RISE IN RIVER IS EXPECTED

Reports from the Bright Angel gauging station in the Grand Canyon show a rise in the Colorado river of approximately 9,400 cubic feet per second over yesterday's fig-second feet, which is a high for plaintiff. Ordered that attachment street, the season. The river at Black heretofore levied be dissolved. canyon has receded considerably Angelos. Harley A. Harmon, attorpected to rise again tomorrow when ney for plaintiff. Decree of divorce the upstream crest is due to arrive, entered. The period from now until July 1. Gertrude Lipps vs. Henry J. Lipps. Overton after spending several days according to hydrographic records of the river's flow, is apt to show the plaintiff. Decree of divorce granted, and sons peak of this season's run-off.

The maximum flood reached will depend entirely on the weather during this time. Should continued weather prevail for several weeks, it is possible that a maximum flood of around 175,000 second feet may occur, similar to 1921, which bears a marked resemblance to this season's performance of the river.

MISS MARTIN TO ILLUSTRATE USE OF FLAMO HERE

Elner Martin, home economics expert, who is making a tour of the southwest, under the auspices of the Standard Oil company, will give a demonstration of baking and cooking with modern gas appliances this evening at 7 o'clock in the salesroom rented for the display of flamo, and gas appliances, at 123 South Main street

The Standard Oil company has throughout California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Utah and Arizona, to acquaint the women with the latest methods of the preparation

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Martin will give a demonstration of the ease with which a whole meal, oven cooked, can be prepared with flamo, a bottled gas product of Standard Oil, Inc., used in a Sparks range. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The demonstrator has just completed a tour of Arizona and will go to southern California from Las Vegas to continue her work. Miss Martin is a graduate of the Iowa State college, Ames, Iowa, where she majored in home economics.

DOUBLE BILL ON PALACE PROGRAM

"It's Tough to Be Famous." the First National picture starring Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., opens at the Palace theater with a notable cast of talented players. "It's Tough to Be Famous" numbers such established and wellknown performers as Mary Brian, Walter Catlett, Oscar Apfel, Emma Dunn, David Landau, and Lil. an Bond in support of young Fairbanks. Manager Art Brick of the Palace states that the work of 'he cast is uniformly excellent, with Doug, Jr., carrying top honors in a characterization entirely new to the

The story, from an original by Mary McCall, Jr., who also assisted in the adaptation and dialoguing for the screen, concerns a young naval officer lifted from obscurity to the glaring limelight of public favor as the result of an unusual act of heroism performed in the line of duty.

The heroism of those hardy men who go down into the depths of the seas in submarines has been stressed in the B.I.P. production, "Trapped in a Submarine," which will open at the Palace theater today.
