BROTHER MISSING; WANTS HIM DEAD

UTICA, N. Y., June 19. (AP)—If a man has not been heard from for thirty-three years, he should be legally dead, Mrs. Elizabeth Casey believes.

Her brother, Henry Clegg, left home in 1898, to get work on the great lakes. Mrs. Casey wants him declared legally dead so she can collect a legacy of $609.91 which is now held by the county treasurer.

DISAGREE OVER LOOT; ARRESTED

ST. LOUIS, June 19. (AP)—Police recently saw two men rolling a barrel up a busy street here.

"Cider is in it," one said. "Sauerkraut is in it," the other said. Suspicious then, police broke the barrel open. It contained mustard. The two were arrested on theft charges.

MANY DANGERS REPORT INDICATES

HARTFORD, Conn., June 19. (AP)—The dangers of remaining at home are described in a statistical report of the Travelers Insurance company on personal accidents. The statistics show more than 44 per cent of the adults injured in home accidents in 1930 were victims of falls, 21 per cent were cut and six per cent suffered burns. The familiar, "I walked into a door in the dark" is more than just an alibi for a black eye, for the survey shows seven per cent were hurt in such collisions. Figures for five years show one-fifth of all accident victims have been injured at home.

CITY'S HISTORY TOLD ON QUILT

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 19. (AP)—When Henry Cairon wants to brush up on his local history he just looks at the quilt which lies on the foot of his bed.

The quilt was started in 1892 by members of a ladies aid society. When a person wanted to be honored on the "Friendship Quilt," he paid the society a small sum and had his signature worked into the covering.

One campaigner on the Prohibition ticket in the 90's used the quilt to make up his list of voters to be "buttonholed." It was customary for an entire family to buy a place on the quilt. There are 616 names on the quilt now.

BREAKFAST PLANS OF HOOVER USED

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Hoover's custom of discussing affairs of state with various officials at White House breakfasts appeals to business women.

At the first biennial convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women in Richmond Va., July 6-11, special breakfasts will be held for various professions.

There will be the doctors' breakfast, the "unusual occupations" breakfast, and the judges breakfast.

The latter will be attended by women lawyers who have attained judicial status as juvenile court judges, United States commissioners, or higher office. It is hoped that Judge Florence E. Allen of the Supreme court of Ohio will be the honor guest.

Countess Sponsors New 'Dove Gray'

PARIS (AP)—The Countess of Harcourt, daughter of the Duke of Guise, pretender to the French throne, is among fashionable sponsors of dove grey, one of the smartest colors of the spring season. At the recent wedding of her brother, Prince Henry, and the Princess Isabelle of Orleans Braganza, she appeared in a gown of dove grey lace made along semi-fitted lines.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON NEVADA'S RANCHES

PARADISE VALLEY—With this year said to be the driest in the history of the valley, ranchers contend that most of the cattle here will have to be fed elsewhere. Driving the animals to Jordan valley, Oregon, to be fed there, has been considered.

LOVELOCK — With Pershing county turkeys in good condition, the real test is that the number to be shipped this fall and winter will be as great as that of last year.

YERINGTON — The value of commercial fertilizer in potato culture is being tested this year on a plot near here. Fertilizer of various kinds is being used. Checks will be made during the growing season and at the end of the year the plot will be compared for production with unfertilized plots.

LAS VEGAS—But one reactor was discovered in the recent testing of Clark county cows for tuberculosis. Testing of Lincoln county cattle will be completed in June. Effort is being made to form Clark and Lincoln counties into a modified accredited area.

GARDNERVILLE — With large new areas of White Top, noxious weed, appearing in Douglas county, six new dusters are being used by the farmers in the attempt to control the pest. A carload of the dust has been ordered.

ELKO—More than $200 in prizes, including three trips to the junior livestock and baby beef show in San Francisco, to be awarded at the Nevada state livestock show in Elko, are stimulating eleven Elko county boys and girls in their raising of eighteen baby beef for exhibit.

RENO—Mulch paper, for use in vegetable gardens to increase bacterial action, to save water, and to keep down the weeds, is being tested out by several ranchers in Washoe county.

FALLON—With seven dusting machines now in the Lahontan valley, farmers in this area are combating the alfalfa weevil.

ELY—More than 115,000 pounds of wool produced by fourteen growers near here were shipped to Boston during May, through the Nevada Wool-Marketing association and the Pacific Wool Growers association.
