thursday.

CARS CRASH

A bent axle and a flat tire resulted yesterday from the crash of an Overland car and a Ford at the intersection of First and Carson.

One of the Rau boys is said to have been driver of the Ford car.
