The announcement in yesterday's ssue, of the meeting between Jack Johnson (he of the golden rule) and Frank Moran, famous old trial horse (the right hand Mary Ann), will cause old fight fans to become reminiscent.

Moran was always dangerous and was a real championship contender, every time he crawled through the hopes. Johnson was the greatest defensive fighter of all time. His uncanny skill at blocking punches and tying up opponents in clinches, is or was the despair of Coach Clyde Swenesen, swimming director of the Hollywood Athletic club, and at present in charge of the swimming activities of the Los Angeles Athletic club, at Los Angeles, Calif., just returned from a successful invasion of the east where his champion paddlers defeated the fast Yale team, and incidentally annexed the national acquatic honors of the 1932 season.

Many records of long standing were shattered, and in establishing the new record in the 440-yard medley relay, settled for all time the question of the east-west supremacy, as far as swimming is concerned. Inasmuch as most of the records have been indoor (fresh water), we still maintain that, for a straightaway course, Lorenzi's lake park resort, furnished the ideal tryout conditions for the Olympic as-Johnson was not to blame for the pirants.
