FANS PLEASED WITH BOULDER'S FIRST LEGION FIGHT PROGRAM

By BEN F. WOLK

Boulder City thronged to its first fight and wrestling card last night in the huge Anderson mess hall, and howled its approval until the metal rafters rang.

Ted "Stecher" Jensen, the rassin' ringer, and Harry Martin, Boulder belly buster, grunted and groaned, grabbed, clutched, stamped, twisted and wrenched, with every grip from a flying scissor to an overloaded suitcase.

It was a draw.

Joey Ray knocked out Tom Lott in the first boxing bout of the evening. The kayo blow, flush to the button, came in the first minute of the third round.

Henry St. Amens and George Shumaker sparred four evenly matched rounds to a draw.

Slim Younger, of the Reclamation bureau, 145 pounds, was kayoed by Warren Farrell, Las Vegas flash, in the second round of the semi-final event. Farrell sent Younger through the ropes and ended the fight.

Jack Shaw, Boulder City, sent Al Brown, Vegas colored ace to the canvas with a short jab, coming out of a clinch in the middle of the third round. Shaw carried the fight throughout, but failed to land an effective punch in the first two rounds.

Indian Johnny Smith, pride of Las Vegas, knocked out Suede Anderson in the main event after three evenly matched rounds in which Smith carried the fight with characteristic catlike speed and quickness. Time and again Anderson saved himself through careful generalship in the ring.

In the fourth round, Anderson became the aggressor, but uncovered momentarily and stopped a one-two which put him into the ropes, and swung him off and back into a quick jab from Smith which put him on the canvas.

Laddie DeShong, 192, spent much of the fifteen minute time limit of his bout in the ropes, waiting for the count, but drew a draw against Joe Williams, 220, who appeared to have the edge throughout the wrestling match.

When DeShong was not in the ropes he was usually in a headlock or scissors, at Williams' mercy. The bout was slow and drew boos from an audience that had seen an otherwise fast and well-matched evening's entertainment.

GRAVEL PLANT GIVEN TESTS

Six Companies' gravel screening plant, believed to be the largest in the world, was put in operation for the first time Saturday, when S. D. Harper, assistant chief engineer for the Reclamation bureau, pushed a button in the control tower.

The huge plant will screen gravel for concrete that will be used in Hoover Dam. Attending the ceremonies were Frank T. Crowe, superintendent of Six Companies operations, Charles Shea, director, T. M. Price, railroad superintendent, G. Watts, of the Southern Sierras Power company, and Norman Gallison.

SIX COMPANIES OFFICIALS LEAVE

Felix Kahn and Charles J. Shea, Six Companies directors, left last night for San Francisco after a short visit in Boulder City.

They arrived in the reservation city last Tuesday by plane, at the height of the gale which wrecked so many tents and homes there. Their pilot was forced to circle the landing field for half an hour before venturing to land in the treacherous blast.

CONTEST FOR BOULDER CITY FOLKS ON NEATEST HOUSE IS ANNOUNCED

A contest among the Boulderites who are living in Six Companies houses for a monthly prize for the neatest and most attractively kept dwelling was announced yesterday by Felix Kahn, director of Six Companies, to Sims Ely, reservation city manager.

The plan, as outlined by Kahn and Manager Evans of the Boulder City company, calls for $25 in gold to be awarded each month to the occupants of the neatest of the company houses. It is believed that a first prize of $15 and a second prize of $10 will be awarded.

The idea is to stimulate interest in keeping the reservation city attractive and beautiful. It is expected that the $25 "pin money" will offer a real incentive to the occupants of the 450 cottages in the city.

According to a formal announcement at the company offices later, it was said the prizes, which will be in gold, will be awarded by the Boulder City company only to those occupying the two and three room houses. Determination of the winners will be made by a committee of three women, who will not be contestants for the prizes offered.

Selection of the judges has not been completed, and announcement will be made at a later date.

The scoring to determine the winners will be on the following basis:

- 40 points for the front garden.
- 30 points for the best appearance of the houses.
- 30 points for the rear garden.

SCREEN LIFE IN HOLLYWOOD

By HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD—When Claudette Colbert and Norman Foster took their belated honeymoon trip—a leisurely voyage around the world—in a freighter—they stopped at the little island of Bali in the south seas.

CLAUDETTE COLBERT

Norman, who spent the daylight hours grinding out film of native life, vowed to return some day.

Plans are about complete for that return trip. Foster and Ralph Ince, actor son of the Thomas H. Ince who was an outstanding producer until his death a few years ago, are going to Bali and other colorful spots in that part of the globe to film a picture.

They will co-direct and play the principal roles in their self-financed film, with natives playing the other parts.

NEWS FOR CLAUDETTE

The two actors and their small party will leave here next May and—this will be news to Mrs. Foster—they expect to be gone at least four months.

Since they were married three years ago, while appearing together in the play, "The Barker," Claudette and Norman have been separated more than half the time. They maintained separate apartments for a long time after their secret marriage and then pictures usually kept one in California while the other was in New York.

Claudette is returning to Hollywood in January and hopes to stay permanently.

Norman says: "I know what Claudette will say when she learns his trip will last several months instead of several weeks: 'I should have married a traveling salesman—he'd be home every week-end.'"

'SIC TRANSIT—ETC.

Years ago most of us were amused when we went to the movies by the antics of a hefty be-mustached villain, who was the menace of nearly every two-reel comedy.

He was a pioneer in pictures and a veteran of 26 years on the stage.

The other day I saw him, wan and lean, supporting himself on crutches. He was near a casting office door, selling a combination pen and pencil and a bottle of ink for $1.

He has been ill for a long time and his illness has caused him to lose a valuable asset, his great poundage.

His name is Kalla Pasha.

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore

"I've never had a happier moment." Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know. For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at Las Vegas Pharmacy or any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back. —adv.
