MILE-EATERS

These Western Air Mile fliers (left to right), Fred Kelly, Jimmy Carson and Jimmy James, are figuring out the miles they have flown during the past five years. The total shows a little better than 1,500,000 miles, or a distance equal to 60 times around the world, all flights having been made between Salt Lake City, Utah, and southern California.

Duplex Mill Said Ready To Start Up Soon

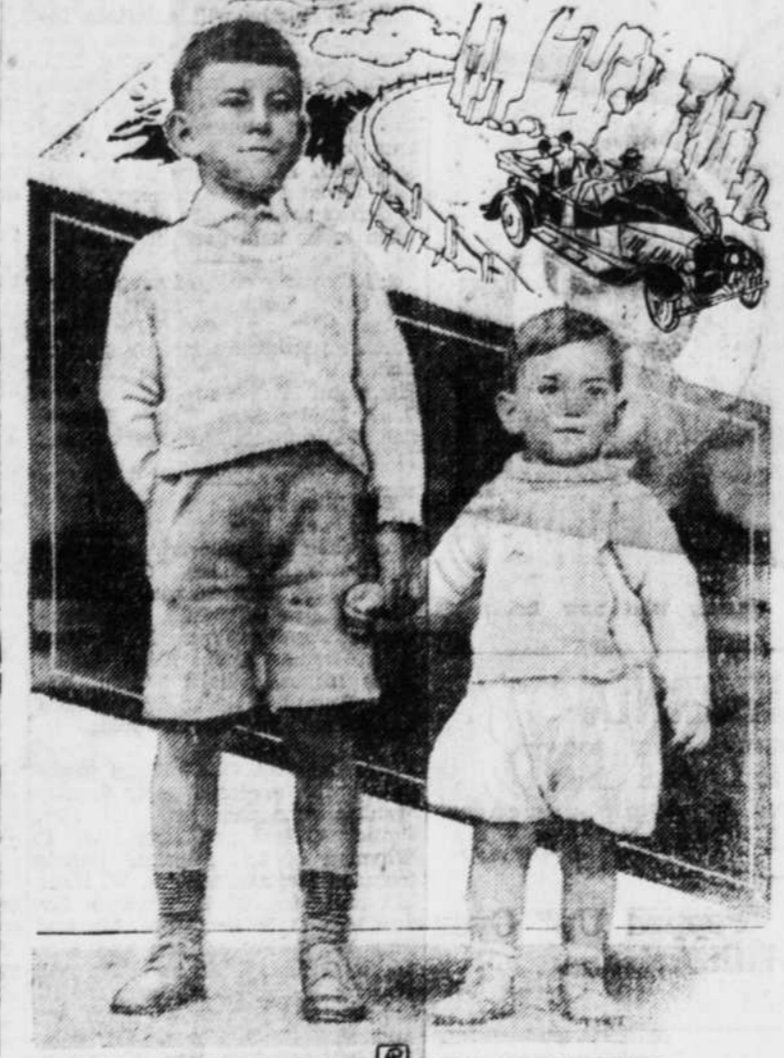

The Searchlight Gold corporation, W. J. Loring, managing director, has most of its machinery in the 100-ton milling plant. The mill will start operating this month. The plant includes a heavy distillate engine, ball mill, flotation machines, and amalgamation machinery, operating on a sodium process owned largely by the McCarthy interests in the Searchlight Gold corporation. The Duplex, which is the principal mine, has been cleaned out to the 800-foot level and development is outlined covering that depth, the 700, sub-600, 600 and 500-foot levels. It is estimated that 35,000 tons of ore are in sight in the mine, and about 25,000 tons on the tailings dump. Gold, silver and copper are the principal minerals in the ore, and it is planned to use the sodium process of the McCarthy's, incorporated, as the Nascent Amalgam corporation, in treating these tailings. A new hoist and galleys frame have been installed. The concentrates will be trucked over a good road to Nipton, Calif., 20 miles west of Searchlight. Albert H. McCarthy is superintending operations under Loring's guidance.—Denver Mining Record.

Baby Autoists See All U. S. Before Age To Enter School

Metoring 250 miles a day, the year around, with their father, Gene Edmonds, 5 (left), and his baby brother, Charles, 18 months, of Fort Worth, Tex., have already seen more of the United States than lots of grown-ups.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Feb. 6. (AP)—Gene Edmonds, 5 years old, and his baby brother, Charles, 18 months, should be able to teach their teachers geography when they start to school. Gene and Charles are sons of J. E. Edmonds, Fort Worth advertising man, who covers his wide territory by automobile, taking the family along. Neither child has ever been sick, even to the extent of a bad cold, the father says. Gene's travels have taken him to Yellowstone park, the Grand Canyon, Niagara Falls, the Statue of Liberty, the Alamo and many other world-famous places. He has seen 38 states and much of Canada and Mexico. Charles has only seen a dozen or so commonwealths—but give him time.

Chief O'Neil walked into the police reserve room the other day and found two patrolmen engrossed in a game of craps. "Play dominoes if you wish," Chief O'Neil announced to the force, but "lay off craps."

Air Corps Finds 1930 Producing No Heroes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—Air corps heroes set such a standard of valor in past years that there will be no 1930 Cheney award. An air corps board found no achievement deemed worthy of the award remarking that the standard set by previous winners was so high "it should not be cheapened." The last winner was Lieut. William A. Matheny, who rescued a companion from the blazing wreckage of a bomber in which they crashed in Nicaraguan jungles.
