

THE PASSING SHOW

SCREEN LIFE

HALE HAMILTON

est in Arliss' "The Man Who Played God" is busy doing the same thing now in "The Dark Horse" with Warren William. In between these she was in "So Big" and "The Rich Are Always With Us."

"And my next engagement," she said, "will be with the ocean. I want just one day off to go swimming."

Hale Hamilton is a native of Fort Madison, Iowa, and obtained his schooling at the Shattuck Military school and the University of Kansas. For twenty-four years he has been a leading actor on the American stage, for the past decade alternating between stage and screen. His recent screen roles have been in "Good Intentions," "Common Clay," "Listen Lady" and "Murder at Midnight." He is married to Grace La Rue, noted musical comedy star.

PUGILISTIC SERIOUSNESS

A certain former flyweight fighter, who will have to be just Joe to you, had a great idea.

He was hired to be one of James Cagney's opponents in a fight picture and he trained as thoroughly for the cinematic scrap as he used to for real ones.

Joe's plot somehow became back and he believed that if he actually knocked Cagney out, he'd be able to trade on the publicity. "You know, of course, movie fighters are never forcibly floored, they just fall down."

Joe's plot somehow, became

RETURNS TO COAST
Gordon Potter left last night for his home in Pasadena, Calif., after spending the past four days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Ayers, and his sister, Mrs. Marie Fane, of this city. Mrs. Laura Jensen, also of Pasadena, is visiting with her sisters, Mrs. B. J. Ayers and Mrs. Duff, of this city.

known to Cagney. And Jimmy, instead of sparring, peppered Joe with real blows—blows that made Joe change his mind about a knock out.

Rough Sailor Shows Saucier Tilt

Shallow Crown Furthers New Mode With Parchment-Like Fabric

The traditional sailer conforms to this year's mode by adopting a shallow crown and tilting more subtly. Here Karen Morley shows both sides of the hat question—with a navy blue model fashioned from a parchment-like fabric of rough paper. A polka dot drupe and a bow of blue and white add a smart touch, heightened by a "cat's whiskers" scarf of similar pattern.

PEGGY GOES A SHOPPING

At Bracken Apparel shop this ensuing week you can make your choice of any of a smart set of berets, the latest and smartest in new style and color. And too, you shouldn't overlook the new handbags, just in—surely you will want one to match that chic beret. May we mention too the smart, two-piece sport set, complete with panties and bandeau basine.

The offering at Fauny's Dress shop is the very latest in evening modes—especially fitting for any wardrobe is a model of taffeta blue and yellow flowers on a pink coloring. Of course a low neck with cape sleeves and a large orchid bow on the side waistline. The skirt is fashioned of two ruffles both trimmed with a width of pink net. There is no limit to the shades and different models of this new shipment, and these creations are extremely reasonable.

If you care looking for any smart cool afternoon print try J. C. Penney company and at a reasonable price you can get voiles, prints, organdies, trimmed in ruffles, and having the smartest lines. And they are showing along with these summertime dresses, pastel sport frocks, with cunningly cut summer sandals to match.

In strolling through the Hollywood shop we see a number of different sport frocks, so sensible and practical for the summer trip. A white dress with scalloped collar and three double box pleats in the front gives a good showing for a red jacket, polka-dotted with white also showing the white ruffles on the sleeve. A smarter effect is given the jacket by the row of six white buttons and their loops which close the jacket in the front.

Carroll Gift and Toggery shop is keeping up with the midsummer times by offering eyelet embroidered dresses in the ever popular pastel shades. These washable frocks are exceedingly practical for house and afternoon wear.

Here, too, we find many smart lingerie and pajama sets for the June bride; we are again mentioning the lingerie this week as they have an almost complete showing in this line.

With Beckie's monthly sale being offered, it is a good chance for the going-away person to get the best for the least here in hostelry needs, especially since the Phoenix and Allen A brands are being offered.

NEW PAYMENT ALIBI PLANNED

BERLIN, June 11 (AP)—The new dictatorial government today drafted a declaration to the Lausanne reparations conference in which it will attempt to state Germany's inability to pay more reparations in a manner which will appease France.

Without disavowing the validity of the former government's signature to the Young reparations plan, Chancellor Franz von Papen will reiterate to the conference that it is impossible for the Reich to resume payments at the conclusion of the Hoover moratorium year.

And lingerie that will meet the needs of each and everyone of the summer usages.

With the closing of its doors, Adcock and Romow's are offering the newest summer styles in dresses, suits, shoes, millinery, lingerie, all at the reasonable prices of a closing out sale.

And since its playtime for the youngsters, Ronzone's are showing print pajama suits, with caps and umbrellas to match the suit—just the thing to please the kiddies during their vacation.

For your jewelry needs almost any of the dress shops can offer the newest designs and colors in costume jewelry, just the set to match your bag, hat, and other accessories. Ronzone's, the Hollywood shop, and Penney's are included in this showing.

LAS VEGAS SOCIAL SWIRL

Mrs. F. A. Gibson was honored at the Grand Chapter, O. E. S., which has just concluded its sessions in Reno, by being elected Associate Grand Matron. The honor is well deserved as Mrs. Gibson has been one of the faithful workers of Southgate Chapter.

The crowning event of the Legion program was the grand ball given last evening at the Lorenzi resort. The spot was indeed a fairy like setting for the prettily gowned wives and sweethearts of the Legionnaires. Winemasters Mary Lindsey was crowned queen of the ball with appropriate ceremonies.

One of the delightful features of the Legion convention program was the dinner dance at the Meadows Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bover entertained at dinner Friday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sultson of Reno who were attending the convention.

Mrs. O. W. Yates was hostess at one table of contract Tuesday. Those enjoying the luncheon and game were Mesdames W. R. Bracken, Len A. McNamee, Sam Lawson and the hostess.

Mrs. W. N. Schuyler entertained a foursome at luncheon, followed by contract Wednesday. The guests included Mrs. Will Beckley, Mrs. C. E. Pembroke and Mrs. W. R. Bracken.

JUNE WEDDINGS SHOW SPURT IN FIRST FEW DAYS

June is truly the month for brides if figures at the county clerk's office are any indication. Up to noon yesterday, 59 couples had been licensed to wed. Heretofore August has always been the banner month for marriages in Las Vegas, according to County Clerk Scott, but with the early June rush of romantic couples, it would seem that June is coming into its own in Las Vegas at last.
