AMERICAN SCENES MAY MOULD DANCE ART FOR MARY WIGMAN

Mary Wigman, whose first tour of America gave inspiration for a new dance cycle, may find her new dances influenced by the vivid impressions she received from the

BY JANE EADS

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Wigman's impression of America's vast west may find interpretation in some of her new dances.

So, at least, think associates of this German artist, who has returned to her country after a 17,000-mile tour, her second one.

On her first visit to the United States she was enthralled by the stark, elemental quality of Niagara Falls—and the new cycle of dances she created after her return to Germany showed an emotional reaction to this spectacle.

So now there is the possibility that the desert will prove a new inspiration to her.

"My impression of the desert was different from all others I have felt in my life," she said.

"A crazy sentence kept running through my head—like this, that I was nearer to the hour of birth of the whole world—you understand, I can't explain.

"It was always land without end, and light seemed to be the architect."

FEATURES TO BE SHOWN AT BALL

The senior ball, to be held in the high school gym tonight, will include many features besides the dancing and music of Al Johnson's Green Jackets, popular Las Vegas orchestra. It was revealed yesterday.

Several vocal selections and dance numbers will be presented, along with the grand march in which 72 seniors will make their first appearance as a group. Several other features will be presented for the public.

An impression, likewise lasting she carried back home this time in remembering the little automobiles she had seen all over the country.

Mrs. Wigman said she would like to take one of them and drive right up to the door of her family's home in Dresden.

MEN NAMED BY CURTIS REAL OFFICERS STATE

These men were named by Curtis in statements before his "confession" as among his "contacts" in his pretended efforts to rescue the Lindbergh baby. They are Sam Goldberg, Murray Torresdale and Sam Torresdale. Though in Curtis' statements as issued by New Jersey police they seem to be one man, they are separate individuals, and had been mentioned as among those with whom he was dealing.

'MET GANGSTERS' LONDON, May 19. (AP)—A letter in which Dean H. Dobson-Penock of Norfolk declared he had "met the gangsters" and would soon recover the kidnaped son of Col. Charles A.

7 BABY ELKS ON GOAT RIDE

Seven baby Elks were initiated into the antlered herd last night when the members of the fraternal organization held their regular weekly meeting. The following men rode the "goat" and are now full fledged Elks: Carl E. Girard, Dr. F. R. Mildren, Elmer King, E. N. Peterson, C. C. Hinchberger, William J. Doyle, and William Langford of Boulder City.

PAULINE SMITH IN LEGION RACE; HAS GOOD START

Ruth Perryman, closely followed by Rose Marie, is in the lead in the race for the honor of being named the queen of the American Legion convention. The winner will be enthroned on the night of June 10, when the delegates hold their dinner-dance at Lorenzi's Lake Park pavilion.

The standing of the entries yesterday was: Ruth Perryman, 12,500; Rose Marie, 11,500; Margaret Stewart, 9,000; Dixie Landis, 8,200, and Pauline Smith, 6,700 votes. Miss Smith, daughter of Jimmy Smith, proprietor of the Apache Drug store, is the latest contestant to be named. She got away to a flying start, however, and she is only 4,300 votes behind the leader, who has had a two to three weeks' start.

If J. H. Ladd will call at The Age office, he will receive a free ticket, good for today only at the Airdome theater.

WHEN THE 'BULL THROWER' GETS 'THROWED'

THE BULL FIGHTER MUST KEEP AN EYE ON HIS BUSINESS

Of all businesses . . . that of fighting bulls probably demands the closest concentration . . . the most rapt attention to the work at hand. If the bullfighter doesn't keep an eye on his business he may get gored in the arena . . . or something.

The business man is in exactly the same position. Old Man Competition is liable to gore him . . . unless he keeps a close eye on his business.

Any business man who has his eye on his business . . . also has an eye on his advertising . . . and any man who has his eye on his advertising has his eye on THE AGE.

It would take a pretty blind bullfighter or business man not to see the rapid growth of The Age in the past year . . . in news, advertising . . . and a tremendous stride in circulation.
