FINEY AT HEAD OF BOULDER'S POSSIBILITIES FOR POSTMASTER IS GIVEN HIGH RECOMMENDATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 1. (Special to The Age)—James L. Finney, of Boulder City, was virtually assured of the Postmaster's appointment for the Dam city today when it was learned that he stood at the head of the list of six eligibles.

Finney, received the endorsement of the Clark county Republican central committee for the appointment, was one of six men who took the civil service examination for the post several weeks ago. He has been acting postmaster at Boulder City since the first postoffice service was inaugurated there.

Finney was recommended for the appointment today, which must finally be approved by President Hoover.

The original qualification requirements, which are the same for postmaster examinations throughout the country, and requires a two year residence in the community, had to be changed for Boulder City one of the few times in the history of the postoffice department.

Several applicants were allowed to re-register for the examination, postponed because of the fact that two years ago there were no residents in Boulder City. A special clause was made a part of the requirement blank, throwing the examination open to the short-time residents.

OFFICES OPENED IN STAGE DEPOT

Although the new Terminal building is but now in the process of having the finishing touches added, several business and professional men have already taken their quarters there and are doing business.

Dr. Frank B. Wheelright, dentist, who has been in a nearby temporary building, is already practicing in his new offices, while the Higgins-Rhoades barber shop is doing business with four chairs installed last Sunday.

The remaining plastering and electrical work is being finished as rapidly as is practicable, and the building should be finished in the near future.

FAIRBANKS MOVES INTO NEW STORE

Roy Fairbanks, pioneer Boulder clothier, moved yesterday into his new location in the reservation city, just two doors north of his former place of business, on Avenue B at Nevada street.

Fairbanks is enthusiastic over his new location, which he describes as giving him much more floor room, and much more of an opportunity to display his wares. He, incidentally, has just received a new shipment of merchandise which he plans to display at his usual popular prices. Personnel in the new store, he announces, will remain unchanged.

COURT TILT SEEN AS RESULT OF GAS TESTS IN TUNNEL

CARSON CITY, Mar. 1. (U.P.)—S. C. Dinsmore, state food and drug commissioner, withheld results of 28 of 31 tests made of air in Hoover dam tunnels, Six Companies attorneys charged in a brief filed here today.

The brief represented the contractors' latest move in their injunction suit to prevent enforcement of state mining laws at the dam site. A hearing on the injunction was held early in January, before three federal judges in San Francisco.

According to the statements filed today, Dinsmore found traces of carbon monoxide in but three tests made December 4 and 5. He filed an affidavit, however, that the gas was in "the two samples taken," according to the brief.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

By RICHARD L. GRIDLEY
United Press Financial Writer
NEW YORK, Mar. 1. (U.P.)—The stock market plodded along its narrow course today, little influenced by further sinking spells in individual issues. Most of the leaders were able to recover their slight gains of the previous session but trading volume showed further shrinkage.

Continued absence of important news restricted speculative participation with a result that turn over approximated only 700,000 shares, against 900,000 shares in the previous session. Social movements accounted for the greater part of the activity. Johns-Manville broke nearly four points at one time on heavy trading following elimination of its $1 annual common dividend, while Bendix Aviation fell 2 points on reduction of its payment from $1 to 60 cents a share annually. These developments took traders by surprise. Fears of adverse dividend action bore heavily on both General Electric and Westinghouse Electric. General Theatres Equipment sank to another record low of 50 cents a share on appointment of a receiver for the company.

Dividend fears also took their toll in the railroad group, both Pennsylvania and Chesapeake and Ohio breaking sharply. Chesapeake Corporation, C. & O.'s largest stockholder also was weak. Surprising strength was shown by Canadian Pacific, the issue rising nearly a point to a new high for the year on Montreal buying. Similar purchases were reported in International Nickel.

The market was not without its bright spots, notwithstanding the dull trading operations. Sinclair Consolidated, Prairie Oil and Gas, and Prairie pipe line were firm on approval of the merger by the shareholders of the former two companies by mid-afternoon.

Foreign news was further improved on reports that the Bank of England would shortly repay a large part of the $200,000,000 remaining credit received by it to support the pound sterling last summer. The Federal Reserve's easy money policy to stimulate business resulted in further ease in Bankers' acceptances. Rates quoted by leading dealers. Chemical shares as a group were strong on steadying chemical prices. The sold out condition of the Copper shares was demonstrated by their insensitiveness to a further break in copper prices as world producers continued their seemingly endless negotiations to curtail copper production to a point where prices could be advanced. Foreign copper broke to 5 7-8 cents a point and domestic metal to 5 3-4 cents a pound, levels at which no American producers can mine the metal profitably.

Leading copper shares like American Smelting, Kennecott and Anaconda held surprisingly steady in quiet trading. Steel shares, likewise, were steady despite further adverse news from the industry. The American metal market today estimated steel ingot operations this week at 25 per cent of capacity against 26 per cent in the two preceding weeks. Such seasonal increases as have occurred, according to this publication, are regarded as purely seasonal.

WORK IS PUSHED ON BOULDER MORTUARY

Construction has started on the new Parks mortuary to be located on Avenue G, just north of Wyoming street, according to Gene Parks of the Palm Funeral home of Las Vegas.

Boulder City's first mortuary is to be a completely equipped building 34 by 56 feet in size, and will have an additional 22 by 24 foot second floor, to be used as living quarters for the resident manager. The equipment and personnel will be thoroughly competent to conduct the finest burials, and in addition will offer emergency ambulance service.

All excavation for the new building has been completed, and the first floor is already laid. Four workmen are engaged today in the erection of the walls, and the work will be pushed to completion with all possible rapidity. The new establishment will be open and equipped for service by April 15, Parks announced last night.

H. C. Garrison, at present with the Palm Funeral home in Las Vegas, will act as manager of the new mortuary, assisted by his sister, Mrs. Helmut Bragdon.

FREE CIGARETTES PLEASE B. C. FOLK

Whether Boulder Cityites are attempting to keep kissable, satisfied, in fresh tobacco, or merely protecting their adams apples is undecided, but the line that forms daily around the car of A. B. Laurman of Salt Lake City testifies amply to their appreciation of the free samples of cigarettes he is dispensing.

Laurman is accompanied by his wife during his stay of a few days in the reservation, where he is giving away free smokes to dam workers.

A GOLD BOOM

We Need It

The Eldorado Empire Mining Company is an Arizona Corporation with a Capital of 1,000,000 shares of a par value of ONE DOLLAR per share of which 970,000 shares are outstanding and 30,000 shares in the Treasury. The Company owns the "Black Hawk" patented Mine, which is now developed and ready to produce GOLD, but the mine lacks a mill and water to run it. However, I own a mill and water rights developed nearby, which I have arranged to rent to the Company. This mill can be set up within 90 days. The mine is located in the center of Eldorado Canyon, just 15 miles South of the Boulder Dam site, in Clark County, Nevada.

In order to bring this mine to the producing stage after the stockholders had done all they were able to do I loaned the Company $85,000 for which they gave me 6 per cent notes due June 8, 1934. There is now due an additional $10,000 in interest, making a total of $95,000 now due me. The Company has now given me permission (after I made at my expense in the mine probably the greatest strike ever made in Clark County) to set up my mill on the mine and take out in gold the $95,000 coming to me, after which the profits will go to pay dividends on the capital stock.

In order to carry through this program I must borrow at a time when money is tight. But my necessity is your opportunity. The following offer is so attractive that you cannot afford to pass it by: I own the Company's note for $10,000, for which I paid cash. This note is payable on or before June 8, 1934, with accumulated interest at 6 per cent per annum. I propose to put up this note for security and against it issue $10,000 of my own personal notes in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1,000, same to run to June 8, 1934, with interest at 6 per cent per annum. For every dollar you lend me on my note I will give you as a bonus one share of my personal stock in the Company. (If you bought this stock from the Company, you would pay the par value of One Dollar per share. Then we will erect my mill, take out the $10,000 in gold, with which we will repay your note with interest and you will own a block of stock in the Eldorado Empire Mine, that has cost you nothing.
