MOAPA VALLEY NEWS NOTES

A beautiful custom for many years in the communities of the Mormon people, has been to set apart a day each year, if not oftener in which to do honor to the old folks of the community.

Pursuant to this custom, the Overton ward recreation committee, headed by Bishop Benj. Robison, Maurice Nuttall and Mrs. Carrie Anderson, have planned an excursion on Saturday to the Hoover Dam site and Boulder City in which all citizens of the valley over sixty years of age are special guests of the committee, with a general invitation to all who wish to join in taking the trip at their own expense, to Perkins and Mrs. Sophie Cooper, do so to assist in making a pleasant day for those older folk who Edw. H. Syphus of St. Thomas, a veteran of early pioneer days in the valley. Bishop and Mrs. Robert Wells headed a large group from Logandale, while Bishop Benjamin Robison and Councilor Richard Cooper led the Overton delegation.

In all the old folk were given a splendid outing, albeit a rather strenuous one. Among the party of about ninety people were Mrs. Sarah Perkins and Mrs. Sophie Cooper, each eighty-two years of age, Mr. Edw. H. Syphus of St. Thomas, a veteran of early pioneer days in the valley. Bishop and Mrs. Robert Wells headed a large group from Logandale, while Bishop Benjamin Robison and Councilor Richard Cooper led the Overton delegation.

Bishop William Wittwer and Grant Hardy of Bunkerville were the speakers in church yesterday. Leo Hardy lost two of his dairy cows last Sunday.

Alfred Hardy has held two dances in his open-air dance hall. An orchestra from St. George furnished the music.

The school girls who went to Reno with Miss Zollinger, tied for first place with Sparks, Nevada. Miss Della Levitt took third place in her demonstration and third place with the dress she had made. Miss Mable McKnight took first place in relative art. She won as her prize six beautiful goblets. Miss Wittwer from Bunkerville also won a prize.
