

FRENCH DEBTS PARLEY HITS BARRIER

under which Germany would pay the unconditional reparations annuities of about $10,789,000 into the International bank—thus maintaining inviolability of the Young plan, as demanded by France—but would be able to regain the funds as credits from the bank.

Difficulties arose, however, on two points. The French insisted that through Greece, Roumania and other beneficiaries of reparations should be entitled to credits from Germany's payment through the international bank. There also was the question of paying a guarantee fund to the international bank, as provided by the Young plan, in case Germany declares a moratorium.

PARLEY RESUMED
The negotiations, after a recess over Sunday, were resumed this morning when Mellon again met Laval. The sessions were surrounded with silence, but the situation which arose resulted in arrangements for Mellon to talk by trans-Atlantic telephone to the state department in Washington at 2:30 p. m. It was supposed he received definite instructions regarding the reservations.

Just before the cabinet met at 6 p. m. Foreign Minister Briand conferred with the German ambassador, Leopold von Hoesch, and it was made known that the date of the visit of German officials to Paris for friendly conversations would be delayed until the present difficulties are overcome.

GIRL DIES UNDER OVERTURNED CAR

MARTINEZ, Calif., June 29 (UP)—Two youths were alive tonight after having lain helpless beneath their overturned automobile and watched a girl companion die.

The car overturned when it failed to make a turn, pinning the three beneath it. Miss Jean Kehrlin, 16, daughter of an Oakland business man, suffered a crushed chest which caused her death.

Francis Stone, 17, and Thomas Boldrick, 18, of San Diego, suffered bruises which were pronounced slight when passersby several hours after the accident summoned help and extricated them from the wreckage.

GRID RIVALS MEET IN AIRDOME FILM

To two of the star football players on the "all-American" eleven in "Maybe It's Love," the Warner Bros. Vitaphone collegiate comedy at the Airdome theater, the stadium in which the "big game" was filmed and recorded brought memories of another classic struggle.

Russell Saunders and Ray Montgomery, all-American selections from the University of Southern California and University of Pittsburgh respectively, recalled the eventful New Year's day when U. S. C. met Pittsburgh in the intersectional game a year ago at the famous Pasadena Rose Bowl.

Joan Bennett, Joe E. Brown and James Hall play the featured roles in "Maybe It's Love," the screen play of which was written by Joseph Jackson. William Wellman directed.

RAIL Splinters

BY JOHN H. LIGHTFOOT
Everyone has heard of all work and no play! So Foreman M. M. Jones has just had his name slipped on the lay-off board.

Charles Kahlor of Omaha was in the city Monday. Mr. Kahlor is the General Electric foreman for the Union Pacific. He is looking over the new turbine installation.

Harry T. Coffey, well known in U. P. electrical service, graced Las Vegas with his presence Monday.

Dan McPherson of Caliente was a visitor to Las Vegas Sunday, spending the day with his family. McPherson is boiler maker foreman at Caliente.

Car Foreman Frank Corey got tired of listening to what the wild waves said and is back on the job. Frank knows the good places to live.

Fireman Hutchins is signed up for a few days needed rest.

Night Round House Foreman Scharre laid off Sunday and Monday nights due to illness. W. E. Fitzgerald took the shift.

A lady passenger on U. P. Train Number 22 Monday, heard another passenger say: "Yes, this is Las Vegas." The said lady passenger immediately sprung into action, saying: "What, that tough place we hear so much about?"

Here your correspondent had to take issue with the said lady, who was evidently an apt pupil of some outside writer, who from the confines of "wine, woman and song" had written up the rest of the city, seeing it with bedimmed eyes and very clouded brain. The lady was told just how tough Las Vegas was as follows—

"Las Vegas has the finest schools in the state, in fact the southwest."

"Las Vegas is represented by well attended churches of several denominations and that on Sundays it is a pleasure to see the children on the way to Sunday school."

"That Las Vegas bears the distinct reputation that ladies can travel the streets of a night without being molested."

"That in all Las Vegas is a law abiding community—why writers notwithstanding. But why such ignorance?"

SCREEN LIFE IN HOLLYWOOD

By HUBBARD KEAVY
HOLLYWOOD—Let's see, what did I hear today that's worthwhile writing about? This typewriter needs oiling. There, that job's done for another year or so.

I heard how Mae Busch, after two years, got back into pictures. After a long career as a featured player, she dropped from sight. I think her last role was in "Alibi."

A few months ago Mae got permission from an actor's agent to help "sell" some of his clients to casting directors. This was one way of getting into studios. One of her first calls was Hal Roach's studio, where she went to tell about the merits of one of her clients. Instead, Mae sold herself. She got parts in two Laurel and Hardy comedies and now she is working quite regularly again.

Now, where's my pipe? That reminds me.

Few actors smoke pipes. C. Aubrey Smith, brought here from England to play in "The Bachelor Father," and now "staying on," as the English say, is an inveterate pipe smoker. Gary Cooper sometimes uses one, halfheartedly—apparently doesn't care much about it.

Clive Brooks likes cigars. So does Hobart Bosworth.

Funny how sluggish typewriters get. Little Jackie Cooper spends most of his spare time at his typewriter, writing about Indians and cowboys and Lindbergh. He has a portable machine.

I wish I'd had one at the beach yesterday; I might have done some work instead of getting sunburned.

A bright red I am. Speaking of red, Clara Bow's hair isn't that color any more. She says she dyed it blonde to disguise herself. I hope she gets well again and marries Rex Bell, like she says she will.

R. X. is a swell guy, and I'm not saying that because he occasionally phones me suggestions, either. I wish he'd call with one now.

'PHONE CALL
I did have a phone call. It was Fifi Dorsay, who said she is leaving on a vaudeville tour, which opens in Louisville; and ends at the Palace in New York.

When I said bon voyage in my best French, which is the worst French in town, I thought Fifi was going to bubble right through the phone at me.

I saw Edmund Lowe get flustered today because he made the same error a bit player made. The actor had to say to Lowe, "My name is Albert, Henry Smith." Instead, he said "Alfred." On the next take, the player said "Albert," but Lowe said "Alfred." That's hardly a story.

PROSTRATION IS CAUSE OF DEATH

The victim of heat prostration, Mike Mada died at a local hospital Sunday night after being rushed to Las Vegas from Boulder City.

Mada died eight minutes after he had reached the hospital, artificial respiration failing to revive the dying man.

Funeral arrangements had not been made late last night.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO VEGAN

Andrew Johnson, 42, died Saturday night at the county farm from a heart attack.

He was a native of Finland and all relatives are still residing in that country.

GIRL AND YOUTH ARE FOUND DEAD

DALLAS, Tex., June 29 (UP)—A pistol, found near the murdered bodies of a 17-year old Dallas high school girl and her youthful sweetheart tonight provided police with the only clue in their search for the couples assailants.

Funeral services were held this afternoon for Pauline Corman, one of the victims. The boy was Abe Schreiber, 19, her companion.

ANDREW JOHNSON

BOULDER MAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

As a result of a heart attack, J. Shannon died at Boulder City Saturday night, the body being sent in to the Las Vegas Funeral home.

At present, relatives have not been located and funeral arrangements have not been made.

TESTIMONY READ IN THREAT CASE

Three and a half hours were spent in reading back testimony in the so-called threat case of Charles and August Huck in the justice court.

The Huck brothers are alleged by T. A. Wills, Las Vegas attorney, to have threatened his life unless he left town. The preliminary examination will be continued on July 6.

CALL TO FALLON

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stephens and daughter Billie were called yesterday to Fallon by the serious illness of Mr. Stephens mother, one of the pioneer residents of that section of the country.

Consider your Adam's Apple!!*

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

The great Lord Tennyson in a beautiful poem refers to a woman's Adam's Apple as "The warm white apple of her throat." Consider your Adam's Apple. Touch it—your Adam's Apple—That is your larynx—your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Protect the delicate tissues within your throat. Be careful in your choice of cigarettes. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants! Reach for a LUCKY instead. Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette which brings you the added benefit of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process, which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays. It is this exclusive process that expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat
