

RASKOB DENIES BUYING THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY SAYS HE IS TRUE LIBERAL

Democratic Head Stops in Washington to Reply to Charges Made by Democratic Baltimore Sun

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (UP)—Emphatic denials that he ever was a Republican or that he has "bought and paid for" the Democratic party was made tonight by Chairman John J. Raskob of the Democratic national committee. He denied also that any clique is being formed to control the Democratic presidential nominating convention of 1932 and described himself as "a true liberal in every sense of the word."

The party, he said, is not controlled by any man or group of men. Raskob, passing through the capital today on his way to Florida, issued publicly a letter written to Frank R. Kent of the Baltimore Sun, a Democratic newspaper, replying to an article published under Kent's signature last week. "When you liken the Democratic Party to a common harlot that can be bought and sold, used and abused at will," Raskob's letter said, "you tramp on the toes of millions of Democrats who are proud of their heritage, glory in the traditions of their party and resent these insults."

Ely Defeats Moapa Valley In Fast Game

By J. DONAL EARL
OVERTON, Jan. 12—After a hard and bitter fight the local Pirates dropped the first league game of the season last week to the visiting Bobcats from White Pine county to the tune of 30-25. The game was replete with thrills and clever playing from the first and the winner was in doubt throughout the entire contest.

The locals started out strong and slipped in seven points in the first few minutes but allowing the visitors to break loose were tied at the end of the first quarter. The score then changed hands back and forth with no team ahead more than three points.

With the score 26-25 and but seconds to go the Bobcats slipped in two setups to boost their score to 33 as the whistle blew.

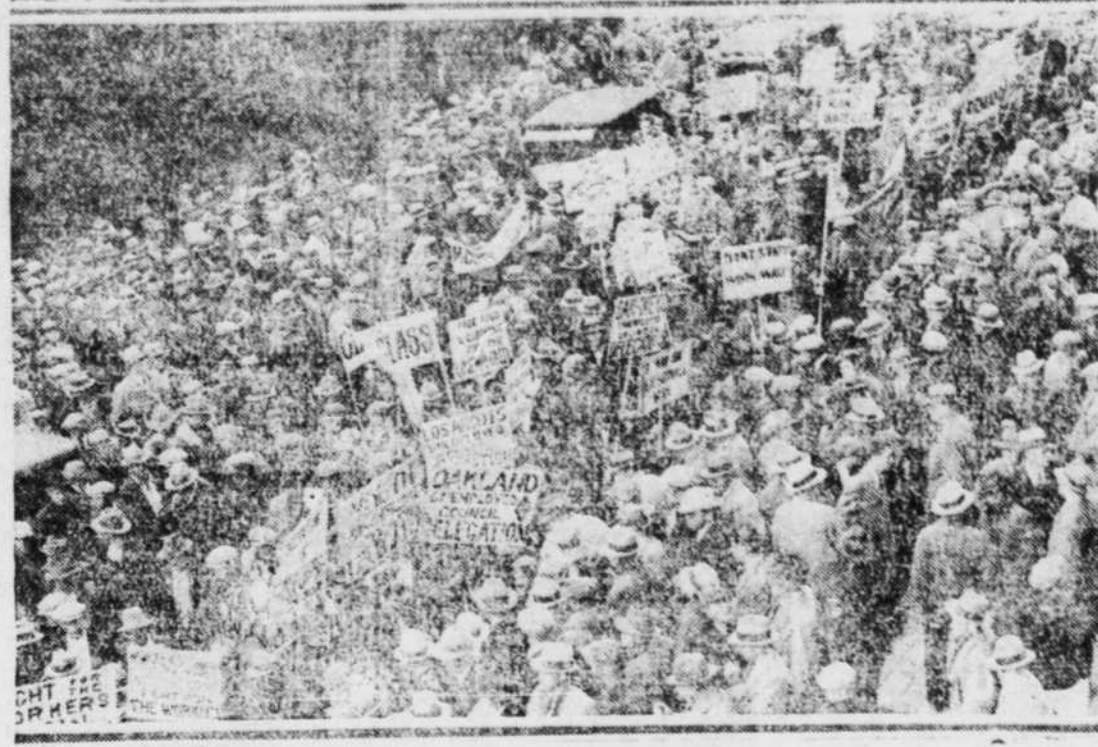

Jones Funeral At Overton

Funeral services for Thomas Jones, who died of pneumonia at Overton last Thursday evening, were held at Overton, and attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Mr. Jones was well known in Las Vegas, and is survived by three brothers and two sisters, all residing in Clark county. They are Horace Jones and Mrs. Mary Beatty of Las Vegas, County Commissioner Albert Jones and William Jones, president of the Moapa stake, and Mrs. Annie E. Cox of Bunkerville.

By a strange coincidence, a prominent citizen of Cedar City, Thomas Jedediah Jones, also died last week in the southern Utah city. Although of the same name, they were of entirely different families, and not in any way related, although both were prominent in church and civic affairs.

UNEMPLOYED BESET NEW GOVERNOR

Brandishing banners and huge placards, an army of more than 1,000 unemployed marched on the state capital at Sacramento, Calif., shortly after the inauguration of Gov. James Rolph Jr. Listed among the demands made upon the governor were: Immediate employment, free food and clothing for the jobless. Joining the mob were many to in money and Warren Billings sympathizers, one of whom carried a banner demanding instant release of the pair.

Bishop Mitty Pays Visit To Las Vegas Parish

The Right Reverend John J. Mitty, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Utah and southern and eastern Nevada, paid a visit to the Las Vegas parish last week-end.

He arrived Saturday morning, and left for Los Angeles Sunday evening. During Saturday he was in conference with prominent church members on various matters pertaining to the parish, and in the evening was entertained at dinner at the Union Pacific dining room.

Sunday morning he presided at the 8 and 10 o'clock masses. At the dinner Saturday evening, an informal discussion of church matters was held, and Bishop Mitty made a short talk touching upon his recent visit to Rome and several other foreign countries.

In speaking of his audience with Pope Pius, Bishop Mitty said that when he opened the door of the office room and stepped inside, the pope looked up and said: "Well, how is everything in Salt Lake?"

In the conversation that followed, the pope showed an amazing familiarity with conditions and problems of the bishop's diocese, even to the local parish.

Following the bishop's talk several short talks were made by Ed. W. Clark, Cyril S. Wenger, Jas. A. Fleming, Sr., P. A. Keegel, E. W. Craig and A. H. Harrington. Others present at the dinner were Father J. J. O'Grady, Leo A. McNamee, Jas. A. Fleming, Jr., Dr. W. G. Pico, P. J. Gallagher, W. P. Bressingham, Louis Pico, and M. E. Sullivan.

Lycurgus Lindsey vs. T. J. Lawrence, Inc., a corporation, and T. J. Lawrence. Suit to recover $10,000 alleged to be due on a promissory note for $10,000 dated May 23, 1929, with interest, and $1,000 attorney's fees. F. R. McNamee and Leo A. McNamee, attorneys for plaintiff.

Jean Saul, well known local tailor, who was ill for several weeks, is much improved.

TWO SUSPECTS ARRESTED IN HOLDUP CASE

Los Angeles Officers Make Arrests When One Phones

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12 (UP)—Calling up Detective Lieut. Buck Weaver at police headquarters, Jack Carpenter, 42, is alleged to have declared he was one of the bandits who robbed the Green Lantern cafe in Las Vegas, Nev., about Christmas.

Carpenter also gave Detective Weaver to come to his room and get him, the officer reported.

Weaver accepted the invitation with three other officers and arrested Carpenter and J. Scott, 33, also alleged to have been implicated in the robbery.

The man will be returned to Nevada authorities want them, Weaver said.

It was said that Carpenter was drinking at the time he phoned his deft to the police station.

District Attorney Harley A. Harmon, upon receiving word of the arrest of Carpenter and Scott, moved that the hearings of Jim Ferguson and James Costigan, charged as accessories, and William B. Potter, charged with being a principal in the Green Lantern holdup, be postponed until today. It is understood that steps have been taken to bring Carpenter and Scott here from Los Angeles. Sheriff Joe Keate, who has been on the Green Lantern case in person since the commission of the crime, is responsible for the arrest of the suspects here and also for Carpenter and Scott, in Los Angeles.

JURY AGREES

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 12 (UP)—Why queried M. M. Gould, should a man be penalized just because nature takes its course. A jury listened and agreed with Gould. The man was acquitted on a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor. He had, he explained, bought sweet cider. Time passed and what was once a harmless beverage gradually developed into a drink with an affirmative kick.

SKUNK PRAISED

DEEP RIVER, Wash., Jan. 12 (UP)—Here's good news for little Willie skunk!

True, he has his bad habits, but he's worth a dozen cats for keeping down mice, rats and ground squirrels. Salmon Creek valley farmers declare.
