

PLANE NEAR GOAL

 after fighting a 58-mile headwind from Columbus, O., to Springfield, Mo., he took off into the bad weather over the Ozarks for El Paso, Tex., hoping to arrive tomorrow before noon and be in Tucson before nightfall.
 Miss Hilliard's "splendid resistance" holds up. Reiss' hazardous flight may prove to have been unnecessary. If her weakened lungs falter under the added burden—she has been a pulmonary patient at the sanitarium for three years—his arrival may save her life.
 Should her condition necessitate it, Miss Hilliard will be placed in the oxygen room when it arrives. Pure oxygen will be forced into the compartment, her exhalations "washed" of carbon dioxide and pure oxygen returned.
 Miss Hilliard is the stepdaughter of Judge Robert W. Bingham, editor and publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times.

PILOT ESCAPES DEATH IN PLANE

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 13. (UP)—Frank Cammer, Wenatchee, Wash. pilot, escaped death or serious injury tonight when he made a forced landing on Council Crest in a snowstorm.
 The plane was badly damaged but Cammer was only bruised or the forehead. He was taken to a hotel by J. B. Harworth while police were frantically searching the timbered heights for the missing pilot believing he might have come down in a parachute.
 Cammer said he might have weathered the snow gusts but an oil line broke as he was circling over Council Crest.

NEW YORK CROWS ABOUT CLIMATE

NEW YORK, Jan. 13. (UP)—Residents of the northeastern seaboard and inland as far as Ohio removed their eyebrows today to enjoy record-breaking warmth for this time of year.
 In New York City the mercury, rising to 67 degrees at mid-afternoon, set a record for January, the warm spell would last until Weather bureau officials predicted some time tomorrow.
 United Press dispatches reported that roses were blooming in Ohio and farmers were ploughing in upstate New York.

TEST CASE IS SEEN IN RUM ARRESTS

William Wallace, who was arrested Tuesday on a possession of liquor charge, was granted a continuance yesterday by the police court until January 15, at 9 a. m.
 Roger Foley has been retained as attorney by Wallace, who has stated that he will fight the law that gives police jurisdiction one mile outside city limits, to city officers. It is expected the constitutionality of the law will be attacked Friday morning.
 Wallace's establishment is near the Salt Lake highway, and about a half mile beyond the city limits.

YOUTH ADMITS KILLING COP

NOGALES, Ariz., Jan. 13. (UP)—Santiago Aguirre 17-year-old American born youth, was captured near here today and was quoted as having confessed that he and another youth engaged in the liquor-running conspiracy that ended last night with the fatal shooting of Clyde Bristow, 40, American customs officer.
 After an all-night hunt for the pair, a posse sighted Aguirre wandering down a canyon some 25 miles west of here and just north of the Mexican line.
 He surrendered without showing fight, officers said, and talked freely of the encounter that ended in Bristow's death, declaring that his companion, Alberto Flores, 22, Mexican, fired the shots.
 Bristow and another officer stopped the car occupied by Flores and Aguirre, in search of contraband. As Bristow stepped from his machine he was shot twice in the stomach. Charles Jones, the other officer, started for the pair, who turned and ran for the brush.

A E F SWEETHEART MARRIES AT LAST

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 13. (UP)—Elsie Janis, "Sweetheart of the A. E. F.," has found herself a personal sweetheart—and married him. He is Gilbert Wilson, a Los Angeles business man 16 years her junior. Miss Janis is 42.
 Thus, she said today, she has combined in one man two of her most earnest desires—to have a husband and a child.
 Miss Janis issued two formal New Year's eve, but knowledge of the wedding was kept from the public until today, when the famous stage star returned to her home at Phillips manor and confirmed the rumor.
 Miss Janis issued two formal statements, the second one in celebration of her first simple admission of the wedding, in which she said:
 "I've never had a husband and he has never had a wife, so we can both start on scratch. This being my debut on the matrimonial stage, some may wonder why I took a husband 16 years younger than myself. Well, I've never had a child. Now I have a husband and now I can hope to have a child. Don't forget I was married before leap year."

LOAN BILL FOR FARMERS IS OKAYED BY SENATE

House Vote Expected Tomorrow Hoover Finance Measure President's Financial Rejuvenation Plans Nearly Complete

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. (UP)—The senate today passed the $125,000,000 farm loan bill, the second measure of President Hoover's economic program, after ear-marking $25,000,000 of the amount to a "moratorium" on farm mortgage interest payments.
HOUSE ENDS DEBATE
 The house meantime concluded general debate on the keynote of Mr. Hoover's program, the two-billion-dollar reconstruction finance corporation measure passed Monday night. Rep. Louis T. McFadden, Repn. Pa., delivered a vitriolic attack on the bill, declaring it was aimed to "help a gang of financial looters to cover up their tracks," and suggesting that the "looters would use the money to dispose of evidence which if brought into the light of day, would send many of them to federal penitentiaries."
 He did not explain to what crime he was referring. It was McFadden's first outbreak since his vehement attack on the Hoover foreign moratorium, which led to his being deprived of his patronage powers.
 The house discussion of the reconstruction bill will continue tomorrow with consideration of the amendments. A vote is expected Friday.
ADMINISTRATION VICTORY
 The administration won a victory when Chairman Henry Steagall of the banking and currency committee announced it had been decided to eliminate the bill's present provision authorizing the speaker of the house to name two of the

MINER'S BODY IS RECOVERED

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 13. (UP)—Edward Topolski, 22, was dead when rescuers late tonight recovered his body from a hole in an abandoned colliery in which he was entombed by a fall of slate, rock and coal yesterday.
 The body was removed from a hole three by four feet by a cousin, Ben Topolski, one of the many men who have been working day and night in the cramped quarters which have room for only four men to dig at a time. Tom and John Topolski, the dead man's brothers, and his father were among the rescue workers. The body was removed to the home.

Congressional circles heard with interest a report that President Hoover has virtually completed his organization of the great fiscal and loan agency which the bill will create when passed and signed, probably late this week or early next week.
 Bernard Baruch of Chicago, Angus McLean of North Carolina, and Edward Hurley of Chicago, all Democrats, and Henry M. Robinson of California, Republican, were the four men reported to have been tentatively selected as the directors of the reconstruction corporation. If approved, they would serve with Secretary of Treasury Mellon, Federal Reserve Board Chairman Eugene Meyer, and Farm Loan Commissioner Paul Bestor, who are made ex-officio directors by the bill.
BARUCH OPPOSED
 In the senate, which must act on the four appointments, an undercurrent of opposition arose against Baruch, mostly based on his alleged connection with the stock markets of Wall street.
 Hurley served on the shipping board during the war. Robinson is a leading banker of Los Angeles, and a close, personal friend of the president. McLean is a nationally known financial figure, having been governor of North Carolina and a director of the war finance corporation. The reconstruction corporation is modeled on the war

LEGION OPENS MINE MURDER GIVEN JURY

SEDALIA, Mo., Jan. 13. (UP)—The American Legion's "war on unemployment" was launched here tonight when Henry L. Stevens, Jr., presented a plan to Missouri Legionnaires to put 1,000,000 men to work by February 1.
 Every employer in the country will be asked to increase his paid personnel by 10 per cent by February 1, providing work for the unemployed, Stevens said in outlining his plan. The program will be fostered through local Legion posts throughout the nation.
 The Legion favors six-hour days, six-hour pay and five-day weeks as a further aid to employment, Stevens said.
 "There is a war which started about 13 months ago and the Legion is faced with the task of ending it," Stevens said. "It is the war against depression. Every man in America has the right to have a job in order to make a living for that wife and those children who are dependent on him."
 "There is a limited amount of work to be done," he continued. "If every person is to have work, then those who are employed eight or ten hours a day must participate in the division of such work."

ONE KILLED
 DENVER, Jan. 13. (UP)—Joseph Duffy, Denver detective, shot and killed Edward Lake, 40, suspected robber, and wounded his companion, Ralph W. McConnell, 26, of Lafayette, Colo., today.

MINE MURDER GIVEN JURY

MT. STERLING, Ky., Jan. 13. (UP)—A jury of Kentucky bluegrass farmers from Bath county began deliberating at 3:05 p. m. today the case of William Hightower, 77-year old union mine worker, charged with conspiracy to murder in a coal mine labor "war" in Harlan county last spring.
 The only possible verdicts under instructions of the court were death, life imprisonment, or acquittal.

IRELAND TAKES LIFE OF YANKEE

BELFAST, Ireland, Jan. 13. (UP)—Eddie Cullens, an American citizen convicted of murdering Achmet Musa, a Turk, slicked down his hair with fastidious care this morning and went out into the Belfast prison courtyard to be hanged.
 He was calm and his nerves were steady when the trap was sprung at 8 a. m., ending an unusual record of friendship, jealousy and murder which involved the ancient Zoro Aga, a Turk widely publicized in America last year as the oldest man in the world.
 Cullens insisted on having his nails manicured just before he was hanged. He dressed with care and wrote a long letter to his brother in New York. Then he thanked prison officials for their kindness and walked calmly to the gallows. He was attended by a Jewish rabbi and jail officials. A crowd of about 100 persons

GAREHIME MUSIC SALE IS SUCCESS, AGE IS PRAISED

Highly enthusiastic over the remarkable success of his "Forced to Vacate Sale," J. Garehime, of the Graber-Garehime Music company, declared yesterday that he was well gratified with the reception of his special prices by Las Vegas, and especially by Boulder City residents. Low prices, he said, are still in effect.
 Garehime is pleased with the result of the sale, he stated yesterday, and was astounded with the response from the Boulder reservation. Use of The Age exclusively, in advertising this sale is especially significant, in view of its success, he pointed out.
