TUNNEL CREWS BLAST AWAY PREVIOUS RECORDS AT DAM

Blasting away all previous records, tunnel crews at the river workings of Six Companies, Inc., builders of the Hoover Dam, are now shooting at new marks. Observers believe that considering the formation the men are bucking, they are equaling if not bettering some of the phenomenal performance of crews on the famous Owyhee job in the northwest.

According to a report made yesterday at Six Companies offices, a total of 256 feet of tunnel and the excavation of more than 16,000 cubic yards of rock was accomplished during the 24-hour period ending at midnight, Jan. 20. This shattered the previous record, made several weeks ago, by nine feet.

The best progress in any of the headings was made in the upper heading of diversion tunnel number 2, crews in this heading drilling and firing three rounds, making 46 feet in the twenty-four hour period. This heading, which is in charge of T. C. Hargroves, has made the best progress of any of the headings so far during the month of January, making 612 feet in 20 days.

The superintendents and foremen who are breaking records daily in drilling and "muck-moving" are: Woody Williams, Floyd Huntington, Leigh Cairns, T. C. Hargroves, Paul Guinn, Tom Regan and Jack Lamey.

Since January 1 progress has been made at the rate of 217 feet per day, or an average of 27 feet per day in each of the eight headings, 4,351 feet having been driven since the first of the year. The total length of all four diversion tunnels is 15,892 feet. Of this distance 10,699 feet have been driven, leaving 5,193 feet yet to be excavated.

The 5,193 feet of diversion tunnels yet to be driven are made up as follows:

Tunnel No. 1	2,774
Tunnel No. 2	743
Tunnel No. 3	558
Tunnel No. 4	1,118
Total (feet)	5,193

The total footage of 10,699 feet excavated is made up as follows:

Tunnel No. 1	558	961
Tunnel No. 2	1,332	1,801
Tunnel No. 3	1,108	1,884
Tunnel No. 4	1,066	1,987

Two hundred eighty-five thousand cubic yards of muck have been excavated from the diversion tunnels since January 1, or an average of 14,200 cubic yards per day. Six Companies has 33 trucks in operation at the upper portal of the diversion tunnels, ranging in capacity from 12 cubic yards to 7 cubic yards. These are supplemented by 5 trucks under sub-contract to Harry L. Bracken. The trucking from the lower portals is being handled by Carl K. Bryan, under sub-contract, who has 46 trucks in operation.

In order to take care of the muck disposal, Six Companies has purchased 23 more trucks to add to their present fleet, some of them having a capacity of 14 cubic yards.

FEDERAL STAFF TO 'WARM' NEW B. C. POSTOFFICE

The reclamation staff of Boulder City will hold a house warming party tonight in the new municipal building and christen the new post-office, it was announced by Lee Dana, chairman of the dance committee.

This will be the first and the last time that the building will be used for the purpose, it was said, and it is expected that every one attending will have a good time.

O-WEE-GO CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

The O-Wee-Go Bridge club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Helen Settle. Among the guests who attended were Mrs. Marie Barrett, Mrs. Reha Frandon, Mrs. Glena Baker, Mrs. Lena Stickney, Mrs. Norma Curtis, Mrs. Janet Bingham, and Mrs. Ruth Settle.

Mrs. Bingham was honored by winning the high score, and Mrs. Stickney won low score.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, and the members in attendance reported a pleasant time.

The O-Wee-Go Bridge club will meet next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Baker.

CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CARL WOOD

The regular bridge party met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Wood. Among the guests were Miss N. Wood, Mrs. A. V. Towler and her daughter, Betty Towler, Mrs. H. Pysinger, Mrs. E. M. Stevens, Mrs. F. Bury and Mrs. E. Elsbury.

TIP-TOP SHOW PROMISED BY MORAN

Boulder City fistic fans will crash the recreation room Wednesday night for the card to be staged by Frank Moran in the Anderson mess hall.

Ivan Peteroff will be matched with a pitiable opponent, state Frank Moran, and this coming show will be the greatest ever held in the state.

Wildcat Mamos and Jack Clark will wrestle, and both men are confident of victory over the other. DeShong, Boulder City's iron muscled pride, has met and defeated some of the best leading lights in the country. His match with Zbyszko proved some time ago that with a little more seasoning, he will have a chance at the championship.

Phil Blood, California leather pusher and one of Los Angeles' favorite welters, will enter the ring with his panther-like footwork and lightning jabs, matched with a suitable opponent whom Moran is signing up today.

No doubt, Phil's brother, Tom, Anderson Brothers' noodlecat pride, will be at the ringside with his brother.

"Stake your last on Phil," says Tom. Most of us think it's needless.

RUM FLOWS FREE AT BOULDER INTO THE SAND

Booze ran freely at Boulder City yesterday afternoon, but into the sand and gutters instead of where you first thought. Chief of police Bodell, making plans to move into the new police station before Feb. 1, decided the contraband, which had served its purpose as evidence in liquor cases, could be destroyed. Boulder City officers forthwith dumped the casks, bottles and jugs into the street.

Although there might have been spongers standing around for the spectacle, nobody tried to mop up much, Bodell said.

The liquor had been accumulating at the gate where cars are occasionally searched, and from raids.

BOULDER BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lauder entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Marler of Los Angeles last Wednesday and Thursday in their home at Boulder City. Their visitors left for Los Angeles last Friday.

Mrs. I. O. Peterson, who has been very ill, was removed to the Boulder City hospital Friday morning. It is believed that Mrs. Peterson is suffering with a severe case of flu.

Mrs. E. Laing entertained Mrs. John Dixon and Mrs. B. Howard at pinocchle last Wednesday in her home at Boulder City.

Mrs. Wm. Rose and her family have been entertaining Chade Shaffer of Rawlins, Wyo., for the last two days.

Mrs. M. B. Laughlin, who was taken to the Boulder City hospital Thursday, underwent an operation at midnight of the same day for appendicitis.

P. A. Simon of Las Vegas, who is in charge of the Texas company service station now under construction at Boulder City, was here Friday looking over the future prospects for business.

The black walnut may soon become the real money crop of the Ozarks.

PARTY, TRIP, OCCUPY BOY CLUBS

The two boys' clubs, organized by Parson Tom Stevenson, had especially good times this past week. The Pioneer club, with Chief Ranger Ray Baker at its head, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lot-speich, at their home on Avenue C while their son, Cecil, who also is a member of the club, was celebrating his birthday.

After the regular meeting when games came to an end, the hostess served her young guests with sandwiches, cake and cocoa. The delicious tit-bits soon disappeared among the hardy boys.

All hands gave Mrs. Litspeich hearty applause, but Cecil was treated in a different way, and no doubt will never forget this birthday. Most of the club members declared they would appreciate it if Cecil had a birthday every week.

With the temporary close of the school last Tuesday, the Comrades club, with Senior Comrade Howard Wirth at its head, spent the day again visiting the old deserted buildings at Fort Colville.

Parson Tom took charge of the party and left Boulder City with them in his car at 8:30, each boy carrying his own lunch. They stopped at the old "gyp" mines, then proceeded to Colville. As the day was fair and the trip purely educational, they returned by the way of the Vegas wash.

Those who accompanied Parson Tom were Howard Wirth, Herman Cologne, Delmer McClery, Sari Hailings and Tyler Roberson.

A number of the boys could not attend. Some were ill and others could not be spared from home.

A STYLE A DAY

DIRECTORS VISIT
H. W. Morrison of the Morrison-Knudson Co. and his wife of Boise, and Alan MacDonald, of MacDonald & Kahn Co., San Francisco, are visitors at Boulder City. Both Mr. Morrison and Mr. MacDonald are directors in Six Companies, Inc. They are accompanied by a party of friends on their dam visit.

U. S. PROTESTS ENVOY ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. (U.P.)—The United States, for the second time in three weeks, officially protested tonight the mistreatment of its diplomatic representatives abroad.

Secretary of State Stimson instructed American Minister Addison E. Southard at Addis Ababa, capital of Ethiopia, formally to call on Emperor Haile Selassie I, and demand "suitable and adequate punishment" of those who attacked the minister last Sunday.

This newest "diplomatic incident" is parallel in many ways to the attack by Japanese soldiers early this month on American Consul Culver B. Chamberlain, at Mukden, Manchuria. Tokio apologized for the occurrence and agreed to punish those guilty of it.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 22. (U.P.)—A Wisconsin youth, son of a wealthy manufacturer, revealed to police today how two bandits abducted him, robbed him and brought him to Kansas City under threat of death.

The two-piece frock pictured is of 'Rosco' crepe, the latest fabric vogue. Scarf detail is of white fur.

AGED VETERAN KEEPS PLEDGE TO OLD BUDDY

GILEAD, Ind., Jan. 22. (U.P.)—An aged veteran of the Civil war stood at attention today beside a new-made grave and kept a promise made almost 67 years ago on the battlefield.

Adolph Hummagen and Abner White were "buddies" during the Civil war. They volunteered together, then fought side by side through many battles. Both were wounded and together they shared a hospital tent. Then came the glorious end of the war, with victory for them, but with it came a touch of sadness, for it meant they must go separate ways.

"Make me a promise," said Abner to Adolph, "that if I die first, you'll come to my funeral. And if you die first, I'll come to yours, no matter how far away I am."

Hummagen kept his promise today. Now 85 years old and feeble, it was a hardship for him to leave his home, but he drove from his farm into Rochester and stood silently at attention while the body of White was lowered into the grave.

HAROLD CASE TO BE WED AT ALAMO

Las Vegas' fire chief, Harold Case, is to be married tonight to Miss Alma Robinson, at the home of her parents in Alamo, according to plans announced last night.

The Cases expect to return to this city, where they will reside at 513 Bridger street.

Despite 400 gasoline filling stations in the city, Birmingham, Ala., still maintains five watering troughs for horses.

MAYOR OF ILLINOIS VILLAGE DECLARES BUSINESS HOLIDAY

AURORA, Ill., Jan. 22. (U.P.)—Mayor Conrad N. Bjorseth declared a "five day business moratorium" here today, similar to that which was ordered and then called off after two days in Urbana, Ill.

The Urbana plan worked so well in restoring confidence in the city's banks, said Mayor Bjorseth, that he decided to stop the business in this bustling city of 50,000 until next Wednesday. He issued his proclamation despite the fact that Aurora's five banks have weathered the financial crisis which has caused many banks in nearby cities to close.

The mayor ordered all business institutions locked except those supplying food, newspapers, and gas and electricity. A United Press observer found that the city remained crowded with parked automobiles. Many farmers who drove in to do their week-end shopping were bewildered, but contented themselves by buying groceries and meals.

Squads of the citizens canvassed the 20,000 owners of bank accounts, getting pledges from them that they would not withdraw their money unless they actually needed it.

Bjorseth announced the business holiday after conferring with civic leaders most of the night.

"Distress of the nation has struck with violence in neighboring cities and villages and its effects are felt with increasing force, day by day in Aurora," he said.

"It has come to my attention that there is unrest among our citizens due to circulation of vicious and insidious propaganda. All this has its effect upon our commercial life and threatens the welfare of our people and their safety."

"Aurora business and society rest upon firm foundations and I do not propose to stand idly by and permit such actions to create conditions that might seriously affect the social and economic welfare of the city and its people."

EXTRA GUARDS ORDERED OUT

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 22. (U.P.)—A dozen plainclothes men were ordered on duty at the state capitol today to protect the lives of state officials against threatened violence.

As the state supreme court closed its hearing of the famous Scottsboro case.

Thomas E. Knight, Jr., state attorney general, argued today that eight negroes convicted of criminal assault on two white girls at Scottsboro, Ala., had received a fair trial and urged their death sentences be sustained.

The deer arrived from the Kaibab national forest and are attracting a great deal of attention.

CASHMAN LOT IS TURNED TO ZOO

Giving a pet deer away with each used car sold, James Cashman is displaying some seventeen tame deer on his new game preserve and zoo at his used car lot on South Second street.

KILLS SELF BY SWALLOWING LYE

SANTA ROSA, Calif., Jan. 22. (U.P.)—Mrs. Mary Ann Bergerman, 46, of Pueblo, Colo., killed herself here today by swallowing a large amount of lye, according to police.

Mrs. Bergerman has been in poor health for some time and came here two weeks ago to live with friends, hoping that the change of climate would prove beneficial. She was discouraged, her friends said, when she was unable to note any improvement.
