MARKETS AT A GLANCE

BY OTTO E. STURM
United Press Financial Writer
NEW YORK, June 13 (U.P.)—Traders stayed out of the stock market today and prices, with few exceptions, drifted up and down fractionally in the dullest session of the month.
Another display of fireworks in Auburn Auto failed to shake the market out of its lethargy and Wall Street was indifferent also to the house's apparent approval of the bonus bill.
Gains and losses were about equally divided when the final gong rang; U. S. Steel at 26, off 3/8, Allied Chemical 5 1/2, unchanged, American Telephone 8 1/2, up 1/8, Du Pont 27, unchanged, and General Electric, 10 1/8, off 1/8.

months ended April 30 over the corresponding period of 1931.
Increasing orders from automotive manufacturers brings resumption of operations at nine of the thirteen mills of Follansbee Brothers Co., W. V., steel company.
Standard Oil of California promises increase of 25 cents a barrel in crude oil prices when and if California oil production is curtailed to 476,700 barrels daily.
President Tew of B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. says the tax on tire sales has stimulated consumer buying.
