ROBINS THINK THEY ARE STRONG

Build Up Confidence By Slugging 16 to 5 Win Over Cardinals

BY DIXON STEWART
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, June 26 (U.P.)—Although a disastrous early season slump just about ruined their prospects of finishing better than fourth in the National league pennant campaign, the Brooklyn Robins still believe they comprise the strongest team in the league.

This confidence was strengthened today when the Robins slugged out a 16 to 5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, 1930 champions and pace setters in the current race. Hollis Thurston, second string Brooklyn pitcher, held the Cards to nine hits and coasted to an easy victory after a wobbly first inning during which St. Louis scored three runs.

Brooklyn's batters, led by Johnny Frederick and Lefty O'Doul, pounded Burleigh Grimes, ace of the Cardinals' mound staff, for eight runs in the first inning and continued the assault on Lindsay and Kaufmann for a total of 10 hits. Frederick made four hits, including a homer and two doubles in five trips to the plate, and O'Doul made a homer and two doubles in four times up. The defeat cut St. Louis' lead over the second place New York Giants to 3½ games.

Brilliant pitching by Bill Walker gave New York a 2 to 0 triumph over Cincinnati. Walker allowed only four hits and no Red's runner ever reached third base, only one getting as far as second.

The Giants made only six hits off O'Doul and Strelecki but two of them—O'Farrell's triple and Fullis' homer—were paired in the third inning for two runs.

Boston's Braves, none too effective against second division competition, maintained their reputation as a stumbling block for first division rivals by taking their second consecutive game from the third place Chicago Cubs, 7 to 3. The Braves clinched the game with a four run assault on Malone in the first and added three runs off Sweetland in the second and seventh.

Socks Seibold held the Cubs to two hits until the sixth when he lost control and walked three men. Cantwell was rushed to the relief and although the Cubs tallied three runs before the site was retired they were unable to score during the remainder of the contest.

Philadelphia slugged out a 13 to 2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Phils shellacked Meine and Osborne for 18 hits to score three runs each in the fourth and eighth innings and seven in the seventh. Watt allowed the Pirates 12 hits but was effective with men on base.

Only two games were played in the American league, scheduled contests between Philadelphia and Detroit and New York and Cleveland being rained out.

Washington's second place Senators passed up the opportunity to advance within ½ game of the league leading Philadelphia Athletics, dropping a 4 to 3 decision to the Chicago White Sox. The Washington defeat increased Philadelphia's lead to 1½ games.

Pat Caraway, Sox rookie, held the Senators to five hits and never relinquished the lead his mates gave him in the first inning.

Home runs by Joe Kuhel in the seventh and ninth innings accounted for two of Washington's runs.

THREE YANKS IN SINGLES

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 26 (U.P.)—Three members of America's youthful 1931 Davis cup squad—Frank Shields, Sidney B. Wood and Johnny Van Ryn—qualified today for the quarter-final round of the Wimbledon men's tennis singles championship.

Van Ryn, the senior member of the trio, scored the most notable victory, defeating Christian Boususs, French Davis cupper, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3, 6-1. Van Ryn's victory came as a distinct surprise. The defeat left Jean Borotra as the only French contender in the singles.

GRID COACH ILL

ROCHESTER, Minn., June 26. (U.P.)—Heartly ("Hunk") Anderson, senior Notre Dame football coach, is in a serious but not critical condition, Dr. J. B. Doyle, neurologist at Mayo Clinic, said today. A more complete report on the stricken coach's condition is expected tomorrow about noon.

WALLACE WINS IN BANG-UP CARD

BY JIM FLEMING
Mickey Wallace took the decision over Clyde Headricks in last night's fistcuffs held at the local Legion stadium. Wallace took at least seven of the ten hotly contested rounds, in the snappiest battle seen here in months. Both boys were in the pink of condition with Wallace weighing in at 164 pounds and Headricks at 153 pounds.

There was plenty of action throughout the bout and although Clyde was outpointed he was not out-fought, being on the aggressive most of the time. Mickey's win was well earned.

Both boys showed to be first class boxers with a punch in either hand. Headricks left was particularly good while Wallace uncorked some pretty nice rights, jabs, uppercuts and hooks, and they all carried dynamite.

Ernie Cragin refereed.
Semi-final. Jack Perry, 161, vs. Dick Swartz, 160, four rounds, Cragin, referee.

Jack Perry, of Vancouver, Wash., won over Dick Swartz by a foul when he was knocked out after the bell had rung for the finish of the third round.

Perry subdued Joe Williams as Williams was unable to pass the doctors' inspection.

Merlin Hunting received a boxing lesson from Louis Santa Cruz in the special event, though his gameness and aggressiveness won him a lucky draw.

Young Jack Thompson and Eddie Bradley, Ely, fought a slow bout to a draw. Bradley was not in good condition and did much posing while the colored lad seemed to be afraid of him.

Opener, Heckathorne vs. Fish, bantams, Smith, referee. Draw.

ON THE SIDELINES

By BRIAN BELL
If a greater track and field coaching school has been assembled than the one rounded up by the University of Nebraska for a period from June 29 to July 4, its location and personnel does not come readily to mind.

Under the direction of Coach Henry Schulte of the Cornhusker institution, more than thirty of the country's leading coaches will take part in the instruction.

The session will last during the time the National A. A. U. meet is held in Nebraska's memorial stadium, giving the coaches enrolled not only the opportunity of listening to the views of the nation's best track mentors, but also to view first hand the performances of many of the leading athletes of the United States.

TRACK 'WHO'S WHO'
The list of coaches expected to take part reads like a "Who's Who" of track and field competition: Dean Cromwell of the University of Southern California whose team has won the national intercollegiate championship for the last two years; Lawson Robertson, Pennsylvania, head track coach in the 1928 Olympic games; Ralph J. Hoke, coach of weights and jumps for the 1928 German Olympic team.

Avery Brundage of the National A. A. U.; Brutus Hamilton, Kansas university, whose team won the Big Six championship this spring; T. E. Jones, Wisconsin, whose team carried off the Big Ten track and field title.

George Bresnahan, Iowa; Bob Simpson, former hurdle record holder, coach at Iowa State; C. S. Edmundson, University of Washington; Steve Farrell, Michigan, Walter Christie, California, and others.

The courses of instruction will cover every event and are intended as much as possible to assist coaches from all parts of the country in developing candidates for the Olympic games.

CAST-OFF GOES BESERK

Harvey (Gink) Hendrick is proving again the old baseball superstition that a player released will make the club letting him go very, very sorry. The Reds were going nowhere fast when the former Vanderbilt university star joined them to take the place of the injured Mickey Heath at first base.

Hendrick had played third base, first base, second base and the outfield for Brooklyn and while he had hit well his fielding was only fair. As soon as he went to work for Dan Howley the Tennessee boy began to hit in the runs with joyous abandon, and soon marched to the head of the league. When Brooklyn invaded Redland, his bat became even more potent and he made life distinctly uncomfortable for Uncle Robby and his nephews.

Gink will continue to hit. He always could hit. Brooklyn did not think his fielding came up to par, but there was no criticism of his batting, even in Flatbush.

As a Vanderbilt athlete, Hendrick did everything, baseball, football and track and was a star in each department. In those days he could step a hundred yards with the best of them. He is older now, but he can still show a burst of speed when the occasion seems to justify it.

TWO REASONS FOR BUYING ELDERADO EMPIRE MINING CO. STOCK

First—the ledge reported April 25 has been found on the 100-foot level and all indications are that it will be found on the 200 foot level. The probable tonnage from the 200 foot level up should amount to better than 1,000,000 tons. The cost of mining and milling this ore should run over $2.00 per ton. Figuring conservatively a net of only $5.00 per ton there is considerably more than $5.00 per share of ore in sight. This may be increased proportionately as surface indications are that this ledge will run a net of better than $10.00 per ton.

Second—The Eldorado Empire Mining Co. is centrally located in the canyon and can be considered a key property. Being so located, it must necessarily figure in any consolidation for large operations that are in the making for Eldorado Canyon.

ELDERADO CANYON GOLD OPERATIONS HAVE STARTED

ELDERADO EMPIRE MINING COMPANY has sufficient development to warrant production and will start producing at once.

The Las Vegas Assay Company's report on five samples of surface ore shows an average of $13.39 per ton. On the 100 foot level this same vein is running better than $20.00 per ton. The vein is definitely outlined as being better than 100 feet wide and 600 feet long.

The strike of this vein carries with it the solution of the ore formations of the Eldorado Canyon. It has evidenced a vast tonnage of free milling ore above the 200 foot level.

Plans are to start treating this ore immediately. Survey for power for Parker Dam site, part of the Hoover Dam development, contemplates cheap electricity for the Eldorado Canyon District.

Many underlying fortunes of the world were made during the Gold Mining activity resulting from DEPRESSIONS. Here is your chance.

A small block of Eldorado Empire Mining Company stock is being offered at par or $1.00 per share for a limited time only.

The fortunate one is he who takes advantage of opportunity.
