BIG ED MORRIS DIES IN BOSTON

CENTURY, Fla., Mar. 3. (U.P)-Big Ed" Morris, pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, died in a hospital here today from wounds received in a schuffle at a fish fry given in his honor at Brewton, Alabama,

Joe White of Brewton is being held by officers as the suspected Morris was what is known as a "warm weather" pitcher - one who doesn't reach top form until the season is almost half over. Morris' best year was in 1929; when he won nineteen games and lost fifteen. From then his average

JACK DELANEY ON COMEBACK ROUTE

BRIDGEPORT, Mar. 3. (U.P.)— Jack Delaney, 183 1-2, once one of the ring's greatest lightheavies. started his comeback campaign tonight by knocking out Phil Johnson, Jersey City, negro, in the second round of a scheduled 10ound bout.

Johnson knocked Delaney down at the start of the second round with a left hook to the jaw, but Jack quickly scrambled to his feet and dispatched the negro with a shower of rights and lefts to the
