Legion's Leap Year-Valentine Ball
To Outdo All Others, Says Committee

The next public entertainment to be held at Boulder City, will be a combination Leap year and Valentine dance, under the auspices of the American Legion. Friday night February 12 is the date set and the place is Six Companies, Inc., mess hall. Legion committeemen, combined with the ladies auxiliary, have made preparations for a unique entertainment, conducted on a larger scale than ever before known in Southern Nevada, they say.

AN OPEN LETTER
To the women and girls of Las Vegas and Boulder City

LASKY'S is remaining in its present location instead of moving as previously announced. Our plans for a new location have been abandoned... we were unable to find a suitable establishment.

We shall continue to do business in our present location... redecoration to start immediately... We are also announcing the addition of Misses' and Children's Shoe Departments.

Watch... wait for new spring styles... and plenty of cut-out sandals for summer weather... Lasky's also wishes to thank you for your patronage of the past, and respectfully solicits your business in the future...

Lasky's is an institution which will continue to stay... doing its full part in the upbuilding of this city.
