REAL PUNCH FEST SEEN WHEN WALLACE AND HIS LATEST OPPONENT MEET

Other Bouts Appear Outstanding On Arena Card

Real punches will meet in the feature event at the Legion stadium Friday night when Wildman Joe Bitto, the San Pedro Blacksmith, and Mickey Wallace, both hard hitting middleweights, clash.

WATCHED CAREER
Vegas fans have watched Mickey kayo highly touted invaders in past matches and many are willing to gamble that Mickey's left hook will beat Bitto's dynamite right hand.

Bitto will probably enter the ring tomorrow night a slight favorite to beat Mickey because of his past performances against the best on the coast.

The Wallace and Bitto fight is the best match offered local fans in recent months, many believe.

Bitto is a real rough-tough fighter and Wallace is a high class boxer with a dangerous left hook. They should supply plenty of fireworks in their scheduled ten round contest.

DICKERS WITH COLIMA

Matchmaker George Burns hopes to bring the Mexican idol, Bert Colima here to meet the winner of this fight.

Louie Santa Cruz, local Mexican sensation, will meet an improved fighter when he sets in the ring with Mervin Hunting in the six round semi-final.

Santa Cruz has been training for two weeks for this event and is in wonderful condition.

Hunting looked great when he kayoed Red Bailey, the Boulder City boy on the last card and hopes to avenge his defeat Santa Cruz handed him two months ago at the stadium.

SPECIAL EVENT

Young Thompson and Dean Walker, local colored boys clash in the special event.

Two four round preliminaries complete the card.

Beggar Gets Valuable Shoes; Finds Savings

BERLIN, June 10 (AP)—A cabinet maker's wife here had nothing to offer a beggar but a pair of her husband's old shoes, which, unknown to her, contained his entire savings, 1,500 marks ($330).

The beggar did not inspect them; sold them to a second-hand dealer. The dealer read the owner's story in the newspapers, turned over the shoes and the money to the police, who returned them to the right owner.
