Nearing his 38th birthday and approaching his Jourth Olympic appearance, in the Los Angeles games, Nurmi's goal is the Olympic marathen as a crowning touch to the greatest foot-racing career of all ime. Nevertheless he can still hold his own with Finland's sensational crop of younger runners, led by Lauri Lehtinen.

Paavo's greatest enemy has not been increasing age or competition but rheumatism. In his northern climate, changing from cold to heat a runner is extremely subject to this illness. Nurmi was troubled with rheumatism in 1928. That was the reason why he lost to Ritola and Leukola in Amsterdam.
