MARKETS AT A GLANCE

By RICHARD L. GRIDLEY

(United Press Financial Writer) NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (U.F)-Stock orices barely moved today as trading activity fell to the lowest levels since early September. Fractional changes were the rule and the market as a whole ended only slightly under previous closing levels.

Brokers estimated that 90 per cent of today's business of approximately 700,000 shares originated on the floor of the exchange as nimble traders attempted to seize fractional profits. As in the previous session, they cautiously put out short lines in the morning dealings but when prices 0-Philippine negrito faile ato decline they covered near the close. Considerable pessimism existed in trading quarters but at

Price movements in the general market attracted scant attention and the slow movement of the stocktape caused many outside traders to leave brokerage houses in disgust. Long intervals occurred between successive quotations and both the bull and bear party were waiting to see which way the speculative wind

The largest gain of the day was made by the veteran Home-Stake Mining, which rose 2 points. Directors of the company saw fit this morning to declare an extra dividend of $1 a share, presumably moved by steadily declining production costs coincident with the increase in the purchasing power of gold.

International gold movements and the current hoarding tendencies as broached by President Hoover last night were the subject of much discussion among traders. President Hoover urged Americans to discontinue hoarding of gold so that it might again flow into legitimate business channels. After the close of the market today, the federal reserve condition statement showed an increase of money in circulation of $42,000,000 in the
