More than a third of the turnover was supplied by three stocks, Kreuger & Toll, United States Steel and American Telephone, all of which experienced sinking spells. Turnover in Kreuger & Toll was particularly heavy, a sale of 23,000 shares taking place at 11k; 82,000 shares at 1; and another of 35,000 shares at 1. The stock ranged between 1 and 14, closing off 4 point

Volume of trading in other sections of the list was too light to give speculators any indication of the immediate trend of the market. Optimism appeared to be increasing, however, traders pointing to another cut in bankers' acceptance rates late in the day as a forerunner of an early reduction in the local bank rate.
