REPORTS CAR STOLEN AND IS NABBED BY BOULDER OFFICERS FOR LIQUOR TRANSPORTATION

Climaxing an attempt to beat the law, B. O. Gardner was arrested Monday on the federal reservation. On March 7, Gardner and two other men, after driving their car, a Chevrolet coupe, at a high rate speed through Boulder City, parked in front of the Six Companies mess hall and made their getaway in the crowd, before a reservation ranger who was following could apprehend them.

Leo Sneed, who was also riding in the back seat of the car, was arrested. He had 2-5 of a five gallon jug of whiskey in his possession which was confiscated together with

After his arrest here Monday, Gardner admitted to Chief of Police Glen E. Bodell that he had driven his car on March 7.

He was arrested on charges of possession and transportation of liquor and was taken to Las Vegas yesterday from where he will be taken to Carson City. He was indicted by the grand jury and his bond was set at $1,500.

IN SMASHUP; IS JAILED BY COPS

Herman Gibbs was arrested Monday evening by U.S. deputy rangers almost immediately after the car which he was driving collided with another automobile in front of the Boulder City auto court. Gibbs showed evidence of being intoxicated, according to police authorities. He is being held at the Boulder City jail.

The complaint charged Elam with allowing minors to remain in a place where intoxicating liquors are sold. Juvenile officers are purported to have visited the resort on Monday afternoon and to have brought several girls into the city for questioning. Traffic Officer James Foxley, who also holds the office of city juvenile officer, stated that "girls under 16 years of age were acting in the capacity of taxi dancers and that They are improving a home on one girl in particular, who is billed as a featured dancer, gives nightly exhibitions of the hula and other obscene and suggestive dances." This girl, according to Foxley, does not appear to be more than 15 years of age.

When interviewed late yesterday afternoon, Sheriff Keate stated that his office had not formed any plans for a concerted drive against re-sorts in and near Las Vegas as he and his men were always on the alert to suppress any club, dance alert to suppress any club, dance hall or gambling resort that contributed to the delinquency of minors.
