OFFICIALLY IN RING

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 23, (U.P.) For the first time since the immortal Teddy began his Bull Moose adventure, the hat of a Roosevelt was in the ring tonight and a Roosevelt was an avowed candidate for the presidency of the United States.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor of New York, made public a letter W. Tcean, secretary of the North Dakota central Democratic committee, in which he preclaimed his willingness to accept the Demo-cratic nomination. It marked his formal entrance into the race for the nomination.

In accepting the invitation to have his name entered in the North Dakota primaries, Roosevelt called upon his party to nominate candiates "who stand for progressive ideas of government, who represent no mere section, no narrow partisanship and no special class.

candidacy was expected to add impetus to the unofficial Rooseveltfor-President drive that has been inder way in twenty states.

Roosevelt men are already planning a demonstration of his preconvention strength as a fitting obervance of his fiftieth birthday aniversary. January 30.

What the governor's reaction will e seems problematical since he emhasized in his letter to the North Dakota Democrats that he will be unable to do anything to further his candidacy since he believes all his time and energy should be devoted to his job of being governor.

The governor's decision to formally enter the lists, for the Democratic presidential nomination, was made here last Thursday afternoon at a conference with Democratic State Chairman Farley, Secretary of State Edward J. Flynn and Louis M. Howe, confidential secretary and trusted personal adviser to the governor.

The governor's letter assenting to the use of his name in the North Dakota primaries was a frank and His formal acknowledgment of straight-forward document.
