

LEONARD WINS TOURIST CROP GARAFOLA GO HELD BEST BET

NEW YORK, May 2. (AP)—Benny Leonard, former lightweight champion, advanced another step in his comeback campaign tonight when he stopped Willie Garafola, rugged Brooklyn welterweight, in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

Short right jolts to the jaw floored Garafola three times in the fourth round for counts of seven, six and eight, and he was staggering about the ring when Referee Jed Gehan halted the bout.

Leonard weighed 152½; Garafola, 147.

In the semi-final, Morrie Sherman, 151, Detroit, took a 10-round decision over Charley Johnson, 154, New York.

Freddie Miller, 127½, Cincinnati, defeated Ray Myers, 141, New York (10); Charley Miller, 143½, Brooklyn, defeated Raymond Bates, 147½, Porto Rico (5); Frankie Covelli, 125½, Brooklyn, defeated Joe Doherty, 128½, New York (5).

In a brief but interesting talk to the Lions club at the weekly luncheon at the Apache hotel yesterday, H. M. Wood, representative of the western division of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, stressed the fact that the greatest crop that Las Vegas has to develop is the tourist crop.

Wood pointed out the advantages to be derived from concerted efforts by the local Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations in telling the world that Las Vegas, with Boulder City and Hoover dam, has more to offer the tourist than any other locality in the United States.

Wood warned his audience not to procrastinate. He said the time to cash in is right now and not after Los Angeles has added Hoover dam to the countless attractions to be seen and reached out of California's leading metropolis. Not wanting to let this statement sound ridiculous to those who might think that Hoover dam is too far removed from Los Angeles for that city to attract the tourists there first, before they visit the dam, the speaker called attention to the fact that the Los Angeles chamber of commerce advertised the Multnomah dam in Oregon as being easily accessible by beautiful paved scenic highways.

Wood concluded his talk by saying that Las Vegas has the biggest asset in America from the standpoint of general interest to tourists. Develop that tourist crop, he said, it's the biggest one you've got.

HARRIS OLDSTERS HURL CHALLENGE

THE Las Vegas Merchants baseball nine have been challenged by the old time ball players of Art Harris to a contest Sunday afternoon, May 15.

This clash should draw a good crowd as a snappy brand of ball is played by Harris' team and the Vegas Merchants aggregation is just about on a par with the best teams in Clark county.

While the batteries for the proposed game have not been announced as yet, the contest might evolve into a pitchers' battle as both outfits possess some excellent twirling talent.

VISITS FATHER
Jack Evanston is leaving today for Sacramento, where he will visit his wife, who has been with her father.

Stars gave the Colored Giants a trouncing Sunday afternoon to the tune of 5-3.

Sixteen Giants walked to the plate, only to walk back to the bench after facing the slashing curves and drops of Smith. He shattered this season's record for strikeouts in Las Vegas, when he fanned the 16 batters.

Numerous spectacular catches and three double plays featured the game. A large crowd of spectators were on hand and voted the contest the best seen on a local diamond this year.

CURVES, PLENTY OF 'EM, TO BE AT STAG PARTY

While the Hula-Hula girls that will grace the festivities at the Elks' stag party Saturday night may not be the real Hawaiian McCoy, they will be just as good as the dusky maidens from the tropics, according to the high pressure publicity man of the lodge.

When the Hawaiian orchestra brought here from Los Angeles for the party, swings into "Wiki Wacki Woo," "Don't Sing Aloha Though I Go" and "Mauihal Maui," there will be more curves in evidence than is ordinarily seen in an entire major league baseball season.

Be it known here and now that this stag party is not wholly for Elk members; every man in Las Vegas and surrounding territory is invited whether he be an Elk, or what have you.

Watch the columns of The Age tomorrow for further details of this gala fete to be staged at the Elks hall Saturday night.

SENIORS 'DITCH' CLASSES FOR DAY

Some 70 members of the senior class of Las Vegas high school went A. W. O. L. yesterday and enjoyed an outing at the old Stone Quarry, in their annual celebration of senior ditch day.

The students left early in the morning before the other classes were out of bed and spent the entire day in the mountains.

The group was chaperoned by Douglas Dashiell, Elbert Edwards, Eva Adams and Freda Humphrey.

SHOPLIFTER IS FINED BY MORSE

Mattie Sartin, alleged shoplifter was fined $20 when she appeared before Judge W. G. Morse yesterday morning to answer to a charge of theft of merchandise from the J. C. Penney store on Fremont street.

The assistant manager of the store signed the complaint, alleging that the defendant purloined several articles of lingerie and a woman's handbag.

Henry Oatman, who has been seriously ill.

TO LIVE HERE
Dr. Wayne Hughes and wife, of Idaho Falls, arrived in Las Vegas last Sunday to make their new home. Dr. Hughes is a retired surgeon.

Victor's Spoils

Midget Al Wolgast of Philadelphia, pint-sized claimant to the world's lightweight championship, as he returned from Hawaii aboard the Matsonia after winning four fights in Honolulu. His toughest opponent was Young Pancho, brother of the late Pancho Villa, famous Filipino fighter. Young Pancho lost the first bout and took a questionable draw in the second with Wolgast, both before crowded houses.

TOSSES ROCK AT MOTORIST

G. O. Fulton, 28, hailing from Oklahoma, was arrested at 11 p. m. last night on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, at the complaint of W. W. Beyer of the Overland hotel.

Beyer alleges he was driving down the street and Fulton stepped into the path of his automobile, forcing him to slam on the brakes to avoid hitting the man. The narrow escape infuriated the prisoner and he allegedly threw a rock through the windshield of the Ford sedan the complainant was driving. The arrest was made by Sergeant Jones.

Into the teeth of a Hurricane

A VIOLENT atmospheric disturbance hovered off the coast of a seaboard state, threatening to strike with terrific fury. Government observers were able to indicate the approximate section likely to be affected, and into this dangerous zone, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS reporters went by plane and express trains.

When the storm broke, they were on hand to report the news. The outside world was not subjected to agonizing delays, while unverified rumors were rife. Quickly and accurately came the vital information to the millions of readers of member newspapers. Preparations necessary to cope with major emergencies are part of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS service for newspaper readers—so they may have the facts of all news events.

DO YOU INHALE?

Why is this vital question so much avoided by other cigarettes?

EVER since Lucky Strike created that special process for purifying fine tobacco and told the full facts about cigarette smoking—the industry has been in an uproar. For Lucky Strike has dared to mention things that were considered "taboo" in the cigarette trade.

You may have noticed a striking avoidance generally of the word "inhale" in cigarette advertising. Why? Goodness only knows! For everybody inhales—knowingly or unknowingly! Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

That's why it's all-important to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure you don't inhale certain impurities.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question—for it gives you the protection you want... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!
