By agreement for the first quarter. This upset sale of stock is limited to 160,000 faith in American Can, which was expected to make a similarly poor showing. Can, at the bottom, was the lowest since the bear market

> Other stocks on the board put up a good fight, not against any special selling pressure, because the day was dull, but against an inclination to drift lower in the absence of any demand for stock. hat the fight was successful in many instances was illustrated by he plus signs that lodged behind International Telephone, People, Gas. Eastman Kodak and several others at the close. Others moved irregularly in a narrow groove.

Railroad stocks gave the best account of themselves. A growing belief that the tide is turning for the country's carriers was reflected in good support that brought frac-& Ohio, Southern Pacific, Lehigh New York Central and

The day was not without a display of fireworks, staged by Laclede Gas. This stock made its first appearance on the tape in months and sold at 73, off 87 points from the preceding sale. Early in the day a TRADE-New radio, will trade in bid of 50 and an offer of 125 appeared on the tape for the stock p95 and the spread gradually narrowed until just before the close when the hammer came down on the sale

> Bonds moved generally lower again, although near the close the government group showed signs of rallying. Wheat rebounded more than a cent a bushel from an early drop, while cotton did the reverse losing a gain of 50 cents a bale
