

Kentuckians Think Native Has Good Chance Against Outsiders In Derby

By THOMAS H. NOONE (United Press Racing Editor)
NEW YORK, March 9. (U.P.)—Ever hopeful that a native can beat off the powerful eastern invaders, Kentuckians this year pin their chief reliance for a derby victory on William F. Knebelkamp's Delivered and J. W. Parrish's Cold Check. Adolphe Post and Hoops are additional nominees of the first named owner, while Depression, a consistent filly last year, a stablemate of Cold Check, is also named for the stake.

Delivered, a bay gelding by Lee O. Cotner and Guaranteed, started thirteen times in 1931. He won four races, including the Queen City handicap at Latonia, placed twice and ran third once. His winnings totaled $16,800. His derby odds are 60 to 1.

The Knebelkamp star is quartered at Churchill Downs, and is well advanced in his training. He recently worked a quarter mile in 24 1-5, and was breathing easily when pulled up. Commenting on the move, Mr. Knebelkamp expressed keen satisfaction and stated that Delivered will be heard from on May 7.

Hoops has been campaigned through the winter with indifferent success. Little importance is attached to him or Adolphe Post in the top brackets of the handicap division.

Cold Check, a chestnut colt by High Time-La Planche De Briante, was campaigned chiefly in the west last year. He made fifteen trips to the barrier and was returned to the winner's circle four times, besides finishing second on three occasions. His winnings approximated $16,800.

The most notable stake success of the Parrish colorbearer was his victory in the Cincinnati trophy at Latonia. He showed several other promising efforts, however, and the betting fraternity considered the odds of 100 to 1 quoted against him quite liberal.

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 8. (U.P.)—For the first time this spring unfavorable weather interrupted the Brooklyn Dodgers' training and today's scheduled workout was called off by Manager Max Carey.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 9. (U.P.)—Although Huggins field was too heavy for the practice game today, Manager McCarthy did not give the entire Yankee squad a day off. With Art Fletcher and Cy Perkins assisting, Mac put the pitchers through a fielding drill in which the handling of bunts and covering of first base was stressed.

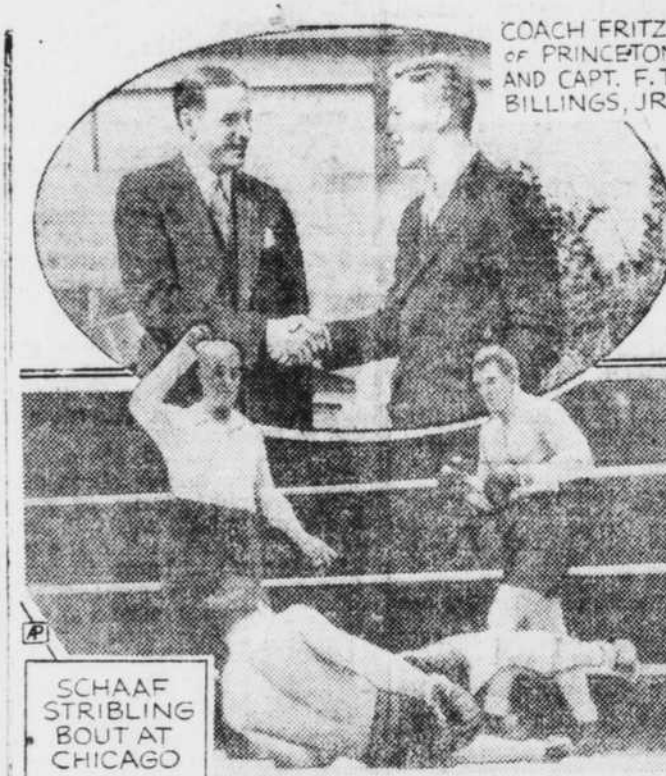

BRADENTON, Fla., March 9. (U.P.)—Behind the strong pitching of St. Johnson, Owen Carroll and Eckert, the Cincinnati Reds defeated the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 0, in an exhibition game here today.

The Cards got but four hits, all of which came off Johnson in the first four innings.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 9. (U.P.)—The Chicago White Sox today braved a temperature of 35 degrees to engage in their first practice game of the season. The regulars beat the Goofs, 6 to 3.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 9. (U.P.)—Dick Bartell, and Barney Friberg, the last of the holdouts, arrived in the Phillies camp today, the former the proud possessor of a document of three years' duration, and the latter signed for one season.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 9. (U.P.)—Walter Berger's long home run, the first made at Water Front park this year, was the feature of today's regular Braves-Yanigans, contest which ended in a 2 to 2

Crack tumblers the other day in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Cal., put on a routine that would shame the best dance maneuvers Ziegfeld has managed for his celebrated chorus girls. The "leap and fall on" at the end of the seventh.

FT. MYERS, Fla., March 9. (U.P.)—Rain today forced the Athletics to abandon their scheduled six-inning scrub game. Heavy downpours during the night and morning made the field unfit for play. However, the batterymen went through an hour of exercise on the sidelines in the afternoon.

LOS ANGELES, March 9. (U.P.)—Despite the fact that the New York Giants regulars had their lineup intact for the first time this season, they lost a six-inning practice game to the reserves, 9 to 4, today. Turner and Schumaker pitched for the regulars and Bill Walker and Planeta for the Yanigans.

AVALON, Catalina Island, Mar. 9. (U.P.)—A nine-inning game with veteran pitchers on the slab featured a hard day of practice for the Chicago Cubs. The regulars won, 2 to 1, with Root and Bush pitching. Grimes and Malone hurled for the second squad.

your neck boys" were in a workout leading up to the Olympic trials. Photograph shows nine of the boys in the air at one time.

Notice the smooth, flexible muscles of Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, Chicago Cubs' outfielder revealed as he takes a shower following a workout at the clubs Catalina island, Cal., spring training camp. The picture helps make it clear why the hard hitting Kiki is one of the speediest men in the majors.

H. O. "Fritz" Crisler, now Princeton football coach, is shown talking things over with F. Tremaine Billings jr, Tiger guard and 132 captain. Crisler, former University of Minnesota director of athletics, will take charge of the Tigers in spring training, starting April 4. Mastery of fundamentals he believes will restore Princeton's football prestige to its former high estate.

The comeback hopes of W. L. (Young) Stribling received a hard blow when he was decisively outpointed recently by Ernie Schaaf, Boston battler, in Chicago. Picture shows the Georgian taking a short count at the end of the fourth round. He was a tired boy at the end of ten rounds of milling.

Alan Gould, Associated Press sports editor, making the round of the spring training camps in Dixie, stopped off in St. Petersburg, Fla., to see what Joe McCarthy had to say about the New York Yankees. McCarthy revealed he expected plenty of infield help from Jack Saltzgeber and Frank Crosetti, but he admitted that the pitching problem has him worried.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 9. (U.P.)—A basketball tournament may be a deal affair for the first few rounds. Or it may not. The National A. A. U. meet is not. When three games out of four are decided on a one-point margin, the fans are getting their money's worth. And the folks who saw the battles here today watched just the kind of a program.

The afternoon started out in a one-sided way, and the St. Louis Sugar Creek players eliminated Bethany college from Lindsay, Kan., 28 to 19, in the first game of the day.

But after that the fighting got hot. The Oklahoma City Hupps defeated the Young Men's Institute from San Francisco, 27 to 26; Schuessler A. A. of Chicago knocked out the Tulsa Oilers, 17 to 16; and Dakota Wesleyan eliminated the Pasadena Majors, 39 to 38. No fan could ask for a better show than that.
