NEGROES WILL GET JOBS ON PROJECT

Largely through the efforts of Las Vegas colored citizens there will be no further discrimination against the employment of colored labor on the Hoover dam, it was learned early yesterday.

Senator Tasker L. Oddie took up the cudgels for the colored race and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People bringing about a conference between W. A. Bechtel, president of the Six Companies, Inc., and Secretary Wilbur of the Department of the Interior.

Bechtel stated that he had never heard of any refusal to employ colored people, but said he would take the matter up immediately on his return to Boulder City, and see that provision was made for their employment on the work when and if they had the necessary experience.

Substantiating this information a communication from Walter White, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People reads in part as follows:

"I am writing to give you the latest information on the matter of employment of negroes at Boulder dam. The following information has just been received by us from Secretary of the Interior Ray Lyman Wilbur:

"Since writing you on June 6, I am advised by the Six Companies, Inc., that when additions to the force are made the company will arrange to give employment to negro labor."

LEGION PLANS ANOTHER BALL

The first public dance to be given by the American Legion in their new home is being planned for the week of June 26, probably on the night of the 28th, according to R. F. Skinner, local Legion Post Commander.

If J. Smith will call at the theater box office, Boulder theater, he will receive a free ticket, good for today only at Boulder theater.
