

SEABURY PUTS JIM ON GRILL

fair by questioning the mayor, hitherto bland and even friendly in his responses, about the missing Shermans, now "a fugitive from justice" because he fled the jurisdiction of the corruption-hunters.

SAW IT IN PAPERS

"When did you hear for the first time that he had fled the jurisdiction of the committee?" he asked.

"I heard about his absence after I returned from Europe," the mayor said.

And when you returned, you knew that this committee was desirous of having him appear as a witness?

"Yes, sir, I read it in the newspapers."

But it appears that the mayor had no success in learning the whereabouts of his financial handyman—the man who, testimony showed, brought him checks to sign, received money in his name, deposited credits to his account, and in many ways made himself useful as an "accountant."

MAJ. HOWARD TO COMMAND CAMP AT UTAH FORT

Major L. J. Howard, army reserve officer of Las Vegas, will be in command of the C. M. T. C. camp at Fort Douglas, Utah, during July, according to word received yesterday from army headquarters at Salt Lake City, 300 youths from Nevada, Utah and Wyoming will make up the C. M. T. battalion. Eleven reserve officers will assist.

Captain D. L. Harford was notified of his assignment on the staff of the 104th "Frontier" division, and advised of his selection as an instructor of the division's staff at the camp to be held at Fort Douglas July 13-16, inclusive. Seven other reserve officers from this district are expected to attend the camp.

HARRY ANDERSON TO SEE EXERCISES

Harold S. Anderson left Boulder City last night for Los Angeles, to be gone several days. Anderson plans to attend his son's graduation from high school in Burlingame and then go to Salt Lake City, where he will be married to Miss Betty Lee on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will attend the Republican national convention in Chicago on their honeymoon, Anderson being a delegate from Clark county.

Anderson's tennis will undoubtedly suffer during his absence, his colleagues claim. He was badly defeated in the finals of a recent tournament in Boulder City by N. S. Gallison, but said on leaving that he would be back in the running again on his return, and attempt to regain his lost laurels at the net game.

Lewis Crampton left last night for Los Angeles; the rest of his party motored to Zion National park.

If Flora Jones will call at The Age office, she will receive a free ticket, good for today only at the Airdome theater.

DESERT GLASS IN JEWELRY PIECES

Featuring costume jewelry made from ancient glass picked up from the burning sands of the desert adjacent to the ghost towns of the gold decade, the M. W. Davis Jewelry store on Fremont street has one of the most unique window displays seen in this city for several months.

Bar pins, rings, necklaces and earrings are all mounted with stones cut from the tinted glass of old whiskey bottles, flasks, vinegar bottles, and lantern globes. They come in many other colors besides the well known "amethyst" lavender, amber, green, blue and crystal set off by pure silver mountings, the green and amethyst colored bangles make particularly striking pieces of costume jewelry.

The window display, cleverly arranged, depicts a miniature desert with an abundance of sand, rocks, broken bottles and the legendary skull of some luckless cow that died on the desert.

Among the flyers competing for prizes in the heavier-than-air events are Jimmy Doolittle, Russell Boardman, who with John Polando flew from New York to Turkey; Jimmy Wedell, New Orleans, who finished second in the Thompson trophy race last year; and Earl Ortman, 20, San Francisco, whose special all-metal racer is the flashiest craft in the meet.

right to the head, and pursued the advantage by making Mickey dizzy with rights to the chin. So dizzy was Walker that he socked Paulino full in the face after the bell.

Walker did not seem to be 27 pounds lighter than Paulino, but the official weights were Paulino 197, and Walker 170.
