TRANSAMERICA HEAD RESIGNS

NEW YORK, Feb. 10. (U.P.)—Ralph Hayes, a vice president of the Trans-America corporation since 1930 when control of the company was assumed by a group of New York bankers, today resigned from that position to devote the major part of his time to the New York community trust, a philanthropic organization.

Amedeo Peter Giannini, spectacular west coast banker, who founded Trans-America corporation and later turned over its affairs to the New York group is solicitnig stockholders to restore himself to control. The battle between Giannini and the present management will reach a climax next Monday when stockholders hold their annual meeting at Wilmington, Del.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

By RICHARD L. GRIDLEY
(United Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 10. (U.P.)—Pressure on the stock market relaxed somewhat today and prices again were able to hold at or near yesterday's closing levels.

Trading as a whole showed no change in character from recent sessions, large traders continuing to withhold operations until the market demonstrated by its own actions whether it would meet support around present levels or enter into another phase of the bear market.

Turnover approximated 1,300,000 shares, against 1,200,000 shares in the previous session and dealings again were largely confined to a few leaders. Support was principally supplied by covering of shorts who were protecting their positions against a possible sudden reversal of the downward trend.

With few exceptions, changes at the close were fractional. Rails were better than most groups because of their relatively better technical position, while Steel common, American Telephone and General Motors closed with fractional gains. Auburn again was a soft spot, dropping 5¾ points to a new low and then recovering nearly half.

Utilities other than American Telephone met considerable selling on fears of prospective rate cuts in the wage and price readjustments in other industries. Telephone directors meet for dividend action next week and the regular dividend is expected. The street is not so hopeful over subsequent meetings, however.

Adverse dividend action was responsible for a violent break today in Eastman Kodak, a stock that was considered among the best "blue chips" at the peak of the bull market. Kodak directors omitted the usual 75 cent extra dividend on the common stock paid at this time but ordered the regular quarterly dividend of $1.25.

The stock broke to 68½ immediately after the dividend action, a loss of 6⅝ points from the previous close, as heavy investment liquidation came into the market. Its action, however, had comparatively little affect on the remainder of the market, although elimination of the extra dividend was a shock to many traders.

The January unfilled order report of the United States Steel corporation, made public at noon, showing a further loss in prospective business of 87,203 tons, had less affect on the market than usual. The drop in tonnage, which carried unfilled orders to 2,648,150 tons, the lowest since 1909, apparently attracted heavy short covering on the theory the "bad news" was out.

Steel common opened fractionally lower at 38, slipped to 37⅝ before noon and rallied to a high of 29½ at mid-afternoon. It closed at 38½, a gain of ⅝ point. Movements in other shares were similar and were not of especial significance.

Firmness in the railroad shares gave considerable encouragement to the bull forces in view of the leadership of the railroad stocks in recent major movements in stock prices. Union Pacific was a leader of this group on the eve of its dividend meeting tomorrow. A reduction in the current $10 annual rate is expected, but traders are hopeful that only a moderate scaling down will be made in the rate.

Such leaders as New York Central, Chesapeake & Ohio and Atchison all closed with small gains and many traders turned bullish on the railroad stocks. The general feeling was that a concerted buying movement might take place in the railroad stocks if the main body of stocks threatens to violate the early January lows at which level it has been resting for several days.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 10. (U.P.)—Prices held steady today on the Kansas City livestock market, with supplies light. There was a tendency for weakness, however, in the sheep market with demand lacking.

Steers and yearlings sold from $4 to $7.15. Top fat hogs were strong at 3.85, and the bulk of sales ranged from $3.75 to $3.85. Lambs sold from $6 to $6.50.

BELL ROBBERY SUSPECT HELD

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 10. (AP) — Lynn E. Thorp, alias Chadwick Darrill, former Washington convict, today pleaded guilty in superoir court to a robbery charge, but Judge Martain Welch delayed sentence pending the sifting of evidence that Thorp might be implicated in the robbery of Rex Bell of $800 at Las Vegas January 16.

Thorp kidnapped Detective Ed La Vine Monday night, forcing the officer to drive in and about Sacramento for six hours. The robbery charge was based on taking the officer's gun and handcuffs. Thorp seemed anxious to receive his sentence and go to prison. Police said they had evidence tending to link Thorp with the Bell robbery.

VEGAS VAGRANT HELD FOR UTAH

Albert C. Moore, colored, alias Albert Langford, alias Joe Brown, arrested here recently on a vagrancy charge, was yesterday revealed as a man Ogden, Utah, police have been seeking, and whom local authorities have been holding on the vagrancy charge pending confirmation of his identity.

Moore was arrested as soon as local police received word that he was wanted in Ogden from Chief of Police A. E. Wilfong of the Utah city. He was held until photographs and fingerprints could be sent here by Wilfong. Faced by the evidence proving that he was wanted in the north, the negro admitted his identity, but refused to waive extradition or reveal for what crime he is being held.
