CONGRESSMAN Samuel S. Arentz

has succeeded in getting his Hoover dam reservation bill reported promptly by the committee. Although the time is short, there is a possibility that the bill may become a law before the adjournment of congress.

NEW VIGOR

PRESIDENT HOOVER produced a manifestation of new vigor in congress by his appeal to the country.

Public sentiment is very much aroused by the delay of congress in passing the remedial legislation which the leaders of both parties acknowledge necessary to the safety of the country.

The President has presented his suggestions and supported them by sound reasoning. To a considerable extent political partisanship has been lost sight of by the patriotic members of both parties in the effort to give the country some relief.

In several instances the policies have been agreed upon after conferences between the President and the leaders of both parties.

Unfortunately there are a few who thrive on partisanship to such an extent that they are perfectly willing to allow the people to continue to suffer the terrible uncertainty for the sake of a little cheap political controversy. It is this element which has been doing the damage and at which the President was pointing when he issued his emphatic appeal the other day.

POPPY DAY

POPPIES will be sold on the streets today by the women of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The funds secured will be used to alleviate the distress of veterans from Nevada who are inmates of the California hospitals. Let's show our appreciation by wearing a poppy today. And buy, not one, but a bouquet of them from every seller.

ABOUT THE JAIL

THERE have been a few—a very few—who think Clark county does not need a new jail. There are a few more who think we can't afford to build it.

The jail break of Sunday evening brings the matter again before our minds. It discloses nothing new, but recalls some of the things we have all along known.

The most important of these is the fact that our old jail is utterly antiquated and unfit for use. It has been examined by intelligent people various times and always condemned as unsanitary, inhuman and unsafe. Not only is it a menace to those unfortunates confined within its walls, but it is a menace to the health of all the people of the city.

Especially is this true when two or three times as many prisoners are crowded in as there are accommodations for.

The economy which tries to save by not providing the essentials is generally poor economy. It has been our belief that the court house-jail addition should have been started months ago.

It is fortunate that no lives have been lost—thus far—in the jail delivery of Sunday night. The mere fact that prisoners escape and that it costs the county money to recapture them is bad enough. Let's hope that no lives will be sacrificed.

ARENTZ BILL ON CALENDAR

in a few days to see if we cannot agree upon legislation.

"I am afraid that at this late hour in the session it would be very improbable that we could get legislation through congress over the opposition of the Interior department. Our calendar is congested with important legislation, and congress is under the most terrific strain that it has ever endured, not excepting the war period.

LATE HOUR

The congress seems determined to adjourn early to the conventions. If this becomes an accomplished fact, it is possible that we will pass no legislation except revenue and financial acts and appropriation bills. I will, of course, oppose any adjournments in such conditions. I would probably favor a recess until after the conventions. Such a recess might tend to restore the physical and mental vigor of congressmen and permit them to take a clearer view of the complex problems that are pending.

OPPOSITION

"Even should we be successful in passing legislation relative to the federal reservation over the opposition of the Interior department, I am convinced that the President, by reason of such opposition, would veto the act. It is evident that in such a case we would not have the necessary two-thirds to pass the act over his veto.

"I would seem essential, therefore, to the obtaining of relief at this session of congress that we obtain some agreement with the Interior department. I intend to make an intense effort along this line without delay.

"I am also working actively with Doctor Mead in an effort to have included in the forthcoming deficiency bill an additional appropriation of $11,000,000 for the Boulder Dam project. At my suggestion he is now preparing a very strong emphatic statement embodied in a letter to the Chairman of the Appropriations committee of the House of representatives setting forth the exact situation and the great loss that the government will suffer if this appropriation is not made.

CONTRACTORS REPORT

"Former statements by the Secretary of the Interior were, unfortunately, based almost entirely upon the estimates and reports of the Six Companies. Congress has not much interest in contractors and does not attribute full force and effect to the statements they may make. The statement, to have effect, must be based upon facts and conclusions of the Interior department.

"If we can obtain this cooperation, and I am sure we will obtain it, then the question of a shutdown or great reduction of employment within the Boulder Dam project will be avoided. All I want you to know is that I won't let up.

"Sincerely,
KEY PITTMAN.

MANHATTAN MIRRORS

By United Press
NEW YORK, May 9. (U.P.)—Fifty plays were produced in New York from December 5, 1931, to April 1 of this year. Of that number only four were "in the main free from objectionable material" in the opinion of the Catholic theater movement, an organization designed to protect the playgoers' sensibilities.

A lot of work for Jimmy Walker's hack inspector. That is, there would be a lot of work for his inspector if the above notice hadn't been printed just a hundred years ago today.

Amendments to the sanitary code for Manhattan were presented today, to eradicate a lot of decibels. Decibels, by way of explanation, are noise units, and anything from a locomotive to an opera singer can be reduced to decibels if you know how.

There are 18 provisions to the new anti-noise code. They provide for mufflers on air compressors and riveting machines, which will take a lot of joy out of the steel worker's daily fun. Whistles and horns run on the exhaust will be taboo. Rattling flippers must cease their cacophony, and the voice of the fish peddler must not be raised in the land after 6 p. m., except on Saturday nights when he may yodel until 10:30.

COAST COUPLE BATES RITES ARE WED HERE, TODAY AT 10

Geraldine Clark of Santa Monica, Calif., became the bride of Leslie Dethick Ingleheart of Los Angeles at a ceremony performed Sunday evening in the Apache hotel, prior to the formal opening of the new "Indian room."

The bride was attended by her sister, Valerie Clark, and Mrs. Don Gunnison. Mr. Gunnison acted as best man. Reverend C. S. Reynolds performed the ceremony.

The former Miss Clark comes originally from Sta. Lake City, although she has made her home in the coast city for several years. Her husband recently was graduated from the University of Southern California. He is a member of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity and is a native of Evansville, Ind.

Members of the wedding party left the Apache yesterday for Beverly Hills, where the newly married couple will make their home, after a honeymoon trip around the world.

NEW DRUG STORE OPENS IN APACHE BUILDING TODAY

Opening today, the new Apache drug store in Hotel Apache building will be ready for business this morning, according to Frank Crookston, manager. The store, equipped with some of the most attractive and modern fixtures in the city, carries a wide line of nationally advertised cosmetics and toilet articles, and is featuring prescription and soft drink services.

Crookston, formerly connected with Ferron drug stores, has been engaged in the drug store business in this city for the past eight years. Associated with him in the new enterprise are Sam and Joe Vecchi.

Marda Ebbie, esthetician, will supervise the cosmetic and perfume sections of the new store. Her experience and training in this line will be available for patrons of the establishment. It is announced.

LIONS ROAR AT MEMBERSHIP TILT

The Lions roared as they never did before at their regular meeting held in the new Indian village at the hotel Apache Monday noon.

Only with extreme difficulty did President Meyers maintain order while an announcement was made crediting Lion Roger Foley's team with victor over Lion Harmon's team in an attendance contest for the past month.

Protests made by Lion Harmon in behalf of his team, on the grounds that errors had been made in the compilation of attendance credits due his team were futile, whereupon he acknowledged defeat and assured the club that his team would entertain the winners at dinner next Monday.

Justice of the Peace Frank M. Ryan, Harrison Stocks, Dr. Wyatt and Chester Gilbert were guests of the club.

William A. Brown, Apache hotel manager, was accepted for membership in the club. The names of Harrison Stocks and Chester Gilbert were presented for membership and referred to the membership committee.

MISS MORRISON ILL
Miss Martha Morrison, popular cashier of El Portal theater, is ill. She will be confined to her home for some time, according to her physician.
