Sleeper Coaches To Span Country

Pickwick Corporation to Put Nitecoaches on Transcontinental Run On Completion of Factory.

Transcontinental sleeper bus service will be the next great forward step in the development of motor stage travel.

Announcement was made today by Charles F. Wren, president of the Pickwick Corporation and Pickwick Nitecoach Corporation, Ltd., that six day through sleeper bus service soon would be inaugurated on Pickwick's transcontinental motor stage lines from Los Angeles and San Francisco to New York and Boston.

"Inauguration of coast to coast sleeper bus service awaits only completion of the new $200,000 Nitecoach factory now under construction at El Segundo," Mr. Wren said.

The projected service will mark the beginning of a new era in motor coach transcontinental travel and is made possible through perfection by the Pickwick Company of the world's first compartment sleeper bus, with complete dining facilities as well as sleeping accommodations for 26 passengers and crew of three, including driver, porter and steward.

The first Nitecoach turned out at the new El Segundo factory

Hiway Employees Stage Big Party At Bunkerville

Banquet and Dance Features of Entertainment at School House with 150 Guests Attending.

BUNKERVILLE, Oct. 26, (Special to the Age)—The school house halls were bright with hallowe'en decorations last evening, when hiway employees, past and present, of Division 1 of the State Highway Department entertained their wives and sweethearts.

About 150 guests made merry to the music of the Bunkerville orchestra, and dancing continued until the early morning hours.

Near midnight guests adjourned to the high school hall where the banquet was served by the girls of the domestic science class under the direction of the instructor, Mrs. Burson. Here the tables were gay with flowers, and the hallowe'en motif was further carried out. The menu consisted of sandwiches, fried chicken, relishes, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Division Engineer C. C. Boyer acted as toastmaster, and there was much good-natured jesting.

Today will be devoted to sports of various kinds, including wrestling, racing, etc.

Covers were laid for the following: Messrs. and Mesdames C. C. Boyer, Claude Curran, O. O. Dimick, M. E. Leavitt, Orlando Dimick, William

Who Owns Your Property?

No matter how long you have lived in your home—no matter how long you have occupied your business property—you can never be certain that one day some claimant, whose alleged right is not apparent in the common abstract of title, may not attempt to take it from you.

Title Insurance is the only dependable protection you can have. It costs little—and you pay but a single premium.

Should your title ever be attacked, we will defend it in court at our own expense—indemnifying you in case of loss.
