BOULDER'S FIRST FIGHT CARD LINED UP FOR THURSDAY EVE

Boulder City's first night of boxing is slated for Thursday evening in the huge mess hall, according to Frank Moran, former heavy-weight championship contender, who is presenting the card. Bouts for the evening include well known Las Vegas as well as reservation fighters, and a well-matched card is planned.

Indian Johnny Smith, of Las Vegas, will go ten fast rounds with "Suede" Anderson, of Los Angeles, in what is proclaimed the headliner of the evening.

Young Warren Farrell of Las Vegas will meet Howard Young of the Reclamation service, in another slugfest. Al Brown, Las Vegas colored ace, is due to swap punches with Butcher Ryan, pride of Boulder City. A bout is also being planned for Flash Shomaker, of Boulder, but his opponent has not yet been selected.

WRESTLING PLANNED

In the grunt and groan section, Joe Williams of Vegas will "rassel" Bonebreaker De Shong, of North

CHILD'S HAND CAN BE SAVED

Little Alton Michaud, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michaud, whose left forearm was badly injured several days ago by a caterpillar engine while the child was playing about the machine, is reported to be recovering rapidly. It was stated yesterday by the child's mother.

SOCIAL CLUB AT MEADOWS AFFAIR

The young folks of Boulder who are forming a social club gathered Saturday evening and motored to the Meadows, where they had dinner and danced.

SELF INSURANCE AND THE OSTRICH

The old story about the ostrich applies to the municipality, state or industry that thinks self-insurance affords real protection. As long as there is no loss, it looks as good any. But let disaster come—is a business—conducted by insurance organizations that have back of them a wealth of experience and resources to give each policy genuine stability. It not only pays when loss occurs, but provides protective services which have led to steadily decreasing insurance costs over a long period of years. Ask your agent about it.

STOCK FIRE INSURANCE
