GANGSTERS DYING OUT, ONE BY ONE, AS ENEMIES AND LAW GRADUALLY CATCH UP TO THEM

By H. ALLEN SMITH United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, Feb. 16. (AP)—Bullets fly in the stuffy darkness of an Albany rooming house, thudding into the inert form of a skinny gangster. Jack Diamond is dead.

Robert Elliott throws a switch in a white-walled chamber at Sing Sing and life leaves the body of a cocky young cop-killer. Two-gun Crowley is dead.

A sub-machine gun spits unerring death into the face of a dimpled-chinned, 24-year-old boy, standing in the telephone booth of a Manhattan drug store. Vincent Coll is dead.

Chicago's big shot, Al Capone, is awaiting the start of an 11-year stretch in Leavenworth, caged by the government on the comparatively innocuous charges of income tax fraud.

Chicago's beer twins, Frankie Lake and Terry Druggan, are being smoothed out under the same iron. Lake went to Leavenworth last week to serve two years and Druggan is due to go as soon as he "gets well."

"The cock of the South Side beer walk," is rusticated on a farm in Wisconsin, satisfied to milk the cows far from the hall of lead.

Bugs Moran is still functioning, dividing his time between Chicago and Buffalo where, by popular report, he supervises the entry of liquor for his limited Chicago trade.

Manhattan's great underworld leader, Arnold Rothstein, who trafficked in dope, women, bribes, whiskey and lives, has been dead these three years. In his place stands Owen Madden, a hangover from the pre-prohibition gang days. But even Madden, who dabbles extensively in night clubs, liquor and big-time athletic events, is somewhat behind the eight-ball at the moment.

Dutch Schultz, beer baron of the Bronx, is having a precarious time of it up beyond the Harlem river. Bullets whistle around his ears whenever he steps out of hiding. And if he isn't a bullet, it's a detective, taking him in on another warrant.

The power of Ciro Terranova, sometimes called "the Artichoke King," is said to be negligible in New York, and even Max "Boo-Boo" Hoff, once kingpin of Philadelphia racketeers, is reported to be suffering from the depression and one thing and another.

In the southwest where Jesse James and his boys once rode, a bad man named Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd keeps the citizens supplied with thrills. He is not of the city gangster tradition, but everything that happens in Oklahoma, it is said, is attributed to him. His name has been linked with at least six killings, and he is believed to have committed more than 20 big robberies.

These men still are operating, though from principal cities reports agree on one thing: gangsters are on the run. The law is after them, their rivals are becoming more careless with their bullets, and the depression has them by the heels.

THE TIRE THAT TAUGHT THRIFT TO MILLIONS

Now, at the lowest prices ever known, you can enjoy Firestone Extra Values.

$4.65 EACH WHEN BOUGHT IN PAIRS SIZE 4.40-21 Other Sizes Proportionately Low

This is possible only because Firestone concentrate their entire world-wide resources in building complete lines of quality tires, tubes, batteries, brake lining, spark plugs and accessories. These are for sale through Firestone Service Stores and Service Dealers.

Firestone do not manufacture tires under special-brand names for mail-order houses and others to distribute. Special-brand tires are made without the manufacturer's name. They are sold without his guarantee or responsibility for service.

Firestone manufacture complete lines of tires for their Service Stores and Service Dealers. Each line is designated by tread design and name. The quality and construction of each Firestone line excel that of special-brand mail-order tires sold at the same prices.

Call on the Firestone Service Dealer in your community. He will show you sections cut from Firestone Tires, special-brand mail-order tires and others. See the Extra Values you get in Firestone Tires at prices no higher than special-brand lines.

Diagram of a tire tread showing internal structure. Text: Extra VALUES GUM-DIPPED CORDS The Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process transforms the cotton cords into a strong, tough, sinewy unit. Liquid rubber penetrates every cord and coats every fiber, guarding against internal friction and heat, greatly increasing the strength of the cord body, and giving longer tire life. TWO EXTRA CORD PLIES UNDER THE TREAD This is a patented construction, and the two extra cord plies are so placed that you get 56% stronger bond between tread and cord body, and 26% greater protection against punctures and blowouts. It sets a new standard for tire performance on high speed cars. Quiet, Safe, Long-Wearing Non-Skid Tread Tough, thick rubber specially compounded for long, slow wear. Effective non-skid gives greater traction and safe, quiet performance.
