BUSINESS MEN PRAISE 1929

W. E. Ferron, Las Vegas Pharmacy:
"The year just passing has been without doubt the best we ever have had. There's more business now than there was last year, but there are more merchants to take the business."

O. K. Adcock, Adcock and Renow:
"Our business has shown an increase every month of this year over the corresponding month of last year."

W. N. Schuyler, Schuyler's Paint Shop:
"I started a new business April 20, shortly after the big boom, and it is gratifying to consider that I have succeeded in holding my own. And now my anticipation is that the business of next year, and after, will be more than make it worth while."

Harry Blanding, Blanding's Market:
"Judging from my business and from observation, I would estimate there has been a much greater total of business in every line in 1929 than during the previous year, although in some instances it was split up more by the presence of more business houses."

A. B. Witcher, realtor:
"My year as a whole was entirely satisfactory as regards my real estate business, and I anticipate an even better year for 1930. I am confident preliminary work on Boulder dam will begin early in the coming year, and this is bound to give us all prosperity."
