WILL RETURN D. B. UPSTILL

Blaming his actions on domestic difficulties in Los Angeles, Dudley B. Upstill appeared before an insanity hearing before Judge William E. Orr yesterday, and was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff until such time as he can be taken back to Los Angeles, under police escort and turned over to the proper California authorities.

Upstill was apprehended here by Chief of Police Clay Williams several days ago, and an investigation started which revealed that he had previously been confined in Los Angeles sanitariums.

The man was formerly an engineer connected with the Los Angeles surveying department, and has an excellent background, according to communications received here from former business associates.

After hearing the testimony of Chief Williams and Sergeant Condo, Judge Orr retired to his chambers with Drs. Midrum and Van Meter. As a result of their conference, Judge Orr ruled that the man be taken back to Los Angeles.
