BIG HIGH SCHOOL PEP RALLY FOR FOOTBALL TEAM FRIDAY DESERVES PUBLIC INTEREST

Young Folks Plan Big Time to Enlist Moral Support of Public in School's Athletic Activities—Parents and General Public Are Urged to Attend.

A big "Pep" rally will be held by the students of Las Vegas High School in the high school auditorium Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The object of the rally is primarily to interest the entire community in the football games when the school is promoting for this season, but the interest is intended to embrace all branches of the school activities.

The Grammar School Band will be present and the high school student body will dish up their latest and most peppy songs and yells.

Admission is free, the rally not being a ticket selling scheme. It is the urgent request of the faculty as well as of the students that parents and the public generally interest themselves in the activities of the young folks.

The 20-30 Club, Kiwanis Club and Rotary Club have each received special invitations to attend.

The young people are entitled to our moral as well as our financial support. It has too often been our custom to consider our duty done when we buy a ticket. We should go farther still and lend the support of our personal interest to the activities of the young people. We thereby will please the young folks, help them to bring success to their enterprises and build up a community spirit which will be helpful to us all.

And the young people will stage a show worth our while—one which will give even us older folks a thrill we have not enjoyed since we, too, were high school boys and girls.

Aimee Expensive For Ohio Church

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 25 (U.P.)—The hopes of Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles evangelist, to extend her Four Square Gospel Faith, have been crushed in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, Rev. Dawson McCullough, former state superintendent of Michigan and Indiana of her churches said today.

He asserted this was because of her large expenses, including $40,500 for beauty treatments while she was here on a recent soul saving campaign.

All but one of Mrs. McPherson's sixteen Michigan churches have withdrawn from the association headed by Aimee Temple, and Rev. McCullough, who came here from the California congregation, does not think the Indiana and Ohio churches will remain steadfast much longer.

Duels Between Matty and Plank Stirred Fans During 1913 Series

By JOHN H. REITINGER (Associated Press Staff Writer)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (U.P.)—Many world's series games have stirred baseball, but for tenseness and fine bits of strategy, the series of 1913, the last time those old rivals, the Giants and the Athletics met, will long be remembered.

The Athletics won four games to one. The sole run captured by the Giants was a ten-inning affair in Philadelphia and was one of the most exciting played by these teams which had met three times in the October classic.

The first game played in New York, was won by the Athletics, 6 to 4, a circuit drive by Home Run Baker with Eddie Collins on the runways figuring largely in the result.

The incomparable Mathewson was on the nitching mound for New York in the second game, played in Philadelphia, and proved to be a heart-throbbing 10-inning pitching duel between "Big Six" and Eddie Plank.

Great pitching and wonderful fielding saved both sides. Neither had scored a run in eight innings. New York had two on bases with one out in the ninth, but was unable to score. The A's in their half also had two men on with no one out and also failed. In this half Mathewson gave one of his greatest exhibitions of strategy saving the game with the aid of the fine fielding of Wiltse.

With Strunk, a fast man, on third and Barry on second, Jack Lapp hit to George Wiltse, the veteran pitcher who was filling in at first for the suspended Merkle. Wiltse whipped a throw to McLean, cutting off Strunk at the plate. The Athletics crowded around Connie Mack in an excited discussion regarding whether Eddie Plank should take his regular turn at bat or step aside for a pinch hitter.

There were cries of "Murphy" from all over the field but Mack refused to send in Danny Murphy, a good hitter, and stood pat on his old friend Plank.

Anyway, Eddie also hit to Wiltse and Barry was run down in trying to score the winning run. Lapp was on third and Plank on second and two men were down. The crowd tried to rattle the great Mathewson but he calmly pitched to the batter—Eddie Murphy—who poked a weak grounder to the box and the game went to the tenth inning. In the extra round the Giants scored three runs and the

Nebraska Wildcat Takes Bout Easy

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25 (U.P.)—Ace Hudkins lived up to his reputation as the Nebraska Wildcat last night and battered Joe Anderson so badly in six rounds at the Olympic auditorium that the latter's handkerchiefs were in the towel and ended what was scheduled as a 10-round bout.

Anderson, although hopelessly beaten, put up one of the gamest exhibitions seen at the Olympic for many months and was roundly cheered when he left the ring.

Both fighters started out with lashing blows but Hudkins' greater stamina soon became apparent. He took a heavy pounding himself but nothing like that he administered to Anderson.

Anderson went down twice in the fourth round. The first trip came as the result of a left to the body and a right to the chin. He clambered to his feet at the count of seven and staged a vicious attack until Hudkins connected with a body blow. Joe went down again, but arose at the count of eight and carried on when the referee refused to allow a claim of foul.

The sixth round was a savage affair. Hudkins finally crowded Anderson into the ropes and many rinsiders were of the opinion he butted the Kentuckian. At any rate Anderson dropped his guard and Hudkins connected flush to the jaw with a right. Anderson went down for nine counts but got up almost immediately. Hudkins floored Anderson again but the gong saved him from a knockout. Anderson's seconds found his bridge work had been loosened by the sixth round beating and it was decided to toss in the towel.

Shipping Board Makes Big Loan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (U.P.)—The shipping board today approved two loans totalling $10,575,000 to the Dollar Steamship Line, Inc., of San Francisco for the construction of two combination passenger ships.

The vessels, to cost approximately $7,000,000 each, will be built by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company.

The vessels are to be delivered October 1, 1931, and February 1, 1932, according to the contract. Construction will begin immediately.

Shipping Board Makes Big Loan

A's none. The last duel between Christy and Eddie came in the first game of the series. Plank stopped the Giants with two hits, his cross-fire ball working with deadly effect. Matty allowed only six blows, but the A's won 3 to 1 to clinch the series.

These two master moundsmen sleep in their native soil of Pennsylvania where they went to college and where they learned the game of baseball. Plank rests in historic Gettysburg; Mathewson among the sloping foot hills of the Alleghenies.

Mackmen Win Most A. L. Pennants; Also Good At Finishing In Cellar

By JOHN H. REITINGER (Associated Press Staff Writer)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (U.P.)—The Philadelphia Athletics not only have the best record in the league in winning seven pennants in the American circuit, but also may soon have the second worst record for finishing last.

Only the Boston Red Sox will have a more unenviable record for finishing in the cellar, providing they are last this year. Then they would have eight basement championships to the A's seven.

A feature of the Athletics' cellar record is that they made it all in a row, from the time Connie Mack broke up his great team after the 1914 season, through the World War period, to and including 1921.

Besides the proud performance of seven pennants, the Athletics also hold the fine record of having finished second more times than any other club in the league, being the runner up six times.

In all the years since 1901 the club has had but one manager—Cornelius McGillicuddy—but two presidents, Benjamin F. Shibe and Thomas B. Shibe, father and son; and but one business manager, John D. Shibe, another son.

The club's record is as follows:

Year	Rating	Won	Lost	Pct.
1901	Fourth	74	62	.544

CHRISTIAN X IS AGED 59

Danish King, Democrat and Well Known Sportsman, Celebrates Birthday in Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 25, (U.P.)—The tallest of European kings, and one of the most popular, is 59 years old today. King Christian X of Denmark, still one of the keenest of royal sportsmen, was toasted in thousands of Danish homes, for he is immensely loved by his people.

Christian X came to the Danish throne in 1912. He reached his 59th year in excellent health. A great many visitors paid their respects at the palace this morning, and there will be a family birthday dinner tonight. Queen Alexandra and her sons, Crown Prince Frederik and Prince Knud, shared the congratulations of the Danish people on the monarch's birthday.

The king's advancing years see no decrease in his interest in sports. His ten-meter yacht "Rita" is a familiar vessel on the Riviera during the yachting season. He is enthusiastic about winter sports and especially keen on ice-skating. The king is also a horseman and hunter. The informality of Christian X on both formal and informal occasions is well known. He often walks unescorted through the streets of Copenhagen. His democracy is unrivaled among members of the royalty.
