

Chicago Out For World's Pennant

By BERT DEMBY
United Press Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—Given their first National League Pennant since 1918, Chicago fans today turned their attention to the world's series.

The slogan "Come on, Cubs. Clinch that Pennant," which has predominated in baseball discussions here for ten days was replaced by "Don't let Connie Mack and his Athletics."

Speculation concerning the series centered around Rube Walberg and Lefty Grove, Philadelphia's two great left-handers. Fans here think the outcome of the series will depend on whether the cubs can hit these men as they have pounded the National League outposts.

Left handers have been hit freely by the right hand hitters on the Cub staff and in the past two months the Chicagoans have lost only two or three games to porters.

However, there is a belief that there is no left-hander in the National league who can pitch as well as Grove or Walberg and there is an argument that the Cubs will find it just as hard to hit these men as American league teams have found it.

Meanwhile the Cub's management went ahead with plans to utilize every available inch of room for seating the slightly more than 50,000 persons who will see each game here. Requests have been made for 150,000 tickets and President William Veck is allowing the tickets on the "draw it out of the hat" basis. Each one lucky enough to have his application drawn is allowed but two tickets.

The Cubs themselves probably will take it easy in their remaining 41 games. They do have an ambition to win 100 games and need seven victories to accomplish this. However, no one will be overworked to achieve this end. Then there is the matter of the home run championship. Both Hack Wilson and Hornsby probably would like a short rest, but each has a chance to win the championship and one must play ball games to hit home runs.

NEW HUDDLE SYSTEM TO BE USED BY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GRIDDEES THE COMING SEASON

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 23.—Dedicatedly, University of California made great strides in football organization last year. And this year the backbone of this defensive strength, plus some new charging punch, rate the Golden Bear at this early stage as a somewhat stronger more dangerous critter than the 1928 edition.

The team wasn't hit too hard by graduations. Some of the boys given an opportunity to flash momentarily last season will be on hand for any vacancies. Add to these the ex-freshmen and the big reserve list, and Coach "Nibs" Price isn't sitting in any uneasy seat.

He's able to give more thought to the offensive this season, and already he's developed a new type of huddle, which, after the gab-fest circle, sends the linemen to their places with all but the center having their backs to the foe. California rosters insist it's going to allow a wide range for deceptive plays.

Benny Lyon, Stan Barr and Lee Eisan, three consistent 1928 stars, are all available. Garrity, Higginbotham and Ralston Gill are out for the other position, with Garrity having the edge at this stage.

The California line sustained the most loss by graduation, and there is spruced competition for end, tackle and guard positions. Bob Norton, Ellis Thornton and Lyell

Coast Elevens Strive Toward National Honors

By GEORGE D. CRISSEY
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—rather than sectional honors, half pointing toward national fame rather than sectional honor half a thousand young men in the Pacific Coast conference practiced football this week and viewed the coming season with courage and hope.

A diligent search is in full swing for "it" material which will aid in the building of an "it" team—a team which may win acclaim anywhere.

Ambitions to be accepted as the National Champion have been entertained for several years by Stanford, California and the University of Southern California. The desire is stronger than ever this season.

As a rule the two or three teams with a chance of winning the conference title can be picked without effort. This year here are five and possibly six teams which will be very much in the running.

Only four of the ten schools in the conference may be counted out as champions. University of California at Los Angeles, Montana, Idaho and Washington State lack the reserve strength essential to a long campaign.

U. S. C., California, Stanford, Washington, Oregon and perhaps Oregon State should develop great football machines.

The Trojans of U. S. C. champions last year, will present one of the heaviest teams in the country. Washington and Oregon inherited a number of veterans and should round into shape quicker than usual.

Just what Stanford and Oregon State have to offer will be shown tomorrow. Stanford meets the West Coast Army team, while while Oregon State plays Willamette, a northwest conference member. The other squads will remain idle until September 28.

The intersectional games which are attracting much attention here are:

Oct. 19—At Philadelphia California vs. Pennsylvania.
Nov. 1—At Chicago: U. S. C. vs. Notre Dame.
Nov. 23—At Detroit: Oregon State vs. Detroit.
Dec. 7—At Miami: Oregon vs. Florida.

Two other intersectional contests occur when Oregon plays the University of Hawaii at Portland November 23 and when Washington State and the Hawaiians meet in Honolulu on Christmas Day.

Brown are out for the spot vacated by Phillips. Russell Avery, the other regular wingman, is back this year.

Bancroft and Fitz, California lost its regular tackles, Ted Beckett, a 1928 guard, and Timmerman, a regular last season, is back at guard, and Pittio is filling in while Harry Gill, the other regular guard, is indisposed. Roy Riegels, captain, seems set for a great year at center.

U. P. Athletic Club Plans For Year's Activity

Aggressive Campaign Mapped Out In All Lines of Sport—Golf Course To Be Improved.

The balance of 1929 and 1930 will see much activity in the U. P. Athletic Club. The members who have been nominated for officers to take their seats November 1, 1929, are already mapping out an aggressive campaign in all lines of sport.

J. H. Lightfoot who will succeed O. J. Pothoff as President has selected the following to assist him in carrying out the proposed program:

Ladies' baseball, Mrs. Pearl Lackey, chairman.
Gentlemen's baseball, H. G. Brown, chairman.
Baseball, Chas. Rodman, chairman.
Golf, C. S. Hopkins, chairman.
Tennis, A. S. Hensler, chairman.
Clay Pigeon shoots, O. J. Pothoff, chairman.
Rifle range, A. O. Peterson, chairman.
Horseshoes, W. F. Barton, chairman.
Track events, W. B. Bates, chairman.

"We are going to the bat in all sports," says Lightfoot. "We want those interested in the different sports to join the Athletic Club. Anyone desiring to join can do so now and get a receipt for the balance of the year and the year 1930. Employees and any member of family, $2. All non-employees, $3.

Our golf course is to receive special attention and will be put in condition for the lovers of the game to thoroughly enjoy themselves. We are going to try and put Las Vegas on the map—so all interested in any sports let us know."

British Champ Beats Argentino

BROOKLYN, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—Phil Scott, heavyweight champion of England, scored a surprising victory tonight when he won a decision in ten rounds over Victorio Sampaolo, of the Argentine.

Discouraged in the face of Scott's superb defense, Sampaolo fought a desperate fight and only once or twice during the bout, showed any of the promise he displayed in the knockout of Tom Heeney a few weeks ago in the same ring.

Campolo won only two rounds by a clear margin, the first and sixth. He had trouble reaching Scott's body with his long right to the heart, which paved the way for his knock out of Heeney.

The art of spelling correctly is being revived and emphasized this year in St. Louis public schools.

Two Lettermen Lost to Oregon Eleven

CRVALLIS, Ore.—(U.P.)—Loss of two star lettermen from the Oregon State football lineup has completely disrupted all preliminary plans for Coach Shilliser.

First came word from Los Angeles that Russell Striff, star end for the last two years, would not be in condition to report for training. Then Shilliser was informed that Fred Schell, letterman tackle for two years, will be unable to play this year because he has not sufficiently regained strength after a severe attack of blood poisoning.

Both veterans were considered strong points on the Orange line, and their loss will result in considerable rebuilding of the forward wall.

Carl Metten, quarter, is considered a likely candidate for Striff's old post at right end, and Chuck Stout, another two-year letterman, may be made over from a guard to fill Schell's shoes.

Seniors Defeat Sophomore Team

The high school senior football team defeated the Sophomore team Sunday afternoon with a score of 12 to 0. Both scores were made on fumbles.

A large crowd gathered at the field to witness the game.

The sophomore team will mix with the junior team in about two weeks.

A census of Carson, Iowa, shows that of the 620 residents, 113 are widows, widowers, bachelors and spinsters.
