WONDERFUL BARGAINS STILL LEFT
The Underpriced Store
117 SOUTH MAIN STREET

The first day of the sale, the prices on the front tables were not changed, but the goods were stacked in front of price stands, denoting the reduced prices. The rushes of people were so large at times, that these price stands were crowded off the tables, and many no doubt had the impression that the old prices on the merchandise were the prices asked. Any having this impression are asked to come again. The goods are now all "marked down" in plain figures. You will be astounded at the slashes in prices. Everything practically given away. Come and see.
