DERBY WINNER CUTS TRACK RECORD TIME

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 16. (P)—Roaring acclaim of the super-thoroughbred echoed down the stretch at the historic Churchill Downs today as the magnificent bay colt, Twenty Grand bounded in giant strides to a record breaking victory in the fifty-seventh running of the Kentucky Derby. Twenty Grand was carrying the green and white colors of Mrs. Payne Whitney and galloped down the stretch to a decisive victory over Sweep All, the West's surprise contender, and the heavily backed Mate, winner of the Breakers.

Twenty Grand was the outstanding favorite in a field of twelve, jockeyed by Charles Kurzingger, the colt shattered the Derby and track records for a mile and a quarter, covering the distance in two minutes, one and four fifths seconds. It was short of the World's record of two minutes flat, held by the mighty Whiskbroom II. The former derby record of two minutes three and two-fifths seconds was made in 1914, by Rosebud.

Today's winners paid on a two dollar mutual ticket $3.76 to win; $2 to place and $2.60 to show.

Spanish Fly, the fourth winner gets a purse of $48,725.

BAN ON GERMAN LEADER LIFTED

PARIS, May 16. (P)—Jean Chiappe, Paris chief of police, has lifted the ban on Felix Weingartner, famous German orchestra leader, and the latter is appearing in Paris.

Nationalists raised a howl when Weingartner was first announced as a guest conductor, charging that he had signed a manifesto, odious to the French, in 1914, and that he had returned his Legion of Honor decoration.

But liberal forces, reinforced by artistic circles, disproved the charges. They also showed that the boundary shifts which followed the war had made Weingartner an Italian subject instead of a German citizen.

On the sidelines by Brian Bell

Dan Howley is one of the most astute of all smart major league managers, but sometimes even the genial Dan's judgment on baseball players plays him false. Certainly he seems to have permitted a nod or two when he let Clifford (Pat) Crawford go to the minors.

Crawford seemed the prospect of the year when he was with the New York Giants, going great guns as a pinch hitter, and getting his name "in the book" for two noteworthy performances.

He equalled the record by hitting three home runs in one season as a pinch hitter, and one of the round-trip wallops was good for a tie with another record, for the bases were full when he slammed the ball out of the lot.

Manager John McGraw knew Crawford was a great hitter, but he had Bill Terry at first base, so when the Cincinnati Reds offered a wealth of playing talent for Pat, McGraw finally permitted him to move on.

COLUMBUS DISCOVERS PAT

Last autumn Cincinnati released Crawford and Marv Callaghan to Hollywood in the deal by which Mickey Heath was promoted to the majors. Heath is a good first sacker but not as adept with the bat as Crawford. Pat did not report to Hollywood and the Reds had to dig up another first sacker for the Pacific coast team, getting Sherlock from the Phillies. And then Crawford signed with Columbus in the American association.

All he did was slam out seven home runs in the first dozen games played at Columbus, three in successive games.

The hard-hitting Crawford is off in a cloud of dust in the home run derby and will be there or thereabouts when the books are balanced.

Cincinnati in the same period had won only one game, and could have used some of these homers Pat was slamming.

Crawford probably will be back in one of the major leagues next year and should stick. He could not break into the Giants' lineup at first base, his natural position, and Cincinnati tried to make a second baseman of him.

There are few better judges of players than Howley, but good old Dan seems to have hooped one in letting Crawford get away.

CRITZ "OFF AND ON"

Hughie Critz, another former Red, is hitting the ball for the Giants, and for a time led the National league in number of base hits. The slow-talking Mississippi boy, off and on, is a great hitter, but has been more off than on in recent years.

He batted well over 300 his first season with Cincinnati in 1924 and threatened again in 1928.

Las. year he could not get started with the bat when he changed to the Giants, finishing the season with a mark of only 260. If little Hughie continues to hit over 300, the Giants' championship chances will be greatly increased.

MIDSHIPMEN PASS AVIATION QUIZZES

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (P)—A high ratio of "middles" of the 1931 naval academy class is turning eyes to ships of the skies rather than ships of the seas.

Eighty-three per cent of the class has cleared the first hurdle, the aviation physical examination, of 277 midshipmen examined 230 were found qualified for flying.

The 17 per cent of rejections compares to 34 per cent of disqualifications in the 1930 class.

Mrs. Rose Thompson, whose knee was recently injured in an automobile accident left the Las Vegas hospital yesterday after undergoing treatment there.

THROTTLE OPEN; PLANE LANDED

WASHINGTON (P)—The feat of an unnamed officer finds its way into navy records—landing a plane with throttle jammed wide open on the deck of the aircraft carrier Lexington.

During flight operations, the pilot radioed the ship that the throttle of his torpedo plane would not close. While he circled the carrier with motor roaring, the deck was cleared and the ship pushed top speed into the wind.

At a signal, the distressed pilot approached from astern and at the precise moment cut his ignition switch and floated onto the deck.

PARIS GAMES TOURIST BAIT

ENGHIEN-LES-BAINS, France (P)—The inhabitants of this small health resort six miles from Paris, are gleefully anticipating a big summer because two paragraphs in the French national budget give the town the right to reopen its gambling casino.

Until 1920 the town enjoyed great prosperity through its gaming tables, which attracted visitors from Paris in such numbers that five-minute train service was maintained. The town revenue was so great that the inhabitants were relieved from all local taxation.

Then the French parliament closed the casino and for 11 years the big building has been standing in dilapidated desolation.

But the day after the reopening decree was voted the silent ruin awoke with a start as hundreds of workmen swarmed in and began a race against time to get it ready for play by June 1 when the summer rush of visitors begins.

The whole town woke up. Land values jumped over night, almost every shop in the place got a coat of new paint, and the smile that won't come off appeared on the faces of all the 11,000 inhabitants.

To prevent small fry from losing what they can ill afford each player will have to purchase a $20 season ticket.

PHILIPPINES PUT CLAMPS ON REDS

MANILA, P. I., May 16. (P)—After years of letting them have their way, the Philippines government finally has clamped down on communists.

Until now the reds have done as they chose, for the government felt that to prosecute them would only make martyrs of them and further their cause.

Now the communists are not allowed to meet anywhere in the islands, display of red flags is forbidden and eighteen of their leaders were arrested for sedition. The result has been a complete cessation of their activities.

PARIS, May 16. (P)—The International Cotton Federation will hold its next congress here beginning June 23. It will be received by the Syndicat General de l'Industrie Cottonniere Francaise.

Not this young Seattle high school star, Larry Munnell. He's just wondering whether he's going to clear the bar, six feet and an inch above ground, to win first place. He did, an instant after this unusual photograph was snapped. Experts predict Larry will show the country's best high jumpers plenty of trouble by the time he enters college.

Electricity Is Used In Catching Fish

ROSEWELL, N.M., May 16. (P)—Tons of carp, shad, buffalo and other undesirable species of fish are being taken from lakes and streams of southeastern New Mexico by the use of electricity. Long wires, to which are attached copper plates at intervals of several feet, are placed in the particular waters where these fish are known to congregate, and 110 volts of electricity then are applied. The fish are stunned and may easily be taken from the water.
