And News of The Hoover Dam Project

RECLAMATION ISSUES WARNING TORUM DEALERS AFTER ARREST

A. J. Sanders was arrested at the river camp by reservation officers yesterday on a charge of transporting liquor. His arrest has implicated other dam workers who are being investigated. Sanders was employed as an electrician.

D. Lockheart was also arrested on the reservation by rangers. Both men were taken before Commissioner Folwers and pleaded guilty. Their bonds were set at $350 and $500 respectively.

Four pints of whiskey were found in Sander's car, and the machine was confiscated by the government. Reclamation officials yesterday issued orders that no man found in possession of whiskey will be permitted to work on the reservation during the construction of the project.

SURPRISE PARTY HELD AT BOULDER

Mrs. H. W. Martin was hostess to a surprise birthday party Saturday honoring her daughter Helen on her thirteenth birthday. The evening was spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Loreta Guinn, Wanda Reynolds, Ruth Moss, Wilma Laing, Virginia Julian, Dorothy Shields, Veloree Peltz, Harriet Haas, Doris Doolittle, Mildred Terrill, Cleone Alred and Avelina Smallfield.

L. V. LEGION AND B. C. HOLD MEET

Archie Grant, Dr. J. D. Smith, C. K. Ryser, Henry Dietrich, Don Borax and Leonard Blood, executives of the American Legion post, No. 8, met with the Boulder City post, to discuss plans for the coming state convention to be held in Las Vegas June 9, 10 and 11.

DINNER IS HELD AT YATES HOME

One of the prominent social events marking observance of Palm Sunday was the dinner party given by J. P. Yates.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Wilde, Norman S. Gallison and Lawrence Sowles.

The Price home was prettily decorated with desert flowers which are in profuse bloom at this time of year.

Instead of the usual bridge, several quaint card games were introduced.

STUDENTS VISIT

A large party of students of Stanford university visited Boulder City and the dam project yesterday. The party was under the leadership of Prof. Reynolds.

RECLAMATION ISSUES WARNING TORUM DEALERS AFTER ARREST

A thorough inspection of the dam project was made Friday by a party of 40 members of the San Diego branch of the Associated General Contractors of America.

The city of San Diego is contemplating erecting a large storage reservoir which will be known as the El Capitan dam. The inspection tour of the Hoover dam project was made to gather information to be used in connection with their own contemplated work.

Mrs. R. E. Hawes and daughter, Marjorie, of Edinburg, Wash., arrived in Boulder City to take up their residence. Hawes, who has been working in Boulder City since last fall, will have charge of the new government garage.

SOVIETS SLAY 50 IN CHURCH RAID

LONDON, March 21 (U.P.)—An exchange telegraph dispatch from Bucharest tonight reported that 50 residents of Tasiac in Danester province, were killed when they resisted the attempt of Soviet agents to take possession of the church. The agents fired on the citizens. The dispatch, which was not confirmed, said there were other similar incidents in nearby towns.

DEMANDS QUIZ OF AIR LINE

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 21 (U.P.)—A petition asking investigation of rates charged by the Century Pacific Air Lines, Ltd., and charging the company failed to maintain its equipment properly, awaited action of the state railroad commission today.

The petition, filed by J. S. Skoning, of Oakland, Calif., also charged the Century Pacific with failure to pay pilots "reasonable salaries" with the result they had a "number of incompetent operators."

It also was said the Century Pacific is owned by the Century Air Lines, Ltd., which recently had trouble over a pilots' strike.
