BARKER WILL LECTURE FOR ROTARY CLUB

Noted Speaker to Give Four Talks Next Wednesday

Charlie Barker, who won the hearts of the boys and girls of the Vegas schools as well as of the general public when he spoke here under the auspices of Las Vegas Rotary club about five years ago, will be here again Wednesday.

He will give a series of four talks, according to the announcement of the community service committee of the Rotary club. The first address will be for high school students at 11:00 at the old high school auditorium on Fourth street.

The regular meeting, changed this week from Thursday to Wednesday noon, will be addressed by Dr. Barker, the members being permitted to take guests up to the capacity of the U. P. dining room. Therefore it is necessary that all members planning to have guests shall notify President Charlie Dimock by Monday noon.

In the afternoon at 3:30 there will be a lecture for women and high school girls and in the evening at 7:30, Dr. Barker will address fathers and sons and as many of their friends as there is room for. The afternoon and evening meetings will both be in the old high school auditorium, which will accommodate about four hundred people.

The lectures are entirely free, the Rotary club assuming the cost of the "Rotary's Ambassador to Youth." There need be no fear of being bored, because every sentence uttered by Charlie Barker is full of a combined entertainment, inspiration and instruction which holds his hearers in the closest interest.

St. Joan of Arc Church Will Be Ready Sunday

It is expected that the last bit of work connected with the enlarging and altering of St. Joan of Arc Catholic church will be finished today, and the building will be ready for services tomorrow morning.

The new space added to the church proper gives room for 150 more people than could be accommodated heretofore. A stained glass window, and decorating of the space occupied by the altar have added greatly to the attractiveness of the structure.

Although the work of enlarging the building has been going on for the past six weeks, the Rev. Fr. J. J. O'Grady was been conducting services regularly.

show it will bring in around $65,000,000 and result in a year-end surplus.

Right here is where the "white collar" men find the source of their woes. They buy a better class of goods than the masses and must still pay last autumn's prices. In addition there is the increased turnover tax which, as usual, is passed over to the consumer.

Moreover, that tax is cumulative. Sometimes it is imposed eight or ten times on an article which passes through many intermediaries before reaching the user.

Court Decision Spurs Drive On Radio 'Rackets'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (U.P.)—From radio's high tribunal comes a warning to broadcasters that they must limit the amount and kind of advertising.

The decision of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, upholding revocation of the broadcast license of Dr. J. R. Brinkley, of Milford, Kans., is construed by members of the radio commission as a mandate to broadcasters to keep advertising within the limits consistent with public service.

The court held that KFKB, over which Dr. Brinkley broadcast prescriptions, was conducted solely in his personal interest.

Public Interest Paramount Justice Charles H. Robb, who wrote the opinion, said: "When congress provided that the question whether a license should be issued or renewed was dependent upon a finding of public interest, it evidently had in mind that broadcasting should not be a mere adjunct of a particular business, but should be of a public character."

The commission has had under surveillance for some time the activities of several other stations, alleged to be operating primarily for the promotion of "rackets" conducted by their owners. The decision of the court in the Brinkley case is expected to give impetus to commission action against these so-called "radio racketeers."

War Station Owners Major General Charles Saltzman, chairman of the commission, recently warned a national convention of station owners of the danger of "overloading listeners with advertising propaganda." A more striking denunciation of the sales talk trend of programs came from Dr. Lee DeForest, president of the Institute of Radio Engineers.

"From the ecstasies of Beethoven, stenographers are suddenly dumped into a cold mess of soft drinks or cigarettes, while the softly fading notes of an opera emerge into a discourse on sanitary plumbing or whole 'heart bread," he said. "Such advertisers are not clever salesmen, they are unsmooth sandwich men."

MADRID, Feb. 27. (U.P.)—General Wamasa Berenguer, who has tackled the task of maintaining the Spanish monarchy, believes short wisecracks are more effective in explaining state policies than long, official communications.

Gypsy Moth War Has Run Into Many Millions

By GARDNER L. BRIDGE (United Press Staff Correspondent) ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 27. (U.P.)—When a few fuzzy little caterpillars escaped from a scientist at Medford, Mass., 62 years ago they started on a march of devastation that has cost New England states $100,000,000.

A relentless war is now being waged in the Hudson and Champlain valleys to prevent the ravagers from invading the rest of the country.

The New York Conservation commission, in announcing the enormous loss suffered by New England in devastated forest, fruit and shade trees, warned that a new infestation of gypsy moths, which grow from the little caterpillars, has just been discovered in the town of Milan, Dutchess county, a few miles west of the Connecticut state line.

A barrier zone has been set up to block the pest's advance, with department scouts and exterminators on constant vigilance.

This year Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt recommended that the annual appropriation for the insect war be doubled, so as to serve the dual purpose of strengthening the state's forces against the ever-increasing horde and to provide extra jobs for unemployed, and it is being done. The appropriation this year will be $8,000,000.

Conservation Commissioner Henry Morgenhau, Jr., has asked federal authorities for increased assistance in cleaning up the heavily infested area in New England. It is hoped the federal appropriation also will be doubled.

The invasion began in 1869 when a few of the insects which Leopold Trouvelot was cross-breeding with silkworms in an effort to produce a silk worm immune to certain diseases, accidentally escaped. Although Trouvelot notified the proper authorities, no attention was paid the matter until 20 years later when ravages of the pest, which Trouvelot had imported from Europe, began to cause general alarm. In 1890, the Massachusetts legislature took official cognizance of the menace and spent $1,000,000 during the following ten years in a futile effort to halt the advance. Since then the monetary loss has multiplied 100 times, according to the New York officials.

Of Texas' 252 counties, 134 have women treasurers.

The judge made his decision unexpectedly as soon as final arguments were finished. He had been expected to take the case under advisement.

The gang leader, forewarned by remarks of the judge during the final arguments, gulped and flushed when the jail sentence was decreed. He refused to comment.

The decision marked the first time in Capone's 10 years of gang leadership in Chicago that he had been convicted in a local court. The only other conviction behind his name was in Philadelphia in 1929 and that for carrying a pistol.
