WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (A)-Republican politics and drought relief were subjects of dispute in the senate today while the house worked quietly on appropriation bills with a heated controversy impend ing over the dry enforcement funds which the wet bloc plans to assail

Democratic leaders held in abeyance their effort to enact a proposa that $25,000,000 be appropriated and given to the Red Cross for drought relief and struck back at that organization for criticizing the pro-ject after Red Cross officials had told President Hoover that the senate proposal was impeding their campaign for public contributions of $10,000,000. Senator Robinson. O K. Adcock, T. D. Fanatia, O. A. Democratic leader, retorted that the Kimball, H. P. Marble, Leo A. Mcstatement was made to embarrass Namee, O. W. Yates and J. P. Fagan the passage of the government aid appropriation.

Senator Cutting, New Mexico, Re-publican, assalled Robert Lucas, executive director of the Republican national committee. He read a letter he said Lucas sent out to internal revenue bureau agents when he was head of the bureau asking them to keep him informed on local political conditions. Senator Johnson of California and Couzens of Michigan joined Cutting in the criticism. Cutting called on party leaders to repudiate Lucas.

The senate gave the Nye campaign funds committee $50,000 to continue its investigations and directed the commerce committee to find out why bread prices have not fallen with wheat and flour quotations. A sugar investigation was
