-SPORTS-

ROTH, WRIGHT FIGHT TO DRAW
Johnny Roth and Eddie Wright fought an eight round draw in the main event of the fight card decided last night in the Legion arena. Roth was out of form and Wright fought a clumsy, inexperienced fight.

SUNDAY GAME GRUDGE TILT
A baseball "Grudge Battle" will be staged Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the afternoon when the Las Vegas "All Stars," take the field against Art Harris "Old timers," in what promises to be one of the most exciting ball games in Vegas for many months.

All five of the fights ended in draws. Two 12-year-old youngsters put up the best exhibition of gamesmanship displayed during the evening. "Mugs" Maloney, 99 pounds, fought a four round draw with Charles Day, 98 pounds, and the kids got quite a hand from the crowd.

At least eight of the old-timers were stars in this area way back in '26 and '27, when Las Vegas was just another spot on the map. They include Hall, L. Payne, Davton, John Kramer, Bill Thurmond, L. Ronnow, Hernandez and Bishop. They claim they are just as good as they were years ago, and if this is correct, this should be a whale of a game as the "All Stars" are no slouches.
