

CARNERA WINS PARIS BATTLE

PARIS, Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Primo Carnera, Italian "man mountain," won a 10-round decision over Pierre Charles of Belgium. Former European heavyweight champion, tonight at Palais des Sports.

Although outweighing the Belgian by 49 pounds, Carnera met with unexpectedly stiff opposition. Charles forced the fighting and clearly won at least three rounds, the fifth, sixth and ninth. There were no knockdowns. Carnera's weight and a four-inch height advantage enabled him to land the harder blows and take the decision.

Carnera weighed 264 pounds; Charles 215. The majority of critics had predicted that Charles would be knocked out before the seventh round. His excellent showing against the giant Italian made a favorable impression with fight fans.

CHOCOLATE RESUMES

HAVANA, Cuba, Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Kid Chocolate will resume his ring activity when he meets Dominick Petrone, New York lightweight, in a 10-round bout at the new Fronton here, Saturday.

Proceeds of the bout will be given to the women's relief committee for victims of the Santiago earthquake.

L. A. CUEMAN LEADS

FRENCH LICK, Ind., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—D. H. Goslin, Los Angeles, bested Ray V. Fessenden, Madison, Wis., 300 to 282 in 57 innings in the first game of the national amateur 18.2 ballline billiard championship here today. Goslin, the Pacific Northwest title holder, had a high run of 40. Fessenden, western champion, had 38. They required three hours to finish the game.

HORSE TRAINING CAMPS RUN ON STRICT ARMY DISCIPLINE RULES

By HENRY McLEMORE, United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Feb. 29. (U.P.)—"Yep," said Tom Healey, head trainer of the C. V. Whitney eastern stables, "we are just a little army out here. We train, train, train and then when we get our marching orders we pack up, bag and baggage, and are off for the wars, or races."

The stables of a great racing string are handled like an army camp in more ways than one. Parallels can be drawn in discipline, orderliness, training and to a certain extent, expense.

At the Whitney Brookdale stables at Red Bank, N. J., Healey is the general. He has his lieutenants in the form of under trainers, veterinarians, and office workers, and his privates in the guise of exercise boys, stable hands, the grooms and groundskeepers. The entire camp, from Healey to the blackest little exercise boy, arises each morning shortly after daybreak when the thoroughbreds there are 27 in training for the eastern circuit right now — are given their principal workouts.

The horses, immaculately groomed as though headed for the post in the Kentucky derby, and led by the ever present stable pony, parade to the mile track some 200 yards below the stable. There, on a racing strip that save for a grandstand is as perfectly appointed as Belmont, they gallop under the watchful eye of Trainer Healey. Before the workout begins the exercise boys line the horses up in perfect dress parade formation and Healey, standing in front of them, gives each rider his instructions. Hey There is to be worked so fast. Contraband is to go this far. Caterwaul that far. Top Flight and Three Daggers are to be worked together. There is nothing slipshod. Nothing is taken for granted. The whole workout is as carefully run as though it was a stake race.

Their gallops finished, the thoroughbreds return to the stable. Grooms take them in hand and bathe and polish them, and treat all their hurts and bruises before returning them to their individual stalls. The stalls are waist deep in clean, sweet straw and as spotless as Mrs. Rit Van-Camp's drawing room.

DEMPSEY KNOCKS OUT 2 IN OHIO

DAYTON, O., Mar. 1. (U.P.)—Jack Dempsey knocked out two fighters here tonight in two minutes and thirty-two seconds of fighting before the largest crowd of fight fans ever gathered in Dayton.

Jack Phillips, local heavyweight, and Pat Sullivan, a former light heavyweight champ of the United States army, were the victims.

WATER BASKETBALL MAKES BOW

If swimming isn't enough exercise, try water basketball and see if you don't exert yourself. The game was introduced to these ardent fans at Lakeside, Oakland, by Coach Leo Purcell and is rapidly taking hold. The idea is to toss the water-soaked ball into the basket, just like the game played on courts.

BASEBALL BITS

By the United Press
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28. (U.P.)—All members of the New York Giants squad, with the exception of Bill Terry, had joined the training camp today and participated in brisk workouts. Terry is due to arrive tomorrow.

PASO ROBLES, Calif., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—General batting practice was the order of the day in the Pittsburgh Pirate camp, after the late arrival of several regulars had necessitated the postponement of the first practice game of the training season.

AVALON, Catalina Island, Feb. 29. (U.P.)—The entire squad of Chicago Cubs went through a three-hour drill under cloudy skies today. Two batting cages were used until all available pitchers were exhausted, then the players were sent through an intensive fielding drill.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Except for two players the entire New York Yankees squad took part in the combined drills of the first and second detachments today. Absentees were Tony Lazzari, unsigned second baseman, and George Selkirk, who apparently has been lost in transit from his home here.

MINERAL WELLS, Tex., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Luke Appling, infielder, arrived at the Chicago White Sox camp today, ending fears for his safety. He had been expected for several days and explained that he had "been detained en route."

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Waite Hoyt, veteran pitcher, who recently was released by the Philadelphia Athletics, reported to Manager Max Carey of the Brooklyn Dodgers here today, signed his contract and went through his first workout in a Brooklyn uniform.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—The Boston Braves went through two practice sessions at Waterfront park today. Batting practice will start tomorrow. Manager McKechnie is determined to keep the men on the field most of the day.

FORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—The Philadelphia Athletics swung through their first full-squad workout today with only five absentees, two of whom are holdouts. Outfielders Coleman and Hass, and infielders Shaw, Chocki and Roetiger arrived today. Eric McNair, Max Bishop and Dib Williams pulled in late last night.

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Sidney Well, president of the Cincinnati Reds, arrived here today and said he had no news regarding the Reds' holdout problem. Red Lucas, Harvey Hendrick, Joe Stripp, Tony Cucinello and Joe Morrissey have refused to come to terms despite Well's negotiations.

HANSELL ON TRIP
City Commissioner Lou B. Hansell plans to go to Los Angeles tomorrow to be gone several days.

FINAL SPURT GIVES CAT QUINT WIN OVER PANACA

TICK ON SEEN AS STRONG RUNNER

By THOMAS H. NOONE, United Press Racing Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Mrs. Louis G. Kaufman's Loma stable has a strong Kentucky derby candidate in Tick On. This son of On Watchox is generally agreed upon as the best of the male eligibles, and is a strong second choice in future-book betting at odds of 10 to 1.

Winning three of his ten races as a juvenile, Tick On earned $57,350 last year. His most notable triumph was in the Hopeful stakes at Saratoga, while all his subsequent efforts were good. Excepting Indian Runner, he was the only one to give Top Flight an argument.

One of Tick On's best races was in the Pimlico futurity. He did not win that rich stake, but gave the Whitney filly the race of her career and trailed her by only a neck after a whirlwind finish. He was away slowly and encountered considerable interference.

Trainer Max Hirsch and Jockey Pete Walls were so firmly convinced Tick On could master Top Flight that a challenge for a match race was issued immediately following the futurity. Tom Healy, boss of the Whitney stable, declined to race the filly any more until she had passed her third milestone and both youngsters were shelved for the winter. Thus the derby promises to be a duel between these two.

A visit to the winter quarters of Tick On at Belmont Park last Friday revealed the fact that Tick On weathered the winter in great shape. He stands sixteen hands high, weighs about a thousand pounds and has a jet black coat as smooth as silk.

Having just been given a brisk walk, the colt was in high spirits. The stable superintendent declared he was ready for a gallop at the asking and seemed firmly convinced he can beat Top Flight in the derby notwithstanding the five-pound weight concession she will receive in that mile and a quarter trip because of her sex.

Tomorrow: The Greentree stable entries.

BENNY LEONARD WINS N. Y. BOUT

NEW YORK, Feb. 29. (U.P.)—Benny Leonard, former lightweight champion, passed his first genuine test in his come-back campaign tonight when he won a ten-round decision over Billy McMahon, rugged New York welter, before 4,000 fans at St. Nicholas arena.

At times, the semi-bald Leonard appeared like the master boxer of eight years ago. He bobbed and weaved under McMahon's wild swings, and countered with stiff jabs which kept the younger opponent off balance.

If Mrs. E. W. Collins will call at The Age office, she will receive a free ticket, good for today only at El Portal theater.

Visitors Threaten L.V. In Fast and Heavy Hoop Contest

The hardest fighting bunch of Wildcats that ever took the floor in the local high school gym came out in the last quarter of the game with Panaca yesterday morning and squeezed out a 3-point victory over the northern hoop squad, defeating them by a 19-16 count.

With the score standing 15-14 against them at the beginning of the final period, the Wildcats started a wide-open game which at times threatened to cause their defeat when the Lincoln county boys got the ball in tossing distance of the Wildcats' goal with nothing between them and the hoop, but failed to score on the throw.

The first quarter was slow and uninteresting with the Wildcats taking a good lead on the Panaca squad and ending the half with the score 13-9 in their favor. In the third quarter the Wildcats made only one point, putting the Panaca team scored six, putting them ahead by one point. It was then that the Wildcats opened up and started fighting their hardest. The Lincoln squad did not let the locals run over them, however, for they had some reserve power which they also called into use. The ball was taken from one end of the gym to the other and back again in desperate attempts to score, neither team taking time to aim at the hoop until the quarter was half over and the Wildcats proved the better squad.

Stewart was the high point scorer for the locals with seven points and Kay and Willets came next with three apiece. Willets was forced out on fouls early in the second half and Nay took his place.

No member of the squad deserves much more credit than any other for the result of the game as it took all five men to win it.

The Panaca squad has plenty of crack shots on the team and proved it when they threatened the locals in the third quarter. The speed and excitement of the last quarter caused many a shot that would otherwise have been good to go astray.

Two referees officiated, and the game was called closely. Panaca's making half of their points on free throws.

The biggest crowd that ever witnessed a game here was on hand, probably due to the excusing of school students who wanted to see the game.

Golf Notes

By "SANDY GREEN"
Gerald Crowe won a leg on the Biennial cup Sunday with a gross score of 78, less 18 handicap, net 60.

The following is a list of the other scores: R. J. Newton, 85; J. Cahlan, 107; M. Davis, 96; D. Dashiell, 95; Dr. Park, 92; E. W. Clark, 89; H. E. Faxon, 86; Dr. J. H. Jeffrey, 80; Leo McNamee, 111; H. Blanding, 99; J. R. Lewis, 93; Judge Wm. E. Orr, 96; W. Pike, 106.

The weather was beautifully warm and a number of the players discarded their sweaters.

Uncle Jonathan blamed the glare of the sun for his missed putts, nevertheless, John, you are improving as your score denotes.

Dr. Park was decidedly off with his iron play Sunday, but his long driving was magnificent to behold; at times he outdrove his opponent by 25 and 30 yards off the tee.

E. W. Clark is the real steady file as his 45 and 44 denotes.

Ed Faxon was decidedly off Sunday, as his 86 is 'way too high.

Gerald Crowe drove, pitched and putted in quite Hagenesque style Sunday and the handicapping committee are hot on his trail.

Now that the weather has warmed up a bit we would like to see many more of the members turn out to play Saturdays and Sundays.

The course is in splendid condition, thanks to George, the greenskeeper. It has never been in better shape.
