

BOSTON BRAVES RISE TO FIRST PLACE IN NATIONAL; SENATORS IN 11TH STREAK DOWN CHI SOX

NEW YORK, June 7. (AP)—The Boston Braves rose to first place in the National league today, featuring a six-team shift in the circuit's rankings.

Chicago's Cubs surrendered their leadership to the Braves by losing to the Brooklyn Dodgers, thereby boosting the Dodgers to fifth place.

A six-run rally in the seventh inning clinched the game for Brooklyn. Lon Warneke held the Flatbushers scoreless until this rally, when the Dodgers paraded on four hits, a pass and two errors. Warneke and May yielded ten hits to Brooklyn, while Vance and Quinn allowed only seven to the Cubs.

A home run by Mel Ott in the ninth inning—his second of the day—gave the New York Giants a 4 to 3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. This boosted the Giants out of the cellar again and dropped the Reds to sixth place. Ott's first homer came in the sixth inning with Terry on base, to tie the score.

Ernie Lombardi homered in the second with one on for Cincinnati, and his teammate Grantham duplicated the feat in the fourth.

The Philadelphia Phillies tumbled into the cellar when they lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7 to 4. Pitcher French yielded 11 hits to the Phillies, while the Pirates pounded Hansen and Dudley for 17.

St. Louis at Boston was washed out.

Cleveland nosed Philadelphia out of fourth place in the American league by beating the Athletics, 4 to 3. Al Simmons drove out two home runs for the A's to bring his total to 12.

Wes Ferrell allowed Philadelphia 12 hits, but kept them discreetly scattered. Mahaffey and Walberg allowed only ten safeties to the Indians.

The Washington Senators scored four runs in the eleventh inning to beat Chicago's White Sox, 8 to 5. The Senators outbit the Cubs, 16 to 3, but were unable to launch their singles effectively until the eleventh inning. Marberry and Crowder pitched for Washington, and Caraway and Frasier did mound duty for Chicago.

Boston's Red Sox lost their thirty-seventh game in 46 starts as the St. Louis Browns overwhelmed them, 6 to 1. Goose Goslin homered for the Browns in the second frame. Webb's double in the sixth inning drove in the only Boston run.

Aided by six errors, the New York Yankees crushed the Detroit Tigers, 9 to 2. The Yanks tallied four runs in the second inning and three in the third to give them a big lead. Ruffing allowed Detroit eight hits, and the Yanks reached Bridges and Wyatt for nine.

6 YANKS QUALIFY FOR BRITISH TILT

SANDWICH, England, June 7. (AP)—Three of America's standard professionals, and three of its lesser golfing luminaries, qualified today for the British open golf championship.

The stars who passed the two-round tests were Tommy Armour of Detroit, and Gene Sarazen and MacDonald Smith of New York. The others were Walter Pursey, Seattle, Wash., professional, and the amateurs, Robert Sweeney of New York and Douglas Grant of California.

Armour and Smith, with aggregates of 146, were in a four-way tie for fourth place in the qualifying round standings. Sarazen was a couple of notches back with 149. Sweeney and Pursey had 153, and Grant, 152.

But these players and others who qualified might just as well have had 157, which proved to be the limit, for all scores made yesterday and today count for nothing in the final reckoning.

Ernie Lombardi homered in the second with one on for Cincinnati, and his teammate Grantham duplicated the feat in the fourth.

The Philadelphia Phillies tumbled into the cellar when they lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7 to 4. Pitcher French yielded 11 hits to the Phillies, while the Pirates pounded Hansen and Dudley for 17.

MUSEUM JUNK IN RENO CLASH

CARSON CITY, June 6.—T. C. Wohlbruck, native son of Reno, and now a resident of Redwood City, Calif., told Gov. Fred E. Balzar in a letter today that he plans to enter 75 automobiles in the race from San Francisco to Reno early in July.

The race will be staged by the Gold Rush association, of which Governor Balzar is executive chairman, as a preliminary to the celebration of the 83rd anniversary of the discovery of gold in Nevada. The event is planned for July 22, 23 and 24.

Among the cars Wohlbruck plans to enter are the following:

A 1913 Mercedes owned by the Crown Prince of Germany and used by him back of the western front during the World war. It is powered by an airplane motor.

An 1898 model Knox, powered with a porcupine motor, said to be similar in shape to its animal namesake.

A 1901 model Columbia electric.

A 1903 Sunset (2 cylinders), said to be the first auto ever built in California.

A 1901 Babecock. Babecock quit making autos to make ambulances for the World war.

A 1905 International, 1907 Studebaker (with original paint), 1908 Saxon, 1912 Stanley, 1913 Metz, and 1913 American.

In addition to these and many other gas buggies, Wohlbruck plans to enter a number of steam-powered cars. He feels, however, that due to their superior speed they should be run in a separate section of the race.

The race to Reno will be held prior to the three-day celebration being arranged to entertain San Francisco bound Shriners, west bound Olympic game fans and others in Reno during the latter days of July.

CHICAGO STORE IS ONE OF OLDEST L. V. BUILDINGS

W. L. Aplin, owner of the building on Second street which was partly destroyed by fire the other evening, wishes to express through The Age his thanks and appreciation of the services of the Las Vegas Volunteer Fire department.

Without the prompt action of the department nothing would have been left of the buildings in which the fire originated and the destruction would have been very serious.

The Aplin building, which was damaged by the fire, was one of the oldest buildings in the city, having been used for the company store on the railroad right of way near where the passenger station now is during the latter part of 1904 and the early months of 1905.

After the lot sale, half of the original building was moved to part of the lot now occupied by the John F. Miller hotel property and the other half to the lot now occupied by the old Majestic theater.

DAPPER DAN HOWLEY DENIES CINNCI REDS SURPRISE NINE; 'JUST TOP NOTCHERS' SEZ HE

NEW YORK, June 7. (AP)—Dapper Dan Howley, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, leaned his sartorially correct figure against a locker in the Polo Grounds dressing room today and laughed down the season's greatest illusion—that the "Reds are the surprise" club of the National league.

The reporter was deeply mortified when Cincinnati's first citizen filled the room with laughter in response to a question about the "surprise" situation.

"I hope you'll pardon my outburst," said the tall manager, placing a brown hand apologetically upon the writer's shoulder.

"But really, it tickles me when anyone refers to us as a surprise outfit."

It must have tickled the entire squad, judging from the cackles coming from the disrobing figures in various parts of the room.

"But, Mr. Howley," defended the flushing reporter, "everybody refers to the Reds as the surprise club of the league."

"Well, young man," responded Howley, readjusting his Panama hat. "You just tell everybody for me that we're no surprise outfit—just the best club in the league."

"I don't see anything startling about a top-notch club winning a few games." In fact the only thing that amazes me is that we're not way up near the top of the league."

Howley explained that his club had gone into a slump during the past five days, partially due to the illness of Chief Hefey and Pitcher St. Johnson, and because Babe Herman was not in his usual hitting form.

But, he said, with the return of Harvey Hendrick from St. Louis to the Reds' first base, he expected the club to be bolstered somewhat even though Hefey and Johnson might be out of the game for a couple of weeks.

"Outside of this temporary bad break," Howley continued, "we've got everything it takes to make a good team. Good pitchers: Red Lucas, Johnson, Owen Carroll and Ray Folk. There's four I can rotate with success. And Benny Frey may prove a big timer as the season goes along."

"We've got the hitters: Babe Hermann, Tony Lombardi, Chick Hefey, Grantham and now Hendrick. The boys are doing fine in the field."

"Why is anyone surprised when a team like that wins games?"

Dapper Dan said the National league pennant race was the tightest in the history of the circuit. He would not predict that the Reds would finish first, but said they would be well up in first division.

He believed Bill Terry might boost the New York Giants out of the doldrums, although he regarded the retired manager, John J. McGraw, as the greatest pilot in the history of baseball and the greatest drawing card.

"Well, I'll put on my uniform now," he concluded, "and go out to wish Terry success—maybe."

JOCKEY INJURED IN TRACK FALL

CHICAGO, June 7. (AP)—Jockey Wayne Wright, leading apprentice rider at Washington park, was seriously injured today at the Homewood, Ill., course when his mount, Zida, stumbled in the sixth race and tossed him to the ground. Two other horses jumped over him. He later crawled into the infield, where he fainted. He was taken to the emergency hospital where it was reported he was hurt internally.

If R. N. Daniels will call at The Age office, he will receive a free ticket, good for today only at the Airdome theater.
