OFFICIAL'S SON KNOWN HERE, WILL WED

SPECIAL TO THE AGE
LOS ANGELES, May 1.—An outstanding event of the coming winter season in southern California will be the wedding of Miss Nancy Adams, younger sister of Mrs. Cecile B. DeMille, wife of the motion picture producer-director and Herbert Howard Calvin, well known Los Angeles business man. Announcement of the coming wedding was made tonight at a supper party in honor of the popular couple at the home of Mrs. Francis Edgar Calvin, a bride of a year ago and the former Cecilia Hoy DeMille, at Lauehin park.

The wedding will take place next December, the announcement stated. Miss Adams is the daughter of the late Circuit Judge Frederic Adams of New Jersey and Mrs. Adams. She has gained a wide circle of friends in Los Angeles and southern California for her beauty and personality as well as her outstanding work in the community chest as public secretary. She is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles and attended Mills college and Hollywood School for Girls. She is one of the most popular and attractive girls of southern California society.

Mr. Calvin is the son of E. E. Calvin, retired vice president of the Union Pacific system and Mrs. Calvin. He is president of the Calvin Supply company of Los Angeles, and a brother of Francis E. Calvin, who married the former Miss Cecilia DeMille last season. He attended the Phillips Exeter academy in New Hampshire and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston. The wedding date has not been set pending the return of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin to their Los Angeles home from a European tour.

Herbert Howard Calvin is well known in Las Vegas in business and social affairs as is his father, for many years actively associated in the development of Las Vegas through his work as vice president of the Union Pacific system.

LAND SALE WILL AID IN REPAIRS

Planning to raise money to be used in repairing one of the school buildings, the local school board will offer for sale, certain school lands in Las Vegas.

Two tracts of land, one at Fourth and Charleston and the other in the Boulder addition on South Fifth street, said to be useless for school purposes, will be offered to the highest bidder on Thursday, May 28, at 11 a. m. in the county treasurer's office.

To Remove Chaos In China School System

PEIPING, May 16 (AP)—A vigorous attempt is being made by Dr. Chou Hseuh Chang, new municipal educational director in Peiping, to clear up chaotic conditions in primary and middle schools here. He hopes to have all schools running in good order by next autumn. The northern rebellion last year played havoc with Peiping's primary schools. Teachers were not paid, and politicians made principals. After collapse of rebellion responsible heads of many schools did what they pleased. The whole primary school system virtually collapsed. Dr. Chou is spending the spring and summer restoring order.
