MARKETS AT A GLANCE

By RICHARD L. GRIDLEY (United Press Financial Writer) NEW YORK, Mar. 14. (U.P.)-New of Ivar Kreuger, whose financial interests penetrate almost every financial center of the world caused a wave of selling in his companies today and dragged prices downward in various security markets.

More than a quarter of the trad-ing on the New York market comprised share of Kreuger & Toll, holding company of the Kreuge group, the issue opening 150,000 shares at 1%, rallying to 21/2 and closing at 214. a net loss of 27 points from Saturday. International Match, a subsidiary, opened 6 cents lower at 111/2 and closed at 12% International Match 5 per cent bonds of 1941 and 1947 and Kreuge. & Toll 5 per cent debentures on the bond market lost from 1214 to 16 points.

These declines were overshadowed by declines in securities of this class in European markets, which were open before New York. Declines in Kreuger issues there also dragged stocks lower, a development that Wednesdays of each month, and subsequently was duplicated at New are held at the American Legion subsequently was duplicated at New brave resistance in the morning trading to the uneasiness aroused by the Krauger collapse but support was finally exhausted and the entire market declined rather rapidly to P. M. in the Economy Hall the close where various leaders showed losses of a fraction to more than three points.

tributed to the good impression in financial circles to the heavy plurality polled by President Von Hindenburg in the German election, a development that many traders believed would aid in stabilization of German economic affairs.

With the turnover in Kreuger & Toll reaching 673,000 shares out of the total turnover of 2,000,000 of 1931. shares, trading in this stock monopolized the tape and attracted prices advance slightly to average most attention. It was more than price of 91/2 cents a gallon for third an hour after the opening before grade fuel. to establish a price for the stock. of $562,223 in 1930. Selling of the Kreuger issues came Important selling had been absorbed for a week, however, so net profit of $12.369, against $1,959 that the selling wave was not as in 1930. heavy as it might have been. fact, financiers in many sections had received the news and the atsence of other repercussions, especially in the Eureopean banking

Several new developments hast-ened the decline in the general market in the late trading, selling at one interval forcing the tape Kodak, sent his stock down 8 points despite the street's knowledge that his interest and activity in the conpany was small.

A weak grain market, presumably on selling inspired by the dry victory in congress, caused a break in various farm stocks and induced professional selling of other leaders by mid-western interests. The market in general, however, was too confused to give a true picture as to what was actually transpiring in By Virtue of the Provisions of ings to Said Defendant, Pearl Irene financial circles and many traders the laws of the United States of Ash: were not entering the market until conditions quiet down.
